LENGTH OF AGREEMENT

The terms of this Agreement shall remain in effect from July 1, 2012 through June 30, 2013.

RECOGNITION

The Board of Education of the East Jordan Public School District (hereinafter called the Board) hereby recognizes the East Jordan Custodial and Maintenance Employees as the sole and exclusive bargaining representative for all custodial and maintenance personnel in the East Jordan School District, but excluding all supervisory and executive personnel, and all other employees of the East Jordan Schools.

The term employee when used hereinafter in this Agreement, shall refer to all employees represented by the bargaining unit.

BARGAINING PROCEDURES

All collective bargaining in respect to rates of pay, wages, commissions, hours of work, and other terms and conditions of employment shall be conducted by duly authorized representatives of the custodian/maintenance employees and the Board, respectively. Agreements reached, as a result of bargaining shall become effective when executed by authorized representatives of the parties except as otherwise provided therein.

DISTRIBUTION OF AGREEMENTS

The Board agrees to distribute a copy of the ratified bargaining Agreement to each employee covered by the Agreement.

SENIORITY

A. Seniority shall be defined as length of service within the district, as of the bargaining unit member's first working day. When a bargaining unit member leaves a seniority classification covered by this Agreement for another seniority classification also covered by this Agreement, his/her seniority will transfer to the new classification without penalty to the bargaining unit member. When a bargaining unit member leaves a seniority classification covered by this Agreement for another seniority classification not covered by this Agreement, his/her seniority will be frozen in the classification vacated. If the employee later elects to return to the initial classification, his/her seniority will be unfrozen.

B. There shall be no seniority among probationary employees until satisfactory completion of the probationary period, at which time seniority shall be retroactive to the date of hire as a bargaining unit member.

Substitutes who are continuously employed for a period in excess of the probationary period, will, if eventually hired by the Board, be granted seniority retroactive to the initial date of hire as a continuous substitute.

C. A bargaining unit member shall lose seniority rights if he/she retires, resigns or is discharged, and, consequently, is no longer an employee of the district.

D. A new bargaining unit member shall be considered to be probationary until he/she successfully completes ninety (90) calendar days in the district.

E. In the case of more than one bargaining unit member beginning employment on the same date, the supervisor's written evaluations and other appropriate criteria will be used by the Board to make a final decision on which employee shall be senior. All Board decisions shall be final and binding.

F. Advancements and lay-offs in work assignments will be made on the basis of seniority and evaluations. Seniority shall be the guide when considering an individual for assignments to day work, at the option of the individual. The Board retains final authority in the placement and lay-off of all personnel. Ten (10) working days notice will be given to employees that are laid off except in cases of fiscal emergency.

PROMOTIONS

A promotion to a different job classification included under this Agreement within each departmental group shall be accorded to the individuals best qualified. In making a selection the Board shall give consideration to seniority, ability, training, health record, evaluations, dependability and application materials. An employee promoted to a job classification of a wage group classification having a higher maximum wage rate shall be given a promotional increase effective with the first payroll period on the new assignment.

PAID HOLIDAYS

All custodial employees, including part-time employees, who are working on a regular basis, will be entitled to twelve (12) paid holidays to be used for the actual holiday. These holidays include:

| 2. Labor Day | 6. New Year's Day |
| 3. Thanksgiving Day | 7. Memorial Day |
| 4. Friday after Thanksgiving | |

If any of the above holidays fall on a Sunday, the Monday following shall be observed as the holiday. Should the holiday fall on a Saturday, the preceding Friday shall be observed as the holiday.

Five (5) other holidays designed as crew holidays will be provided. If it is necessary for a Person to be called into work on a day when the rest of the crew is taking a "crew holiday," that Person will be paid regular time and allowed to take that number of hours off with pay at a later date. The specific dates will be set by crew leaders and building principals with final approval by the Superintendent.

bargaining unit member is engaged in training or other service in the Reserve or the National Guard. It is understood that seniority rights will continue during said periods.

All leaves under this section shall be leaves without pay or benefits.

Unpaid leaves of up to twelve (12) weeks under the terms of the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) shall also be granted. The Board shall continue premium payments for health care benefits for up to twelve (12) weeks for custodians who have been granted an FMLA leave. Consistent with the FMLA, it is expressly understood that custodians electing to utilize sick days to extend or modify the leave shall be limited to the use of accumulated sick leave at the time the leave begins up to a maximum of ten (10) days. CALL-INS

When an employee is called into work during a non-scheduled time, he/she will be paid a minimum of one (1) hour overtime pay if the travel time and the work time on call-in involve less than one (1) hour. The employee must be notified by the Superintendent, Principal or their designee.

BARGAINING UNIT MEMBER RIGHTS AND PROTECTION

- A. No non-probationary bargaining unit member shall be disciplined without just cause. The term "discipline" includes written warnings, reprimands, suspensions and dismissal.
- B. Each employee shall have the right to have a bargaining unit representative present at any scheduled meeting or conference with an administrator or supervisor at which there exists a reasonable likelihood (to the administrator's or supervisor's prior knowledge) that the conference will result in imposition (or recommendation therefore) of disciplinary sanctions against said employee. No disciplinary action shall be taken against an employee without the presence of such representation (unless waived by the employee) except in emergency situations in which both immediate action is necessary and prior notification of a representative is not reasonably possible.
- C. An employee shall have the right upon written request to review the contents of his/her personnel file and to have a representative of the bargaining unit accompany him/her in such review. Such reviews shall not be held during the employee's regular duty hours (except lunch and break periods) unless expressly authorized by the employee's immediate supervisor.

After reviewing material to be placed in an employee's file, the affected employee shall sign said material and such signature shall be understood to indicate awareness of the material but in no instance shall said signature be interpreted to mean agreement with the content of the material. If the employee believes such material is inaccurate, the employee shall file a written rebuttal within five (5) days after presentation of the material to the employee. If the employee shows such material to be inappropriate or in error, the material shall be corrected or expunged from the file, whichever is appropriate. Evaluations shall be based on a period of time that adequately samples a bargaining unit member's work, and shall be completed by the Building Principal or Custodial Supervisor. C. Following each formal evaluation, which shall include a conference with the evaluator(s), the unit member shall sign and be given a copy of the evaluation report. All written evaluations are to be placed in the bargaining unit member's personnel file.

D. If the evaluator believes a unit member is doing unacceptable work, the reasons therefore shall be set forth in specific terms in the written evaluation. Further evaluations will include whether or not improvement has taken place.

E. In the event that a unit member works in multiple buildings, the Superintendent shall designate, annually before September 1st, the building principal or custodial supervisor responsible for being the unit member's evaluators. This designation shall be shared with the unit member.
