Therefore, the Association and its members, individually and collectively, agree that during the term of this Agreement there shall be no strikes, stoppage of work, or interruption of work, and the Board agrees that it will not institute any lockout during the term of this Agreement.

Section 1. Continuous and uninterrupted operations by the District and orderly collective bargaining relations between the Employer and the Union to secure prompt and fair disposition of disputes and grievances being essential considerations of this Agreement, it is agreed that the Union and its members, individually and collectively, will not, during the terms of this Agreement call, permit, sanction, take part in, or assist in: (a) any strike, sympathetic or otherwise, including work stoppages, or slow-downs; (b) honoring of any picket line or strike by any other Union, organization or individual against the District, unless the reason for honoring the picket line is serious and imminent physical danger, in which event the Employee shall have the burden of proving the actual existence of such danger.

Section 2. The Employer shall have the absolute right to discharge or otherwise discipline any individual Employee or group of Employees who violate Section 1 of this Article. In the event there is an alleged violation of Section 1 of this Article, the Union shall immediately inform every Employee in writing, with a copy to the Employer, that such activity is unauthorized by the Union, that such activity is in violation of this Agreement, and that such activity in and of itself, is cause for discharge as defined in Section 2 above.

ARTICLE 10
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 1. A grievance is an alleged violation of the express terms of this Agreement. No grievance will be granted that requires the Board to violate applicable federal and state laws. The Association will identify its building representatives and grievance chairs within the first month of school each school year. The term “days” herein used shall mean business working days. Additional days may be added to any individual number of days below if agreed in writing by the immediate supervisor and/or Superintendent AND by the grievance chair and/or Association President. The term “grievant” used herein shall mean an Employee, group of Employees, or the Association, believing themselves wronged by an alleged violation of the expressed provisions of this Agreement.

Within twelve (12) days of an alleged violation of this agreement, the grievant and/or grievance chair shall meet and orally discuss the matter with the immediate supervisor in an attempt to resolve the matter.

Section 2. Levels of Grievance. Level One – Superintendent: If no resolution is agreed upon within five (5) days of the discussion, the grievant and/or grievance chair shall, within five (5) additional days, reduce the matter to writing, and transmit it (a written grievance) to the immediate supervisor and the Superintendent. The Board shall, at the next regularly scheduled Board meeting or work session, allow the grievant and/or grievance chair an opportunity to be heard (grievance hearing). If the Secretary of the Board receives the written grievance within seven (7) days of a regularly scheduled Board meeting or work session, then the grievance shall be scheduled for the following regularly scheduled Board meeting or work session. Within fifteen (15) days from the grievance hearing, the Board will transmit its decision in writing to the grievant, grievance chair, Association Secretary and Superintendent. The Board may hold future hearings therein, may designate one or more of its members to hold future meetings therein, or otherwise investigate the grievance, provided, however, that in no event, except with expressed written consent of the Association shall final determination of the grievance be made by the Board more than fifteen (15) days after the initial hearing.

Level Three – Arbitration: If a grievance is not settled as a result of such final determination by the Board, the Association shall have the right to appeal the dispute to an impartial arbitrator. Such appeal must be taken by written notice given to the other party within fifteen (15) days from the date the Board's answer is given. If the parties cannot agree upon such arbitrator within ten (10) days after the notice is given, then they shall select such arbitrator in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association.

Section 3. General Provisions.

- a. All grievance procedures and investigations by the Association will be processed during time that does not interfere with assigned duties.
- b. The sole remedy available to any Employee for any alleged breach of this Agreement or any alleged violation of his/her rights hereunder will be pursuant to the grievance procedure; provided, however, that nothing contained herein will deprive any Employee of any legal right which he/she presently has, provided that, if an Employee elects to pursue any legal or statutory remedy, such election will bar any further or subsequent proceedings for relief under the provisions of this Article.

- d. Every effort will be made to avoid the involvement of students in all phases of the grievance procedure.

Section 4. Arbitrator Information. The power and authority of the arbitrator shall be limited in each case to resolving the question submitted. The arbitrator shall have no power to add to, subtract from, or modify any of the terms of this Agreement, nor shall the arbitrator substitute his/her discretion for that of the Board or the Association where such discretion has been retained by the Board or the Association, nor shall the arbitrator exercise any responsibility or function of the Board or of the Association.

- a. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties.

SENIORITY

Section 1. Probationary Employees. New Employees shall be considered as probationary Employees for their first sixty (60) days worked. There shall be no seniority among probationary Employees. Probationary Employees are employed at the will of the Employer and they may be discharged at any time in the Employer's sole discretion, and the Employee shall have no recourse through the grievance procedure. The Employer shall have no responsibility to recall or re-employ any probationary Employee laid off or discharged during his/her probationary period. After probationary Employees have completed their probationary period, they shall be entered on the seniority list and shall rank in seniority from the first day worked by them in their present position after their latest employment with the Employer. An Extension of the probationary period up to 60 days (max of 120 days) is allowable for documented deficiencies.

Section 2. Definition of Seniority. Seniority is defined as length of continuous service in the bargaining unit since the Employee's last date of hire or entrance into the unit. As between Employees hired on the same day, seniority shall be determined by drawing lots.

Section 3. Seniority Lists. The Employer shall, by October 1, prepare a current seniority list and provide an electronic copy to each current Employee.

It shall be the responsibility of the union and of the Employees to check any such posted seniority list and to notify the Superintendent in writing of any error contained therein within ten (10) workdays from the date the list was electronically sent out. Disputes as to the correctness of seniority shown on the list shall be subject to the grievance procedure herein, if not amicably resolved.

The Employer shall be entitled to rely on such posted lists. If the Employer is not notified of the existence of any error within the ten (10) workdays provided above following the delivery of the seniority list, the Employer shall incur no liability for any erroneous uses of seniority. If the Employer has been notified of an alleged error, the Employer nonetheless may use the seniority list, subject, however, to grievance and arbitration over the correctness of its actions.

ARTICLE 12

LAYOFF AND RECALL

Section 1. A layoff may result from lack of work, economic considerations, or other reasons that in the estimation of the Board require reductions in the work force.

Section 2. In the event that the Employer decides that one or more layoffs is/are necessary within the unit, it shall utilize all reasonable means including transfers, and changes in hours, schedules and/or duty assignments, to insure that within the unit junior Employees are laid off first, provided that the senior Employee has the skill and ability to perform the available work. The impact and hardship on Employees will be among the factors that the Employer will consider in making its decision in these matters, although it is recognized that the ultimate responsibility in making these decisions is the Employer's.

If the Employer utilizes its right to transfer Employees in connection with a layoff situation, as provided above, an affected Employee may instead accept an available displacement. If there are more Employees who desire such displacement than the number of displacements planned by the Employer, displacement requests shall be granted in order of seniority, i.e., the most senior Employee first. In addition, if any Employees are to be transferred, two weeks advance notice will be given, and the Union and the Employee will be given a prior opportunity to meet with the Employer and discuss the impact of such transfer.

Section 3. The following recall procedure will apply to Employees who have been displaced from work due to a layoff:

- a. Employees will be recalled in order of seniority i.e., the most senior Employee will be the first to be recalled and so forth.
- b. Recall will be to the first open position for which they are qualified.

c. The Employee will be called by telephone and notified of his/her recall and the date on which he is to return to work.

d. If an Employee is not contacted under (c) above, the Employer will send a certified letter notifying the Employee of his/her recall to work and the date on which he is to resume working. The Employee will have a maximum of ten (10) calendar days to return to work.

e. It is the Employee's responsibility to maintain his/her correct address and telephone number on file with the Employer, and the Employer shall not assume any responsibility in the event notices are not received because the last address or telephone number is incorrect, nor will an incorrect address or telephone number be considered a valid excuse for a failure to report to work following a recall.

f. The Employer reserves the right to temporarily fill any job during the processing of recalls in any manner it sees fit.

Section 4. An Employee who refuses a transfer (subject to Section 2), work assignment or recall under the procedure within this Article shall lose all seniority and be terminated as a quit, except that an Employee will not be required to accept a recall to a position which averages less than seventy-five (75%) of the Employee's pre-displacement hours of work.

Section 5. The Employer will provide at least thirty (30) calendar days advance notice of any layoff, except that where unforeseen circumstances require less notice, the Employer will provide as much notice as circumstances reasonably permit.

The Union will cooperate in meeting and consulting with the Employer if the Employer so requests to review layoff, recalls and related matters prior to their implementation.

Section 6. Members shall maintain his/her right to recall for three (3) years from the date of layoff.

VACANCIES AND TRANSFERS

Section 1. All applications of seniority provided for in the Article shall be strictly limited to positions within the bargaining unit. A vacancy is a position which is unoccupied and is to be filled by the Board when all other Employees have been assigned positions for which there is no Employee having a claim to return to the position from a leave of absence or layoff.

Section 2. If the Employer decides to fill a permanent vacancy in a bargaining unit job, the vacancy will be posted for five (5) business working days. If the Employer eliminates a position, the Superintendent shall discuss the decision with the Union. Qualifications for the job will be as determined by the Employer and will be included in the job posting. Generally, such qualifications will include any written job description and any other qualifications which are reasonably related to the job and may include work record and attendance.

Copies of all job postings will be emailed to all Employees. Job postings will include the following: classification; location(s); starting date; hours of work; qualifications.

Section 3. Any seniority Employees who are qualified to perform the job, and who have not successfully bid on a vacancy within the previous six (6) months, will be eligible to bid on the job.

Section 4. Applications must be submitted in writing, to the person indicated on the posting, prior to the end of the last day of the posting.

Section 5. If two or more eligible Employees are qualified to perform the job and file timely bids, a junior Employee will not be awarded the job in favor of a senior Employee unless the junior Employee's qualifications are superior to those of the senior Employee. If a qualified seniority Employee has applied for the posting, the vacancy will be filled within ten (10) working days after the end of the posting period, subject to the provisions of this Article. If no qualified seniority Employee filed a timely application, the Employer may fill the position at its discretion.

Section 6. An Employee who successfully bids on a job will have a trial period of ten (10) working days, after which the Employee may be disqualified by the Employer. An Employee may disqualify himself/herself after ten (10) working days. If the Employee disqualifies him/herself, the Employee will be ineligible to bid again for six (6) months as provided in Section 3, above. The ineligibility provision, however, shall not apply if the Employee is disqualified by the Employer.

Section 7. An Employee who is moved to another classification within the unit and fully performs the duties of that position for that time period, will be paid the rate for that classification or the Employee's regular rate, whichever is higher, for hours worked in that classification. This only applies to half day or greater increments.

0 – 3.00	No (0) Fifteen (15) minute breaks

The lunch period and rest periods shall be reasonably scheduled by the Kitchen Manager or Administration so as not to interfere with the normal operation of the work place, including but not limited to, the hot lunch program.

Section 2. Overtime. Overtime shall not be worked unless authorized and assigned by the Employer. Overtime, at the rate of 1-1/2 times the Employee's regular wage will be paid for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) in a work week.

If the next Employee on the established rotation does not accept the overtime function, the next person on the list will have the opportunity. When the bottom of the list is reached, the rotation will start back at the top.

- iv. If an Employee cancels events they accepted without good cause and does not secure a replacement, then the District and the Union will have the right to mutually agree to remove that individual from the list for the remainder of that session.
- v. Employees must have worked the last scheduled day prior to an overtime event in order to be eligible to work that overtime event, unless approved by the Superintendent.
- vi. If no Employee accepts the overtime event from the current list, then the District will solicit Employees who are not on the current list. If then there still is a shortage of Employees to work that event, then the least senior Employee on the current rotation list will be mandated to work that event.
- vii. An Employee may trade/cover with another Employee for an overtime event, as long as they are qualified to work that event, in cases of extenuating circumstances. The Supervisor will be notified, by both affected Employees, of any changes as soon as possible.
- viii. Catering events under $200.00 that are held for and at that school will use Employees from that school to work the event. If there is still a need for additional Employees to work the event then the regular rotation list will be used.

In all other situations, where the danger is not serious and immediate, the rule "work now, grieve later" shall apply," with the exception that if the Employee believes that there is a serious safety concern that would occur if following such orders. In this case, the Employee will bring this concern to the immediate attention of the Association president and the Superintendent.

Section 4. Snow/Delay/Cancelation Days. All Employees shall be guaranteed their regular number of hours on days when weather causes a delay by working their regularly scheduled hours or by remaining for the scheduled time lost. Employees, whose shift begins before school is canceled, are to be paid their regular rate equal to the time worked with a guarantee of a minimum of two (2) hours pay at their regular rate. The hours to be worked will be determined by the administration. On days when school is canceled due to weather or other reasons and is required to be made up, the Employee shall be compensated for the make-up day at the regular hourly rate. Rescheduling of school cancellation days shall be scheduled by the Employer. Employees will receive three (3) school cancellation days, starting in 2015-16. In order to be paid for these cancellation days, the Employee must designate a sick or personal leave day, from their accumulated paid leave balance, to be used for that day. Employees who do not have any available paid leave at the time of the cancellation, will not be paid for those cancellation days. Employees may designate to the Employer that they do not want to use their accumulated paid leave for a cancellation day. This will be increased to four (4) in 2016-17 and six (6) in 2017-18. Starting in 2016-17, Employees will no longer need to use sick or personal days in order to be paid for cancellation days.

Section 5. If the supervisor leaves school for the evening while a kitchen Employee is still on duty, the Employer will provide for safety checks to be made on the on-duty kitchen Employee. If the supervisor is not on site and there is no designated supervisor from outside the Association on site, then the Employee will not be responsible for any loss of property or safety issues that arise during that time period other than what would normally be associated with their job duties.

Section 6. The District and the Association shall mutually agree to the evaluation process and instrumentation. See Appendix D.

ARTICLE 16

UNPAID LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Section 1. Unpaid Five (5) Days. An Employee may be granted up to five (5) days of unpaid leave of absence for personal reasons. The leave shall be requested in writing, stating the reasons for the leave, and be submitted to the Food Service Director at least thirty (30) business days prior to the dates of the requested unpaid leave. This unpaid leave cannot be taken prior to and/or after school vacation breaks or holidays, unless approved by the Superintendent. To be eligible to take this unpaid leave, the Employee shall have at least ten (10) days of sick leave allowance as of the preceding June 30th. Not more than one (1) unpaid leave per building will be scheduled at the same time. The granting of such leave shall be by written authorization of the Superintendent. Such leave shall not be granted or used for the purpose of pursuing or engaging in other employment, unless the Employee has received prior written authorization from the Superintendent or designee. Requests for unpaid leaves shall be considered based upon the reason for the leave and the effect of the leave on the District's operations.

Section 2. Military Leave. An Employee who leaves the employment or the District for active service in the Armed Forces of the United States under the provisions of any law of the United States or the State of Michigan, shall, upon application for re-employment, be entitled to whatever reinstatement privileges are established by such laws.

Section 3. Medical Leave.

a. Any Employee who becomes disabled from working due to illness or injury, and whose claim of such disability is supported by evidence satisfactory to the Employer, shall be granted an unpaid sick leave of absence, for a period, as necessary of up to one (1) year or the length of the Employee's disability, whichever is less. Extensions will be requested, and will be handled in the same manner as initial applications for a sick leave. Such satisfactory evidence, if required by the Employer, may include a doctor's certificate.

b. Any Employee who becomes ill or disabled from a work related cause shall be granted an indefinite unpaid sick leave for the duration of such illness or disability, subject to the same terms and conditions, as set forth in this Article, which apply to non-work related sick leaves.

c. The Employer may require a doctor's note stating that an Employee is able to perform all the elements of his/her job, prior to returning such Employees to work, or to determine if such Employee continues to be ill or disabled for the purposes of extending a leave of absence.

d. An Employee on sick leave of absence shall, upon return to work, be re-employed on his/her regular job if his/her seniority and abilities would permit, provided the above requirements are met. If no job is available which the Employee's seniority and abilities permit him/her to fill, the Employee shall be deemed to be laid off.

e. An Employee shall give prompt notice to the Superintendent or designee of the Employee's ability to return to work.

f. The Employer shall return the Employee to work not later than the first Monday after the Employer receives such notice, and the Employee has been determined to be able to return to work, unless the effect of another provision of this Agreement would extend such time.

g. This Section shall apply to a disability which is due to pregnancy, or to childbirth, or to a medical condition related to pregnancy or childbirth.

h. At its expense, the Employer may require an Employee to be examined by a doctor in connection with either the approval or extension, of a sick leave or, in connection with an Employee's ability to return to work.

Section 4. Union Leave. A leave of absence of up to four (4) years shall be granted upon application for the purpose of serving as an officer of the Union.

Section 5. General. If an Employee violates or falsifies the reason for a leave; obtains other employment during a leave without prior written authorization; or overstays a leave without giving notice and providing substantiation for the necessity of the extension, as soon as is reasonably possible, the Employee shall be deemed to have quit his/her job. If the Employee complies with the provisions of this Article, the Employee shall retain but shall not accumulate seniority during the leave. All leaves of absence which are provided for in this Article shall be without pay.

Section 6. Family and Medical Leave Act. To the extent required under applicable law, according to the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act, (FMLA) an eligible Employee shall be granted leave for the purpose and under the terms and conditions as provided by that law in all respects. It is recognized that the interpretation and application of this law may change as court and agency rulings are issued, and also that the Board may adopt policies to effectuate FMLA provided that such policies are consistent with FMLA. The Employer, at its discretion, may extend part, or all, of its FMLA policies to part-time Employees and/or new hires, even though such Employees are not eligible under FMLA. FMLA leaves shall run concurrently with all leaves, paid or unpaid, authorized by this Agreement, to the maximum extent permitted by law. As outlined in the DOL FMLA attachment Appendix C.

These days may not be taken just preceding or following a break period, nor on the first day or last day of the school year, without approval of the Superintendent. Arrangements for such leave must be made, with the immediate Supervisor, at least three (3) workdays in advance, except in the event of an emergency.

Section 2. Paid Sick Leave. Sick leave for full-time and part-time food service Employees shall accumulate at the rate of 1 day per month, with a maximum of eight (8) days per year, to accumulate up to 125 days. The Superintendent or designee may require verification of illness from the attending physician or other physician or health care provider. Should the Superintendent require a statement by one other than the attending physician, the additional expense will be borne by the Board.

Section 3. Emergency Leave. Up to five (5) days of emergency leave, of the accumulated sick leave allowance, may be used for a death in the immediate family and/or health related emergency in the immediate family. These days may be allowed for each occurrence until accumulated sick leave is exhausted. The immediate family shall include father, mother, grandmother, grandfather, sister, brother, children, grandchildren, spouse, spouse's father, mother, grandmother, grandfather, children, grandchildren, brother and sister. Step-relatives shall also be considered as immediate family based on the list of relatives specified in this section. Verification of illness may be required as in section 2 above.

Section 4. Spring Break Time Off Option. An Employee may request time off the day prior to or after spring break. The request for time off shall be understood as unpaid time off from assigned duties for a specific day. The written request must be submitted by the last scheduled day of work in December prior to the winter break. Only one Employee's time off request ~~shall~~ may be granted per kitchen, at the discretion of the Supervisor. If more than one Employee requests time off on the same day, a lottery drawing shall determine which Employee's request is granted. The lottery drawing shall occur at the Association's January Executive Board meeting and the name(s) of the Employee(s) sent to the Food Service Manager by February 1st.

Section 5. Jury Duty. Upon receiving notice of jury duty service, you are required to notify your immediate supervisor. You will be compensated, to a maximum of 60 days, for your normal scheduled time you otherwise would have worked when actually serving. Any compensation you receive from the court service for your jury duty must be given to the district, however, the portion of compensation designated as mileage and parking may be kept to cover those expenses.

Section 6. Holidays. The Employer will pay any Employee eligible for Holiday pay their regularly scheduled hours at his/her regular straight time rate.

To be eligible for the paid Holiday, the Employee must not be a probationary Employee and work the entire last scheduled workday prior to, and the next scheduled workday following the holiday, unless the Employee receives approval of the Superintendent. The eight (8) regular Holidays will be Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, and Day after Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, and Christmas Day, New Year's Eve, and New Year's Day, and Memorial Day.

If a Holiday falls on a Saturday, it will be celebrated on Friday. If a Holiday falls on Sunday, it will be celebrated on Monday. This language is based upon the Federal and State guidelines in regard to Holidays.

Section 7. Conference Leave. Upon written request and prior approval, Employees may be granted up to three (3) days per year of conference leave. Conference leave shall refer to activities or conferences related to professional growth in the Employee's assignment. Arrangements for such leave must be made with the immediate supervisor at least four (4) weeks before the registration deadline. Approved Conference Leave days shall not accumulate nor shall such days be deducted from the Employee's other paid leave.

Employees will be required to turn into the Business Office all receipts for clothing purchases by April 30th of that school year. APPENDIX C

U.S. Department of Labor

Wage and Hour Division

U.S. Wage and Hour Division

Fact Sheet #28G: Certification of a Serious Health Condition under the Family and Medical Leave Act

The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) entitles eligible Employees who work for covered employers to take unpaid, job-protected leave for specified family and medical reasons, with continuation of group health insurance coverage under the same terms and conditions as if the Employee had not taken leave.

The employer may require the Employee to submit a certification from a health care provider to support the Employee's need for FMLA leave to care for a covered family member with a serious health condition or for the Employee's own serious health condition. The employer may not request a certification for leave to bond with a newborn child or a child placed for adoption or foster care. For information about certification requirements for military family leave, see Fact Sheet 28M(c): Qualifying Exigency Leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act; Fact Sheet 28M(a): Military Caregiver Leave for a Current Service member under the Family and Medical Leave Act; and Fact Sheet 28M(b): Military Caregiver Leave for a Veteran under the Family and Medical Leave Act.

The employer must notify the Employee each time a certification is required. The employer's notice must be included in the written notice of FMLA rights and responsibilities given to the Employee when leave is first requested. The employer may request certification at a later date if it questions the appropriateness of the leave or its duration.

MEDICAL CERTIFICATION

If the employer requests medical certification, the Employee is responsible for providing a complete and sufficient certification, generally within 15 calendar days after the employer's request. The Employee is responsible for paying for the cost of the medical certification and for making sure the certification is provided to the employer. If the certification is incomplete or insufficient, the employer must give the Employee a written notice stating what additional information is necessary to make the certification complete and sufficient. The Employee must provide the additional information to the employer within seven calendar days, in most circumstances.

- A certification is considered "incomplete" if one or more of the applicable entries on the form have not been completed.
- A certification is considered "insufficient" if the information provided is vague, unclear, or non-responsive. Content of the certification - Information on the certification may include: contact information for the health care provider; the date the serious health condition began and how long it will last; appropriate medical facts about the condition; for leave for the Employee's own serious health condition, information showing that the Employee cannot perform the essential functions of the job; for leave to care for a family member, a statement of the care needed; for intermittent leave, information showing the medical necessity for intermittent or reduced schedule leave and either the dates of any planned leave or the estimated frequency and duration of expected incapacity due to the condition.

Consequences - If the Employee does not provide the requested certification within the time required or fails to provide a complete and sufficient certification despite the opportunity to cure any deficiencies, the employer may deny the Employee's request for FMLA leave.

Annual certification - If the Employee's need for FMLA leave lasts beyond a single FMLA leave year, the employer may require the Employee to provide a new medical certification in each new FMLA leave year.

Certification forms - The FMLA does not require the use of any specific certification form. The Department has developed optional forms that can be used for leave for an Employee's own serious health condition (WH- 380-E) or to care for a family member's serious health condition (WH-380-F), or the employer may use its own forms. If the employer chooses to use its own forms, it may not require any additional information beyond what is specified in the FMLA and its regulations. Employers must accept a complete and sufficient medical certification, regardless of the format. In all instances, the information requested on the certification form must relate only to the serious health condition for which the Employee is seeking leave. The Department's forms are available for free at www.dol.gov/whd/fmla.

AUTHENTICATION AND CLARIFICATION

Once the employer has received a complete and sufficient certification, the employer may not request additional information from the health care provider. However, the employer may use a human resources professional, a leave administrator, another health care provider, or a management official to contact the health care provider to authenticate or to clarify the certification. For example, the employer's appropriate representative could ask the health care provider if the information contained on the form was completed or authorized by him or her, or ask questions to clarify the handwriting on the form or the meaning of a response. Under no circumstances may the Employee's direct supervisor contact the Employee's health care provider.

SECOND AND THIRD OPINIONS

If the employer has received a complete and sufficient certification but has a reason to doubt that it is valid, the employer may require the Employee to obtain a second medical certification. The employer can choose the health care provider to provide the second opinion, but generally may not select a health care provider who it employs on a regular or routine basis. If the second opinion differs from the original certification, the employer may require the Employee to obtain a third certification from a healthcare provider selected by both the Employee and employer. The opinion of the third health care provider is final and must be used by the employer. The employer is responsible for paying for the second and third opinions, including any reasonable travel expenses for the Employee or family member. While waiting for the second (or third) opinion, the Employee is provisionally entitled to FMLA leave.

RECERTIFICATION

In general, the employer may request the Employee to provide a recertification no more often than every 30 days and only in connection with an absence by the Employee. If a certification indicates that the minimum duration of the serious health condition is more than 30 days, the employer must generally wait until that minimum duration expires before requesting recertification. However, in all cases, including cases where the condition is of an indefinite duration, the employer may request a recertification for absences every six months. The employer may request a recertification in less than 30 days only if:

- the Employee requests an extension of leave,
- the circumstances described by the previous certification have changed significantly, or
- the employer receives information that causes it to doubt the Employee's stated reason for the absence or the continuing validity of the existing medical certification. In general, the employer may ask for the same information in a recertification as that permitted in the original medical certification. However, an employer may provide the health care provider with a record of the Employee's absences and ask if the serious health condition and need for leave is consistent with the leave pattern. The Employee is responsible for paying for the cost of a recertification. The employer cannot require a second or third opinion for a recertification. In most circumstances, the employer must allow the Employee at least 15 calendar days to provide the recertification after the employer's request. FOREIGN MEDICAL CERTIFICATION If the Employee or the Employee's family member is visiting another country, or a family member resides in another country, and a serious health condition develops, the employer must accept a medical certification, as well as second and third opinions, from a health care provider who practices in that country. If a medical certification by a foreign health care provider is not in English, the employer may require the Employee to provide a written translation of the certification. FITNESS-FOR-DUTY The employer may have a policy or practice that requires Employees in similar job positions who take leave for similar health conditions to provide a return to work, or "fitness-for-duty," certification from the Employee's health care provider showing that the Employee is able to resume work. The employer may request a fitness-for-duty certification only with regard to the particular health condition that caused the Employee's need for FMLA leave. If the employer will require a fitness-for-duty certification, it must provide notice of that requirement and whether the certification must address the Employee's ability to perform the essential functions of his or her job with the FMLA designation notice. In general, a fitness-for-duty certification may not be required for each absence taken on an intermittent or reduced leave schedule. However, if the employer has a reasonable belief that the Employee's return to work presents a significant risk of harm to the Employee or to others, the employer may require a fitness-for-duty certification up to once every 30 days. As long as the employer has provided the required notice regarding any fitness-for-duty certification requirement, the Employee's return to work may be delayed until the fitness-for-duty certification is provided. An employer may contact an Employee's health care provider to clarify or authenticate a fitness-for-duty certification, but cannot delay the Employee's return to work while making that contact. An employer may not require second or third opinions for a fitness-for-duty certification. The Employee is responsible for paying any cost of obtaining the fitness-for-duty certification. If State or local law or collective bargaining agreement governs an Employee's return to work, those provisions must be applied.

ENFORCEMENT

It is unlawful for any employer to interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of or the attempt to exercise any right provided by the FMLA.
