The Board and the Union recognize the moral principals involved in the area of Civil Rights and have reaffirmed in this agreement their commitment not to discriminate because of race, creed, color, age, sex or national origin.

The employer and the union agree that each and every employee shall be treated with dignity and respect. At the request of the union, the superintendent or designee shall meet to discuss issues related to verbal abuse, threats, or harassment by employees, managers or supervisors toward each other. This meeting will happen monthly with the superintendent or designee if requested by union leadership.

ARTICLE I UNION RECOGNITION

- Section 1. The Board recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent of the employees covered by this Agreement for the purpose of collective bargaining with respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment and other conditions of employment.

- Section 2. The term "Union" as used herein shall include all full-time and part-time regularly scheduled custodians, custodian laundry and bus garage attendant, but excluding the superintendent or designee, maintenance engineer,

ARTICLE II REPRESENTATION

- Section 1. All employees covered by this Agreement shall be represented for the purposes of grievance procedure and negotiating by a bargaining committee to be chosen by the Union.

- Section 2. The Union shall notify the Board, in writing, of the names of the Union bargaining team, with their alternates, if such exists. Local and International Union officers are authorized to represent the Union during contract negotiations and grievance procedures, at no expense to the Board.

- Section 3. The names of the committeemen, stewards and alternates will be furnished to the Board in writing by the Union. They shall not function as such prior to such notice to the Board. Changes will be furnished as they occur. Alternates shall not function under this section except in the absence of the official for whom they are substituting.
- Section 4. Any committeeman or steward having an individual grievance in connection with his/her own work may ask for another local committeeman or steward to assist them in adjusting the grievance.
- Section 5. Special conferences may be arranged between the chairperson of the Union and the Board upon mutual agreement between both parties. They will be held at a mutually agreed upon time and place.
- Section 6. Bargaining unit employees of Local 517M, S.E.I.U., shall have the right to use a classroom at all reasonable hours for meetings, provided there is not a conflict with regular school programs or extracurricular activities. Bulletin boards in the schools will be made available to the Union and its members.
- Section 7. The Board agrees not to negotiate with any organization representing bargaining unit employees other than the union as described in Article I, Section 2, for the duration of this Agreement. Furthermore, the Board agrees not to negotiate with any employee or group of employees on any subject included in this Agreement, provided, however that nothing contained in this provision shall be construed to prevent any individual employee from presenting a grievance and having the grievance adjusted without intervention of the certified bargaining representative if the adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement.

ARTICLE III GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- Section 1. A grievance shall be an alleged violation of the expressed terms of this contract. All matters not included in this Agreement shall not be the basis of any grievance filed under the procedure outlined in this article.
- Section 2. Any employee having a specific grievance shall take the matter up with the superintendent or designee, who shall attempt to adjust the matter consistent with the terms of this Agreement as soon as practicable. If the employee so requests, the superintendent or designee will arrange to have the employee's committeeman or steward (as the case may be) represent him/her. The employee will not be required to continue discussion of the grievance after he/she has given all facts and requested relief to the superintendent or designee, if he/she does not desire to do so. Grievances at this step shall be handled without loss of pay.

Section 3. Discussion and settlement of grievances and other work related union business will be handled at a mutually acceptable time that will not interfere with the operation of the regularly scheduled workday, but, in case of emergence requiring immediate action, they will be discussed at the time of occurrence.

Section 4. Grievances, which are not so settled, shall be reduced in writing on appropriate forms provided by the Union and signed by the employee. A copy shall be given to the superintendent or designee, who shall attempt to settle the matter and will give his answer within five (5) regular working days.

- a. Prior to the time a grievance is put into writing, or during the course of the grievance procedure, the bargaining committee as a whole or a representative may review the facts on which the grievance is based, or the claims made by the grievant, with the appropriate supervisor.
- b. When a grievance is put into writing, there will be included or attached sufficient information so that it will be readily possible to determine the identity of the grievant(s), the date(s) when the grievance(s) occurred, the facts of the situation which created the grievance and other such information as will make it plain what the facts are which are claimed as the basis of the grievance. The written grievance shall also state clearly what relief is being sought.
- c. When written answers to grievances are required and the grievance complies with Sections 1 and 2 above, the answer, if favorable to the grievant, will describe exactly what will be done in settling the grievance. If not, the answer will include whatever details, dates and circumstances are involved, and the reason(s) relied on by the superintendent or designee for denying the grievance.

Section 5. If the grievance is not settled by the superintendent or designee, a copy of the grievance may then be submitted to the superintendent of schools or his designated agent, who shall arrange a meeting to be held within ten (10) working days to discuss the grievance. He shall give his answer, in writing, within five (5) working days after said meeting.

Section 6. If the answer received is not acceptable, the grievance may be appealed to the Board by sending a written notice with a copy of the grievance to the superintendent of schools or his designee within ten (10) working days from the date the answer is received by the Union from the superintendent of schools. A board designated committee will hold a meeting with the Union to attempt to satisfactorily resolve the grievance.

Within ten (10) working days from the date of the meeting with the Board, the Board shall answer such grievance, in writing, with a copy provided to the local unit chairman and the union business representative. This decision shall be final and binding unless appealed within ten (10) working days from the date the Board's decision is received by the union business representative, or the Union requests arbitration of the grievance within ten (10) days from the date the answer is received.

Section 7. Grievances not presented to the superintendent or designee within five (5) working days of when the occurrence first became known, or should have become known, will be deemed abandoned, and grievances not appealed from one step to the next step within ten (10) working days from the decision at any step will be considered settled on the basis of the last decision. The time limits contained in this Article may be extended by written agreement between the parties.

Section 8. If, at any point in the grievance procedure, time limits are not followed by the Board, the grievance may be forwarded to the next step in the grievance or arbitration procedure, as appropriate, by the Union.

ARTICLE IV ARBITRATION

Section 1. If the grievance is not settled at the Board level, it may be submitted to arbitration by an impartial arbitrator, and written notice setting forth the provision of the Agreement that is allegedly violated must be sent to the superintendent of schools or his designee. In the event the parties are unable to agree upon an arbitrator within ten (10) working days from the date of the appeal, the American Arbitration Association will be asked to submit a list of five (5) arbitrators. Upon receipt of the list, the Union will first strike two (2) names, then the Board will strike two (2) names; the remaining person shall be the arbitrator, provided within thirty (30) days of notice of his appointment the arbitrator accepts and schedules a date for a hearing in the matter which he is to decide. If the arbitrator does not so accept and schedule a hearing as above provided, the American Arbitration Association will again be requested to submit a list of five (5) names and the above procedure for selecting an arbitrator from the panel will be followed.

- Section 2. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and conclusive, and binding upon employees, the Board and the Union, subject to the right of the Board or the Union to judicial review. Any lawful decision of the arbitrator shall be forthwith placed into effect.

 - e. He shall have no power to interpret state or federal law.
 - f. He shall not hear any grievance previously barred from the scope of the grievance procedure.
- Section 4. After a case on which the arbitrator is empowered to rule hereunder has been referred to him, it may not be withdrawn by either party except by mutual consent.
- Section 5. If either party disputes the arbitrability of any grievance under the terms of this Agreement, the dispute will be settled in arbitration.
- Section 6. No more than one (1) grievance may be considered by the arbitrator at the same time, except upon expressed written mutual consent.
- Section 7. The cost of the arbitrator shall be borne by the party which loses. Each party shall assume its own cost for representation, including any expense of witnesses.
- Section 8. Where no wage or fringe benefit loss has been caused by the action of the Board complained of, the Board shall be under no obligation to make the monetary adjustment and the arbitrator shall have no power to order one.
- Section 9. Arbitration awards or grievance settlements will not be made retroactive beyond the date of the occurrence or non-occurrence of the event upon which the grievance is based.

Probationary employees do not have seniority.

Section 2. After successful completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be determined from the first day worked and the employee's name and seniority date shall be placed on the seniority list. An up-to-date seniority list will be made available to all employees for their inspection by posting such list on appropriate bulletin boards at the beginning of each school year, with a copy provided to the unit chairman.

Section 3. Seniority will be lost and the employee terminated if:

Employees who desire to fill such vacancy will notify the superintendent or designee, in writing, within such five (5) day period. The Board will fill the vacancy, basing its selection on seniority and ability of the applicant(s) to successfully do the work required. The superintendent or designee will design a proficiency test to determine if a candidate will be successful in the position for which they are applying. It will be at the superintendent's or designee's discretion to determine if the candidate was able to pass the proficiency test. Again, the superintendent or designee will design a proficiency test to determine if a candidate will be successful in the position for which they are applying. It will be at the supervisor's discretion to determine if the candidate was able to pass the proficiency test. A vacancy created by a transfer shall constitute a temporary absence, as specified in Section 2C of this Article, until after the thirty (30) day trial period.

- Section 1B. A vacancy created by a bargaining unit member filling a posted position, as in Section 1A, above, will be filled in the same manner as above. All further vacancies will be filled at the discretion of the employer.
- Section 1C. Once a bargaining unit member fills a posted vacancy, he/she will not be eligible for other such vacancies for the remainder of the current fiscal year.
- Section 2A. Temporary absence of regular bargaining unit members will not cause a vacancy to be posted. Such temporary absences will be filled by available part-time bargaining unit members, provided the assignment does not conflict with their regularly assigned work schedule and will not result in overtime work.
- Section 2B. At the beginning of each school year only, part-time employees will have the option of requesting, in writing, to fill temporary absences of full-time bargaining unit members. This will be done through the superintendent or designee. In the absence of such request, such temporary vacancies shall be filled at the discretion of the superintendent or designee.
- Section 2C. In the event that it is known by at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance that the temporary absence will exceed three (3) days, the part-time bargaining unit member will have the opportunity to fill the full-time bargaining unit member's work schedule instead of his/her own work schedule, based on high seniority and ability to successfully perform the work requested.
