ARTICLE 5: WORKING CONDITIONS

A. Working Conditions

Teachers shall be required to report to their teaching station (classroom) ten (10) minutes before the opening of the pupils' regular school day in the morning. The pupil day begins with the first bell of the day. Teachers are encouraged to remain for a sufficient period after the close of the pupils' school day to attend to those matters, which properly require attention at that time, including consultations with parents when scheduled directly with the teachers.

1. The normal weekly teaching load in the middle and senior high schools will include five (5) unassigned preparation periods. Assignment to a supervised study period shall be considered a teaching period for purposes of this Article. The student day shall begin at 7:50 a.m. and end at 2:45 p.m. The teacher day shall begin at 7:40 a.m. and end at 2:55 p.m. Teachers shall be expected to remain on duty as long as needed in the event of emergency situations similar to, but not limited to, severe weather warnings.
2. All teachers shall have a duty-free uninterrupted lunch period of no less than thirty-five (35) minutes. Secondary teachers may be assigned lunch supervision in lieu of a teaching period when it can be demonstrated that no classroom teaching is available. Implementation of this provision will be to insure the fullest workday possible for the affected teachers.
3. Each teacher shall receive a minimum of two hundred and fifty (250) minutes of preparation time per week. Only recess and all time in which an elementary classroom teacher's class is being instructed by a special activities teacher shall be counted as recognized preparation time in accordance with the foregoing. In the event of inclement weather one (1) teacher per grade can be expected to furnish supervision for the children during recess periods. No teacher will be expected to supervise more than three (3) indoor recesses per year. The principal will post and schedule one (1) week in advance indicating teachers that will supervise indoor recess in the event of inclement weather.
4. It is expressly understood that the teacher preparation/conference period is subject to the total school program; and, as a result, such things as special events, field trips, testing programs, emergency class needs, and assemblies, etc., may from time to time be substituted for preparation/conference time.

Preparation/Conference periods shall be used for such things as thorough preparation, conferences with parents, teachers, and administrators, and special assistance to students.

Preparation/Conference time shall not be used or spent on any unconnected or non-school activity, except in emergency situations and with the permission of the principal or his designee.

In addition, it is expressly understood that teachers will not leave their buildings during preparation time on personal errands or the like, without permission of the principal or designee.

5. Daily preparation for effective teaching, correcting papers, themes, attending faculty meetings, and similar activities require many hours of application outside the classroom and add to the professional responsibilities of the teacher. In addition; attendance at staff conferences, parent-teacher conferences, PTO meetings, and the like, are encouraged as a professional responsibility of the teacher. It is recognized that these demands may be considered excessive. It is accordingly agreed that such extra-curricular activities shall not exceed two (2) hours per week, or six (6) hours per month with the exception of two (2) formal parent-teacher conferences per school year. When teachers are required to participate in night parent-teacher conferences they shall be granted released time within the same calendar week equal to the time scheduled for the conferences.
6. A teacher engaged during the school day in negotiating on behalf of the Association with any representative for the Board or participating in any formal professional grievance negotiation, including arbitration, shall be released from regular duties without loss of salary.
7. Any classroom teaching assignments in addition to the normal teaching schedule during the regular school day or year, including adult education courses, driver education courses, extra duties enumerated in Appendix B, and summer school courses, shall not be obligatory but shall be with the consent of the teacher. Preference in making such assignments will be given to tenure teachers of equal qualifications regularly employed in the District.
8. When a teacher is assigned less than a full day, he/she will receive a prorated salary and benefits. The pro-ration factor will be $\frac{1}{6}$ (16 $\frac{2}{3}$ %) on a seven-hour day and $\frac{1}{5}$ (20%) on a six-hour day, and $\frac{1}{3}$ (33%) on a four hour day. The pro-ration factor will be based on assigned teaching hours. (Note – this pro-ration factor allows for pro-rated compensation for planning time.)
9. Because of the nature of the social worker's, counselor's and librarian's work, if the Board requires a social worker's, counselor's or librarian's length of employment to precede the regular teacher's contract year by at least one (1) week and extend beyond the regular teacher's contract by at least one (1) week, such additional weeks are to be pro-rated on the annual contract salary as set forth in Schedule A.

B. Class Size

Because the pupil-teacher ratio is an important aspect of an effective educational program, the parties agree that class size should be lowered whenever possible. In no event shall it exceed the following standards by more than five (5) except in traditional large group instruction or in classes where a tenured teacher has agreed in writing to exceed these standards by more than (5). In no situation will probationary teachers be asked to agree to exceed these standards.

The Board will make every effort to ensure that in classrooms involving workstations, the number of students assigned will not exceed the number who could be reasonably expected to work at such stations. (e.g. Work teams) This language is not intended to supersede the maximum class size language of this Article.

Whenever it appears that a particular pupil requires the attention of special counselors, social workers, law enforcement personnel, physicians, or other professional persons, or whenever it appears that the presence of a particular student in the class will impede the education of the balance of the class because of disruptions caused by said student, the Board will provide professional assistance for said student within the scope of the services which the School District can and does lawfully provide.
- B. Each teacher will file a classroom discipline plan with the building principal no later than the second Friday school is in session, if requested. The administration and teacher will sign the plan indicating agreement to its content.
- C. If a teacher has good reason to believe that a pupil's conduct in class, subject or activity constitutes conduct for which the pupil may be suspended from a class, subject, or activity, the teacher may suspend the pupil from the class for up to one (1) full school day. The teacher shall immediately report the suspension and the reason for the suspension to the school principal for appropriate action. If that action requires the continued presence of the pupil at school, the pupil shall be under appropriate supervision. As soon as possible after a suspension under this section, the teacher shall ask the parent or guardian of the pupil to attend a parent-teacher conference regarding the suspension. Whenever necessary and practicable, a school counselor, school psychologist or school social worker shall attend the conference. Corporal punishment means the deliberate infliction of physical pain by any means upon the whole or any part of a student's body as a penalty or punishment for a student's offense. Any teacher who violates the prohibition against corporal punishment shall be subject to disciplinary action. The Board agrees to indemnify against any damages, fines, legal fees, or other costs as a consequence of any lawful act or omission by a teacher authorized by the provisions of this paragraph. An act or omission by a teacher in violation of this paragraph frees the Board of any responsibility to indemnify the teacher.

The maximum allowed is fourteen (14) hours per year. The teacher's request for such payment of these completed semester hours must be accompanied by a transcript of his/her grades.
