WITNESSETH

Whereas, the Employer has a statutory obligation, pursuant to Act 379 of the Michigan Public Acts of 1965, to bargain with the Union as the representative of its bus drivers with respect to hours, wages, terms and conditions of employment, the parties have reached agreement on all such matters and desire to execute this contract covering such agreement.

ARTICLE 1 RECOGNITION

Pursuant to and in accordance with all applicable provisions of Act 379 of the Public Acts of 1965, as amended, the Employer does hereby recognize the Union as the exclusive representative for the purpose of collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment and other conditions of employment for the terms of this Agreement of all employees of the Employer included in the bargaining unit described below; excluding substitutes, supervisors; and all other employees of the district.

All regularly scheduled and certified school bus drivers and the Head Mechanic employed by Portland Public Schools, excluding supervisory employees.

A substitute shall be defined as one who works in the place of a regular employee on a temporary basis.

Employees may hold more than one position with the employer provided 1) it does not create an overtime situation; 2) the schedules do not conflict and 3) that hours cannot be combined for the purposes of insurance benefits.

ARTICLE 2 EMPLOYER RIGHTS

- A. It is expressly agreed that all rights which ordinarily vest in and have been exercised by the Employer, except those which are clearly and expressly relinquished herein by the Employer, shall continue to vest exclusively in and be exercised exclusively by the Employer without prior negotiations with the Union either as to the taking of action under such rights or with respect to the consequence of such action during the term of this Agreement. Such rights shall include by way of illustration and not by way of limitation, the right to:

1. Manage and control the school's business, the equipment, the operations and to direct the working forces and affairs of the Employer.
 2. Continue its rights of assignment and direction of work of all its personnel; determine the hours of work and starting times and scheduling of all the foregoing; the right to establish, modify or change any work or business hours or days.
 3. The right to direct the working forces, including the right to hire, promote, suspend and discharge employees, transfer employees, assign work or extra duties to employees within their respective classifications, determine the size of the work force and to lay off employees.
 4. Determine the type of services, supplies and equipment necessary to continue its operations and to determine the methods, schedules, and standards of operation; the means, methods and processes of carrying on the work including automation thereof or changes therein, the institution of new and/or improved methods or changes therein.

 6. Determine the number and location or relocation of its facilities, including the establishment or relocations of new schools, buildings, departments, divisions or location or closing of offices, departments, divisions or subdivisions, buildings or other facilities.

 9. Determine the size of the management organization, its functions, authority, and amount of supervision and table of organization.
- B. The exercise of the foregoing powers, rights, duties and responsibilities by the Employer and the adoption of policies, rules, regulations and practices in the furtherance thereof, shall be the exclusive prerogative of the Employer except as otherwise abridged by the express provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 SPECIAL CONFERENCES

By mutual agreement, special conferences may be held during the life of this Agreement between the Union and the Employer, or their designated representative(s). Arrangements for such special conferences shall be made in advance and an agenda of the matters to be taken up at the meeting shall be presented at the time the conference is requested. Conferences shall be held at a mutually-agreed time and date.

Designated representatives for the purpose of this Article shall be construed to mean employee or non-employee representatives.

The Union representatives may meet at a place designated by the Employer on the Employer's property for one-half (1/2) hour immediately preceding the conference with the representatives of the Employer for which written request has been made.

ARTICLE 4 UNION REPRESENTATION

A. Chief Stewards, Alternate Stewards and Chapter Chairperson.

The employees covered by this Agreement will be represented by one (1) Chief Steward and one (1) Chapter Chairperson and one (1) Alternate. The Union shall have the exclusive right to appoint such Steward.

1. The Employer will be notified in writing of the names of the Chief Steward, Chapter Chairperson and Alternate Steward who will serve only in the absence of the Chief Steward or Chapter Chairperson by September 1 and as changes occur after that date during the year.
2. As a general rule, the Chapter Chairperson or Chief Steward will investigate and present grievances on his/her own time. However, whenever the Employer requests the presence of the Chapter Chairperson and/or the Chief, or schedules a conference during working hours, the Chapter Chairperson and/or the Chief Steward will be allowed time off without loss of time or pay.

B. Union Bargaining Committee.

1. Employees covered by this Agreement will be represented in negotiations by up to three (3) negotiating committee members.
2. If bargaining by the parties conflicts with regular work hours, members of the bargaining committee shall suffer no loss of time or pay.

ARTICLE 5 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A grievance shall be an alleged violation of the express terms of this contract or a dispute over its application. The Chapter Chairperson and/or Chief Steward may file a grievance on behalf of the Union if the alleged violation affects bargaining unit integrity or the entire bargaining unit.

An alleged violation of any written policy or written rule or condition of employment will be the subject of a Special Conference as described in Article 3.

STEP ONE. If an employee feels he/she has a grievance, the employee shall discuss the grievance with the Chief Steward. The Chief Steward will discuss the grievance with the immediate supervisor. If the matter is not thereby disposed of, it will be submitted in written form by the Chief Steward to the immediate supervisor within fifteen (15) working days from the date the grievance occurred.

Written grievances shall be submitted on the standard Michigan Council #25 Grievance Report Form and shall be as complete as possible. The written grievance shall be signed by the grievant or grievants. The immediate supervisor shall answer the grievance in writing within fifteen (15) working days.

STEP TWO. If the grievance has not been settled, it shall be presented in writing and signed by the grievant to the Superintendent within fifteen (15) working days after the supervisor's response is received. A grievance conference shall be held within five (5) working days if requested by the Union or the Employer. The Superintendent shall respond to the grievance in writing within fifteen (15) working days from the date received or fifteen (15) working days from the conference, if held.

STEP THREE - ARBITRATION

If, at the conclusion of the above meeting, the dispute remains, the Union shall, within thirty (30) calendar days serve written notice to the Employer of its intent to arbitrate the dispute by filing a demand to arbitrate the Michigan Employment Relations Commission.

The fees and approved expenses of the arbitrator will be paid equally by the parties, except that each party shall assume its own costs for representation including any expense of witnesses.

Witnesses, under this Employer, requested by the Union, shall be released from work for the arbitration.

POWER OF THE ARBITRATOR

A. The arbitrator shall be empowered to decide disputes about the interpretation or application of the clauses of this Agreement, and about alleged violations of the Agreement. The arbitrator shall have no power to add to, or subtract from, or modify any of the terms of this Agreement, nor shall the arbitrator substitute their discretion for that of the Board of Education or the Union where such discretion has been retained by the Board or the Union, nor shall he/she exercise any responsibility or function of the Board of Education or the Union, nor shall the arbitrator have the power to establish or change any salary schedules, nor shall the arbitrator have the power to interpret any state or federal laws. However, he/she shall be empowered to reverse or sustain an unjust disciplinary action.

If either party disputes that the matter is not subject to arbitration under the terms of this Agreement, that dispute shall be submitted to an arbitrator as a separate issue. The arbitrator who rules on the arbitrability of the matter shall be banned from ruling on the merits of the grievance, unless there is mutual agreement of the parties involved.

He/she shall have no authority to award a monetary judgment retroactively to a date earlier than the alleged violation or where there has been no monetary loss.

Any grievances which are similar in nature may be heard simultaneously by the arbitrator, upon written consent of the Board and the Union.

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the employees, the Union and the Board; any decision of the arbitrator shall be implemented forthwith, however the parties retain the right to appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction.

- B. The failure of the Union to appeal, at any step of the grievance procedure, within the specified time limits, shall be deemed to be settled on the terms of the Employer's last answer. If the Employer does not respond in a timely manner, the Union may appeal to the next level within the appropriate number of days from the date the answer was due. Any grievance may be withdrawn, without prejudice, at any stage of the grievance procedure upon mutual consent of the Union and the Board. The financial liability of either party shall be limited to those specified in this Article.
- C. The time limits specified herein for movement of grievances through the process shall be strictly adhered to; however, they may be relaxed or extended by mutual written consent of the parties.
- D. For purposes of this Article "calendar days" shall be construed to mean weekdays, excluding Saturday, Sunday and holidays.

ARTICLE 6 DISCHARGE AND SUSPENSION

- A. Discipline shall include oral and written reprimands, suspensions, without pay, and discharge. The discipline of non-probationary employees shall be applied in a progressive manner, as applicable. Employees shall not be disciplined in front of other employees, students, or the public.
- B. The discharged or suspended employee will be allowed to discuss his/her discharge or suspension with the Chief Steward and the Employer will make available a meeting room where they may do so. Upon request, the Employer or his designated representative may discuss the discharge or suspension with the employee and the Steward.

The Employer agrees promptly upon the discharge or suspension of an employee to notify the Chief Steward in writing.

The parties agree that grievances involving discharge shall proceed directly to Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure.

- C. In imposing any discipline or discharge on a current charge, the Employer may take into consideration any prior infractions or disciplinary actions in determining whether to take action or what the level of penalty will be. It is recognized that if a grievance is filed and arbitrated, that the arbitrator may review the propriety of considering the prior action.

SENIORITY

- A. The Head Mechanic shall be on probation for the first sixty (60) active work days of their employment. Time missed will serve to extend the probationary period. Probationary employees are considered employed "at will" and are subject to discipline and dismissal at the discretion of the district and shall have no recourse to the grievance procedure.

There shall be no seniority among probationary employees. When employees complete the probationary period, they shall be entered on the seniority list of the unit; and rank for seniority from their last date of hire.

If there are no errors identified on the list within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of distribution, the list will be deemed permanently correct. When lists are posted in future years, the only time that can be challenged is the time period since the last posting.

ARTICLE 9
ROUTE RELATED PROCEDURES

- A. In the event a route is permanently altered by fifteen (15) minutes per run or more, a new time will be established.
