1. Reassignment within classification

In the event a reduction in staff is implemented, employees in affected positions within the classification shall be reassigned to the position held by the least senior person within the classification working the same number of hours provided he/she is qualified and provided the employee has more seniority and has been in the classification for at least one (1) year. In the event no such position exists, the affected employee will be reassigned to the position held by the least senior person within the classification whose regular schedule of hours is less but most closely coincides with the affected employee's former schedule of hours.

2. Reassignment to another classification

Reassignment to another classification shall be restricted to employees ineligible for reassignment under Section A (1) who have at least one (1) year of service within another classification provided the employee has more seniority and is qualified. Reassignment in such instances shall be implemented in the same manner as under Section A (1).

3. Classifications for purposes of this Article shall be secretarial, food service, custodial and para-professionals.

B. Employees scheduled to be laid off will receive fourteen (14) calendar days written notice of layoff. Such notice will not apply when the layoff is necessitated by millage failures or work stoppage.

C. Laid off employees will be recalled in inverse order of layoff first to vacancies within the classification from which they were laid off, and second to classifications in which they have prior successful service and are qualified. Recall rights are restricted to non-probationary employees, and only for a period of twenty-four (24) months from the effective date of layoff.

Employees will receive a minimum of ten (10) calendar days notice of recall provided that this provision shall not be interpreted to prevent recall with less than ten (10) days written notice upon mutual agreement of the parties. Such notice will be sent first class U.S. mail to the employee's last known address. It is the employee's responsibility to ensure that the employee's current address is maintained on file. Failure to return within the ten (10) day period shall be considered a voluntary resignation. Exceptions may be made by mutual written agreement between the Union and District.
