ARTICLE XIV – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. DEFINITIONS

1. A “grievance” is a claim by one (1) or more employees, or the Association, stating that there has been an alleged improper application or violation of this Agreement.
2. An “aggrieved employee” is the employee (or employees), or the Association who is directly affected by the allegation and, therefore, will make the claim.

3. Association grievances will be for the purpose of protecting the integrity of this Agreement and not to advance any issue or concern against the will of an affected bargaining unit member. Association grievances will commence, in writing, at Level Two.
4. The Association President may file a class action grievance provided all employees within a given position (see Article I, Recognition) are equally and directly affected.

B. GRIEVANCE FORM

The grievance form found in Appendix B shall be utilized in the processing of grievances. Copies can be obtained from the Association representatives in each building or the Building Supervisor. The school district shall furnish additional copies of the forms with the publication of successor agreements as needed.

C. PROCEDURE

1. Since it is important that grievances be processed as rapidly as possible, the number of days (work days which mean Monday-Friday excluding holidays identified previously) indicated at each level shall be considered a maximum and every effort shall be made to expedite the process. If appropriate action is not taken by the aggrieved within the time limit specified, the grievance will be deemed settled on the basis of the disposition at the preceding level. In the event the written answer is not submitted in the time specified, the aggrieved may proceed to the next level. The time limits specified may, however, be extended by mutual agreement, which shall be placed in writing by the requesting party between the Association President or designee and the Superintendent or designee.
2. Level One (Immediate Supervisor). An employee shall, within ten (10) working days of the occurrence of the event upon which the grievance is based, orally discuss the matter with his/her immediate supervisor with the objective of resolving the matter informally. IF the aggrieved is not satisfied with the disposition from the oral discussion and wishes to further pursue the matter, he/she shall file the grievance in writing. The written grievance must be submitted to the aggrieved employee's immediate supervisor within ten (10) working days of the occurrence of the grievance. A written answer shall be given within three (3) working days following receipt of the written grievance.
3. Level Two (Assistant Superintendent). If the answer of the immediate supervisor is not satisfactory to the aggrieved, the aggrieved may present the grievance to the Assistant Superintendent not more than five (5) working days following the answer received in Level One. The decision of the Assistant Superintendent shall be given, in writing, within five (5) working days following receipt of the grievance.
4. Level Three (Superintendent). If the answer of the Assistant Superintendent is not satisfactory to the aggrieved, the aggrieved may present the grievance to the Superintendent not more than five (5) working days following the answer received in Level Two. The decision of the Superintendent shall be given, in writing, within five (5) working days following receipt of the grievance.
5. Level Four (Binding Arbitration). If the decision of the Superintendent is not satisfactory to the aggrieved, the grievance may be submitted to arbitration by written notice given by the Association to the Superintendent within ten (10) working days after receipt of the Superintendent's decision. An impartial arbitrator shall be selected from a panel of five (5) qualified persons prepared by the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its procedures which shall likewise govern the arbitration hearing.
 - a. The power of the arbitrator shall be limited to:
 - i. The interpretation concerning the application of the expressed terms of this Agreement.
 - ii. He/She shall have no power to alter, add or to subtract from the terms of this Agreement as written.

- iii. The determination as to whether the Board has violated the expressed article(s) or section(s) of this Agreement, with it being understood that any matter not specifically set forth in this Agreement remains within the reserved rights of the Board.
- b. All claims for back wages shall be limited to the amount of wages that the employee would otherwise have earned, less any compensation that he/she may have received from any source of a like nature, i.e., employment during the period of time for which back pay is claimed.
- c. The decision of the arbitrator shall be binding on all parties involved.
- d. The fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the Board and the Association. All other expenses shall be borne by the party incurring them.

APPENDIX E – Family Medical Leave Act of 1993 Fact Sheet

U.S. Department of Labor

Program Highlights

Fact Sheet No. ESA 93-24

THE FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT OF 1993

The Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA) was enacted on February 5, 1993.

The new law is effective on August 5, 1993, for most employers. If a collective bargaining agreement (CBA) is in effect on that date, the Act becomes effective on the expiration date of the CBA or February 5, 1994, whichever is earlier.

The U.S. Department of Labor's employment Standards Administration, Wage and Hour Division, administers and enforces FMLA for all private, state and local government employees, and some federal employees.

FMLA entitles eligible employees to take up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave each year for specified family and medical reasons. An eligible employee's right to FMLA leave begins on August 5, 1993; any leave taken before that date does not count as FMLA leave.

The law contains provisions on employer coverage; employee eligibility for the law's benefits; entitlement to leave; maintenance of health benefits during leave, and job restoration after leave; notice and certification of the need for FMLA leave; and, protections for employees who request or take FMLA leave. The law also requires employers to keep certain records.

Employer Coverage

FMLA applies to all:

- public agencies, including state, local and federal employers, local education agencies (schools) and,
- private-sector employers who employed 50 or more employees in 20 or more workweeks in the current or preceding calendar year and who are engaged in commerce or in any industry or activity affecting commerce - including joint employers and successors of covered employers.

Employee Eligibility

To be eligible for FMLA benefits, an employee must:

- Work for a covered employer;
 - Have worked for employer for a total of at least 12 months;
 - Have worked at least 1,250 hours over the previous 12 months; and,
- Work at a location where at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

Most federal and certain congressional employees are also covered by the law and are subject to the jurisdiction of the U.S. Office of Personnel Management and the Congress.

Leave Entitlement

A covered employer must grant an eligible employee to a total of 12 work weeks of unpaid leave during any 12 months period for one or more of the following reasons:

- for the birth or placement of a child for adoption or foster care;
- to care for an immediate family member (spouse, child or parent) with a serious health condition; or to take a medical leave when the employee is unable to work because of a serious health condition.

Spouses employed by the same employer are jointly entitled to a combined total of 12 work weeks of family leave for the birth or placement of a child for adoption or foster care, and to care for a parent (but not a parent-in-law) who has a serious health condition.

Leave for the birth or placement for adoption or foster care must conclude within 12 months of the birth or placement.

Under some circumstances, employees may take FMLA leave intermittently - which means taking leave in blocks of time, or by reducing their normal weekly or daily week schedule.

- If FMLA leave is for birth or placement for adoption or foster care, use of intermittent leave is subject to the employer's approval.
- FMLA leave may be taken intermittently whenever medically necessary to care for a seriously ill family member or because the employee is seriously ill and unable to work.

Also, subject to certain conditions, employees or employers may choose to use accrued paid leave (such as sick or vacation leave) to cover some or all of the FMLA leave. The employer is responsible for designating if an employee's use of paid leave counts as FMLA leave, based on information from the employee. In no case can use of paid leave be credited as FMLA leave after the leave has ended.

"Serious health condition" means an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves:

- any period of incapacity or treatment connected with inpatient care (i.e., an overnight stay) in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical-care facility;
- any period of incapacity requiring absence of more than three calendar days from work, school, or other regular daily activities that also involves continuing treatment by (or under the supervision of) a health care provider; or
- continuing treatment by (or under the supervision of) a health care provider for a chronic or long-term health condition that is incurable or so serious that, if not treated, would likely result in a period of incapacity of more than three calendar days, and for prenatal care.

"Health care provider" means:

- doctors of medicine or osteopathy authorized to practice medicine or surgery by the state in which the doctor practices; or
- podiatrists, dentists, clinical psychologists, optometrists and chiropractors (limited to manual manipulation of the spine to correct a subluxation as demonstrated by x-ray to exist) authorized to practice, and performing in within the scope of their practice, under state law; or,
- nurse practitioners and nurse-midwives authorized to practice, and performing within the scope of their practice, as defined under state law; or,
- Christian Science practitioners listed with the First Church of Christ, Scientist of Boston, Massachusetts.

Maintenance of Health Benefits

A covered employer is required to maintain group health insurance coverage for an employee on FMLA leave whenever such insurance was provided before the leave was taken and on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. If applicable, arrangements will need to be made for employees to pay their share of health insurance premiums while on leave.

In some instances, the employer may recover premiums it paid to maintain health coverage for an employee who fails to return to work from FMLA leave.

Job Restoration

Upon return from FMLA leave, an employee must be restored to his or her original job, or to an equivalent job with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms and conditions.

In addition, an employee's use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that the employee earned or was entitled to before using FMLA leave.

Under specified and limited circumstances where restoration to employment will cause substantial and grievous economic injury to its operations, an employer may refuse to reinstate certain highly-paid "key" employees after using FMLA leave during which health coverage was maintained. In order to do so, the employer must:

- notify the employer of his/her status as a "key" employee in response to the employee's notice of intent to take FMLA leave;
 - notify the employee as soon as the employer decides it will deny job restoration and explain the reasons for this decision;
 - offer the employee a reasonable opportunity to return to work from FMLA leave after giving this notice; and,
 - make a final determination as to whether reinstatement will be denied at the end of the leave period if the employee then requests restoration.
- A "key" employee is a salaried "eligible" employee who is among the highest paid ten percent of employees within 75 miles of the work sites.

Notice and Certification

Employees seeking to use the FMLA leave may be required to provide:

- 30-day advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable;
- medical certifications supporting the need for leave due to a serious health condition affecting the employee or an immediate family member;
- second or third medical opinions and periodic recertification (at the employer's expense); and periodic reports during FMLA leave regarding the employee's status and intent to return to work.

When leave is needed to care for an immediate family member or the employee's own illness, and is for planned medical treatment, the employee must try to schedule treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operation.

Covered employers must post a notice approved by the Secretary of Labor explaining rights and responsibilities under FMLA. An employer that willfully violates this posting requirement may be subject to a fine of up to $100 for each separate offense.

Also, covered employers must inform employees of their rights and responsibilities under FMLA, including giving specific information when an employee gives notice of FMLA on what is required of the employee and what might happen in circumstances, such as if the employee fails to return to work after FMLA leave.

Unlawful Acts

It is unlawful for any employer to interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided by FMLA. It is also unlawful for an employer to discharge or discriminate against any individual for opposing any practice, or because of involvement in any proceeding related to FMLA.

Enforcement

FMLA is enforced, including investigation of complaints, by the U.S. Department's Employment Standards Administration, Wage and Hour Division. If violations cannot be satisfactorily resolved, the Department may begin action in court to compel compliance. An eligible employee may also bring a private civil action against an employer for violations.

Other Provisions

Special rules apply to employees of local education agencies. Generally, these rules provide for FMLA leave to be taken in blocks of time when intermittent leave is needed or the leave is required near the end of a school term.

Salaried executive, administrative, and professional employees of covered employers who meet the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) criteria for exemption from minimum wage and overtime under Regulations, 29 CFR part 541, do not lose their FLSA-exempt status by using any unpaid FMLA leave.

This special exemption extends only to "eligible" employees' use of leave required by FMLA.

The FMLA does not affect any other federal or state law which prohibits discrimination, nor supersede any state or local law which provides greater family or medical leave protection. Nor does it affect an employer's obligation to provide greater leave rights under a collective bargaining agreement or employment benefit plan. The FMLA also encourages employers to provide more general leave rights.

- f. ~~Rotation. A continuous rotation schedule will be used to determine extra trip assignments. Starting with the bus driver who has the highest seniority and then moving in descending order, the drivers will choose the trip or trips of their choice. When a trip has been selected and an emergency trip is posted, drivers cannot turn down the selected trip to take the emergency trip posting.~~
- g. ~~Summer Extra Trips. All summer extra trips will be offered to drivers by telephone on Thursday of each week as outlined in e. above. Drivers may call in or stop at the transportation office to review extra trip postings.~~
- h. ~~Multiple Trips. When more than one (1) bus is going to the same location at the same time and one (1) or more are canceled, the last driver(s) to sign up for the trip will be the one(s) canceled. This will maintain the order of rotation.~~

~~12. EMERGENCY TRIPS.~~

- a. ~~Emergency trips are defined as trips that are not posted by 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday. (Exception: When school is closed on Friday, these trips will be posted by 1:00 p.m. on Tuesday.)~~

 - c. ~~Emergency trips will be filled by the two methods. The method chosen will be determined by the amount of time available to fill the trip. The two methods are:~~
 - 1. ~~A "Regular Emergency Trip" method. This method will be used when a trip is more than 24 hours away when the request is received.~~
 - 2. ~~A "Same Day Emergency Trip" method. This method will be used when a trip is less than 24 hours away when the request is received.~~
 - d. ~~Drivers who select an extra trip have a responsibility to work it e.~~
- ~~The regular emergency trip method will be used as follows:-~~
- 1. ~~The trip notice will be posted for a 24 hour period on the transportation lounge board.~~
 - 2. ~~Each trip notice will have the time and date it is being posted written on it~~
 - 3. ~~When more than one trip is posted at the same time each trip notice will have an alphabet designator next to the time and date of the posting.~~
 - 4. ~~A seniority roster will also be attached to the trip notice. This roster will have a line indicating where the rotation starts with the date by line.~~
 - 5. ~~Drivers must indicate which trip they want by marking the yes column. If the trip has a letter designation assigned to it, that letter designation will also be placed in the yes column.~~
 - 6. ~~Drivers are eligible for only one trip per rotation.~~
 - 7. ~~It is the responsibility of each driver to check the bulletin board during the work day and mark the appropriate column. Drivers who do not mark either column will be passed over at the end of the 24 hour period.~~

- ~~8. Drivers may mark the yes column before their turn, however, at the end of the 24 hour posting period the driver with the highest seniority, by rotation, will be given the trip.~~
- ~~9. Seniority then rotates to the next driver for this next trip until the next Wednesday.~~
- ~~f. The same day emergency trip method will be used as follows:
 - ~~1. Drivers will be contacted via radio (when working) or by phone (if not working) using the seniority roster.
 - ~~a. Drivers who do not answer their radio after three radio attempts by base will be passed over.~~
 - ~~b. Drivers who do not answer their home phone after one attempt will be passed over.~~~~
 - ~~2. Drivers can indicate in advance if they do not want to be contacted for a particular type of trip. For example, if a driver never wants to be contacted for evening trips, this will be indicated on a seniority roster and they will not be contacted.~~
 - ~~3. If a trip must be filled using the same day emergency trip method during the time a regular emergency trip method is posted with a trip, the 24 hour rule will be voided and the trip posted with the regular emergency trip method will be filled first by contacting drivers by radio or phone as described in section f.i.a. above. Once the trip posted with the regular emergency trip method is filled, seniority will rotate to the next driver. The same day emergency trip method will then be used again to fill the second emergency trip. Once the second trip is filled, seniority will rotate again.~~~~
- ~~g. Acceptance/Rejection of Emergency Trips. Drivers who accept or refuse emergency trips will not have their position on the regular rotation list changed.~~
- ~~h. Off Day Emergency List. The off day emergency list will be called by seniority for any emergency situation that arises on any day Sparta Schools are not in session. The emergency list will be posted by 3:00 p.m. each Wednesday and shall be initialed by available drivers by 9:30 a.m. on Friday. If the initials of drivers do not appear, the driver will not be called. This list is designed to handle off day emergency assignments when the designated driver is unable to perform transportation duties.~~
- ~~13. TRIP SIGN-UP PROCEDURE. All drivers must sign up for their own trips. Exceptions will be granted in the case of sickness, being on a trip or an emergency. When these exceptions occur, the driver shall make their request for trip designation to the Transportation Supervisor, Operational Assistant Director, or the transportation secretary under the above procedures. The supervisor or secretary shall sign the bus driver's trip choice. Only the Transportation Supervisor, Operational Assistant Director, or secretary can make an exception for a driver.~~

~~14. CANCELLATION OF SCHEDULED TRIPS. If a trip is canceled after a driver reports for work, the driver shall be paid a minimum of one (1) hour's pay at the trip rate, or refer to the Extra Trips Giving Up Runs section. If canceled by the school, that driver will be put on the top of the rotation list for the first trip selection the following week.~~

~~15. MINIMUM PAY/MINIMUM TRIP TIME. All extra trips shall receive a minimum pay of one (1) hour at the driver trip rate of pay unless the trip occurs within 15 or less minutes from a drivers scheduled run in which case drivers will be paid for time worked and the time between the run and the trip.~~
