Seniority

The Board recognized seniority should be taken into account when a staff reduction is necessary. On the other hand, the Association recognizes that not all Food Service Employees have the skills to function in each position (i.e. drive a truck, clean, lift heavy boxes, cook, act as a cashier, etc.). If a staff reduction is made the Board will attempt to use seniority to determine the order of lay-off. A laid-off staff member who believes their skills are adequate to perform the tasks of a lower seniority person still employed has the right to request a hearing with the Superintendent.

If the Superintendent grants the Food Service Worker's request to "bump" a lower seniority person, the Food Service Worker will have thirty (30) days to demonstrate that his/her skill is adequate to perform the assigned tasks. If the Food Service Worker is unable to perform the assigned tasks in a satisfactory manner, the employee shall be returned to laid-off status.

The seniority list will be updated annually and posted by September 30 for the employees to verify seniority dates.

An employee that is placed on workman's compensation will continue to gain seniority for ninety (90) calendar days from the date that employee is placed on workman's compensation. If an employee takes sick leave they will continue to gain seniority for ninety (90) calendar days beyond the day that their sick leave is exhausted.

- I. A substitute shall work the lowest hours at the building where they are working.
