The exercise of the foregoing powers, rights, authority, duties, and responsibilities by the Board, the adoption of policies, rules, regulations and practices in furtherance thereof, and the use of judgment and discretion in connection therewith shall be limited only by the specific and express terms of this Agreement, and then only to the extent such specific and express terms hereof are in conformance with the Constitution and laws of the State of Michigan and the Constitution and laws of the United States.

ARTICLE 3

- (b) The term "employee" as used herein shall include the following: All Preschool Employees, but shall exclude administrators and all other employees.
- (c) All unit members shall meet the requirements mandated by state and federal law for their positions; failure to do so shall be grounds for immediate termination.

- (d) The employer agrees that, upon hiring any new employee who is covered by this Agreement, the employer shall notify the appropriate Union Steward in writing of the name, date of hire, classification and job location of the new employee.

Section 2

The Union agrees that at no time will it solicit or collect monies of any kind on employer time.

PROBATIONARY PERIOD

A newly employed employee shall be subject to a probationary period of not less than sixty (60) calendar days. During this probationary period, the employee shall be evaluated by an administrator. During this probationary period, the employee shall not have appeal to the grievance procedure for suspension or discharge from employment, but shall be entitled to all other benefits and shall be subject to all obligations of this Agreement. In the event that the employee is absent for more than ten (10) working days during the probationary period, it shall be extended for an additional period such that the employee actually works at least thirty-five (35) days.

STEWARDS

- (a) The employees may be represented by a Chief and an Alternate Steward, who shall be chosen or selected in a manner determined by the employees and the Union, and whose names shall be made known to the Board in writing.
- (b) The Chief or Alternate Steward shall investigate grievances during non-work time. Meetings with administration representatives, if occurring during what would normally be work time for the Steward(s), shall be paid.

NON-DISCRIMINATION

The Board and the Union both recognize their responsibilities under Federal, State and Local laws pertaining to fair employment practices as well as the moral principles involved in the area of Civil Rights. Accordingly, both parties reaffirm by this Agreement the commitment not to discriminate against any person or persons of race, creed, color, religion, sex, age or national origin, height, weight, disability or marital status.

ARTICLE 7

SAFETY PRACTICES

- (b) The employee will be expected to notify the employer in writing of any such job hazard as soon as the employee first becomes aware of such unsafe areas, conditions or equipment.

ARTICLE 8

WORK SCHEDULES

Work days and work hours shall be set by the employer in accordance with program needs and funding constraints. An employee is expected to work the days and hours so set unless time off is approved by the employer. Position assignments shall be determined by group consensus, as has occurred in the past, subject to final approval by the Administrator. Work in excess of forty (40) hours in a work week shall be paid at one and one-half (1 1/2) the employee's regular hourly rate. Employees may also be required to attend District sponsored in-service activities, such as First Aid Training, CPR training, for which time they will be paid.

An employee is expected not to take time off unless good reason exists. Time off shall not be taken outside the maximums indicated below. It is understood that the Board may fill the employee's position on a temporary basis so long as the employee is on leave.

- (a) Family Emergencies: Up to three (3) days per school year. Family emergencies are defined as serious illness requiring the employee's presence. If additional time off for this reason is necessary, application may be made under (c) of this Article.
- (b) Personal Medical Disability: Until end of medical disability or end of school year (whichever occurs first). The employer may require medical certification of disability. An employee will not be terminated prior to one (1) calendar year of absence and may be granted an extended leave at the discretion of the Board.
- (c) Other Good Reason: Requested in writing and approved by the Assistant Superintendent or designee in writing prior to any time being taken, Each such request shall be approved, or not approved, on its own merits and shall not be precedent for any other approval. The past attendance of the employee, length of employment, and effect on program may be factors, in addition to the reason for the request, in determining approval or non-approval. Leaves granted under this paragraph which exceed ninety (90) working days will be with seniority adjusted by a period corresponding to the excess of thirty working days.

- (d) It is acknowledged that all employees are entitled to all of the rights enumerated in the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993. Any provisions of this contract contrary to that law are null and void.

ARTICLE 9-A

PAID LEAVES

Section 1 - Personal Days

An employee shall receive personal leave hours in an amount equal to one and a half of his/her regularly scheduled hours for ~~the~~ a week, up to a maximum of thirty-six (36) hours per school year. (For example, an employee who is regularly scheduled to work twenty-four [24] hours a week shall receive thirty-six [36] hours of paid leave for the school year. Employees shall be allowed to use personal time in one hour increments provided they can arrange for coverage.

If an employee has any personal leave hours remaining at the end of the school year, the employee shall be paid for these hours in a lump sum. The hourly wage rate for these hours shall be calculated based upon the weekly wages that an employee would normally receive based upon his/her regular work schedule, divided by the number of hours worked during the week. (For example, if an employee worked both as an aide and teacher during the week for a total of 20 hours, and earned a total of $225 for the week, the hourly wage rate would be $11.25 [$225 divided by 20 equals $11.25]).

Such requests will be considered by the Board, or designee. Such leave shall be granted for a period up to three (3) regularly scheduled work days or five (5) regularly scheduled work days, for husband, wife, son, daughter, stepchildren, father, mother, father-in-law and mother-in-law provided the employee is attending the funeral or memorial service. SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES FOR BARGAINING UNIT EMPLOYEES

Section 1 Definitions

- (a) A grievance under this Agreement is a written dispute, claim or complaint arising under and during the term of the Agreement and filed by an employee in the bargaining unit. Grievances are limited to matters of interpretation or application of express provisions of this Agreement. The parties recognizing that an orderly grievance procedure is necessary, agree that each step must be adhered to as set forth herein or the grievance is forfeited.
- (b) All grievances must be instituted within five (5) working days after occurrence of the circumstances giving rise to the grievance or five (5) days after such should reasonably have been known, otherwise the right to file a grievance is forfeited and no grievance shall be deemed to exist.
- (c) Any and all grievances resolved at any step of the grievance procedure as contained in this Agreement shall be final and binding on the Board, the Union, and any and all employees involved in the particular grievance.
- (d) Grievances shall be processed from one step to the next within the time limit prescribed in each of the steps. Any grievance upon which a disposition is not made by the administration within the time limits prescribed, or any extension which may be agreed to, may be referred to the next step in the grievance procedure, the time limit to run from the date when time for disposition expired. Any grievance not carried to the next step by the Union within the prescribed time limits or such extension which may be agreed to, shall automatically close upon the basis of the last disposition.
- (e) The Board shall not be required to pay back wages for periods prior to the time a written grievance is filed; provided, that in the case of a pay shortage, of which the employee had not been aware before receiving his/her pay, any adjustments made shall be retroactive to the beginning of that pay period providing the employee institutes his/her grievance within five (5) working days after receipt of such pay.
- (f) When an employee is given a disciplinary discharge or suspension or a written reprimand and/or warning which is affixed to his/her personnel record, the employee will be notified in writing of the action taken. Such disciplinary action shall be deemed final and automatically closed unless a written grievance is filed at Step I within five (5) working days from the time of presentation of the notice to the employee.
- (g) All claims for back compensation shall be limited to the amount of compensation that the employee would otherwise have earned less any unemployment compensation or compensation for personal services that he/she may have received, or could with diligent effort have received from any source during the period in question.
- (h) Any employee having a grievance shall first schedule an oral discussion with the immediate supervisor. A mutually convenient time for discussion of the grievance (within five [5] working days of the occurrence) shall be scheduled in advance by the employee and the supervisor. The supervisor may refuse to discuss the grievance with the employee at any other time.

STEP 1. In the event the grievance is not settled orally by the supervisor, the Steward shall submit the grievance in writing to the supervisor within five (5) working days from the oral discussion. The employee and the Steward shall sign the grievance forms. The grievance forms must include (1) a statement of the grievance and facts upon which it is based and citing alleged violation(s) of this Agreement, and (2) the remedy or correction requested. The supervisor shall give his decision in writing within five (5) working days.

STEP 2. Failing to resolve the grievance in the first step, the Union shall within five (5) days of receipt of the supervisor's disposition contact the Superintendent's designee to discuss said grievance.

This meeting shall be scheduled for a mutually agreeable time, which time shall not exceed, however, five (5) working days from the time the Union contacts the Superintendent's designee, unless a longer interval is mutually agreed upon. The Superintendent's designee shall give a decision in writing relative to the grievance within five (5) working days of the meeting with the business representative of the Union.

STEP 3. Failing to resolve the grievance in the second step, the Union shall within five (5) working days of the Superintendent's designee's disposition contact the Superintendent of Schools to discuss said grievance. This meeting shall be scheduled at a mutually agreeable time, which time shall not exceed, however, five (5) working days from the time the Union contacts the Superintendent of Schools unless a longer time is mutually agreed upon. The Superintendent of Schools shall give his/her decision in writing relative to the grievance within five (5) working days of his/her meeting with the business representative of the Union. The Superintendent's decision shall be final and binding, unless changed as a result of the procedure in Step 4.

STEP 4. A. The following Step 4 shall only apply to grievances contesting the discharge of an employee. If the Union is dissatisfied with the decision of the Superintendent, the Union may appeal the grievance to arbitration within fifteen (15) days after receiving the Superintendent's decision by giving written notice to the Superintendent of the Union's intent to arbitrate. If the parties are unable to agree upon an arbitrator within seven (7) days of such notice, the Union shall refer the matter to the Michigan Employment Relations Commission for the selection of an impartial arbitrator under its procedures. The arbitrator shall follow American Arbitration Association labor arbitration rules.

The Arbitrator so selected will confer with the parties and hold hearings promptly and will issue his/her decision not later than thirty (30) days from the date of the close of the hearing. The Arbitrator's decision shall be in writing and will set forth his findings of fact, reasoning, and conclusions on the issues submitted.

The Arbitrator shall be limited to deciding whether an alleged violation, misinterpretation or misapplication of a specific article or section of this Agreement has occurred, and shall not usurp the actions of the District in the proper exercise of its judgment and discretion under the law and this Agreement. The decision of the Arbitrator, if within the scope of his authority as above set forth, shall be final and binding. The costs of arbitration shall be borne by the losing party; however, each party shall bear its own expense.

B. With respect to grievances not contesting the discharge of an employee, if the Union is dissatisfied with the decision of the Superintendent, the Union may appeal the grievance to mediation within fifteen (15) days after receiving the Superintendent's decision by requesting the Michigan Employment Relations Commission to appoint a mediator to resolve the dispute. The District agrees to participate in the mediation process.

ARTICLE 13

ARTICLE 14

SCOPE, WAIVER AND ALTERATION OF AGREEMENT

Section 1

No agreement, alteration, understanding, variation, waiver or modification of any of the terms, conditions or covenants contained herein shall be made by any employee or group of employees with the Board, unless executed in writing between the parties hereto and the same has been ratified by the Union.

Section 2

The waiver of any breach or condition of this Agreement by either party shall not constitute a precedent in the future enforcement of the terms and conditions herein.

Section 3

If any Article or Section of this Agreement or any supplement thereto should be held invalid by operation of Law or by any competent jurisdiction or tribunal, or if compliance with or enforcement of any Article or Section should be restrained by such tribunal, the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected thereby, and the parties shall enter into immediate collective bargaining negotiations for the purpose of arriving at a mutually satisfactory replacement for such Article or Section.
