a. Definitions

1. A "grievance" is a claim of an employee or group of employees that an alleged violation, misinterpretation or misapplication of the terms of this Agreement has occurred.
2. A "grievant" is an aggrieved person or persons making the claim.

b. Purpose

1. The purpose of this procedure is to secure resolution of the grievance at the lowest possible level according to the terms of the Agreement. Both parties agree that these proceedings will be kept informal and confidential as may be appropriate at any level of the procedure.
2. Nothing contained herein will be construed as limiting the right of any employee having a grievance to discuss the matter informally with his/her immediate supervisor and having the grievance adjusted, provided the adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement and the steward is provided the opportunity to be present at the time of adjustment.

c. Procedure

Since it is important that grievances be processed as rapidly as possible, the number of days indicated in each level should be considered maximum, and every effort should be made to expedite the process. The time limit specified, however, may be extended by mutual agreement.

1. Level One

An employee with a grievance will first discuss it within fifteen working days after its alleged occurrence with his supervisor or, in the absence of this supervisor, at the next supervisory level, either directly or through the Union steward, with the objective of resolving the matter informally.

3. Level Three

If the aggrieved person is not satisfied with the disposition of his/her grievance at Level Two, or if no decision has been rendered within five (5) work days after the grievance was received by the superintendent, or if no meeting has been held, he/she may request the Steward refer the grievance to the board within the next five (5) working days. The board will notify in writing the Unit Chair and grievant as to when the board will meet on the grievance. The board will review the grievance at its next monthly meeting. The Union

A decision on the grievance, Level Three, will be rendered by a majority board within fifteen (15) days of the board meeting. Such decision shall be provided in writing to Grievant with a copy to the Unit Chair.

4. Level Four

If the aggrieved person is not satisfied with the disposition of his/her grievance at Level Three, or if no decision has been rendered, the Unit Chair may refer the matter to Council 25. In the event Council 25 wishes to carry the matter further, the Council Staff Representative shall file within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of the level three decision a demand for arbitration with the Michigan Employee Relations Commission. The arbitrator shall be selected from a list of five submitted by the Michigan Employment Relations Commission. The arbitrator shall be selected from a list of five submitted by the Michigan Employment Relations Commission. The arbitrator's decision shall be in writing and will set forth his/her findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions on the issues submitted. The arbitrator shall have no power to alter, modify, add to or subtract from the provisions of this Agreement. 2. Grievances will be filed on approved forms (attached) and given appropriate distribution to the Union steward.
3. Decisions reached in Level Two and Level Three will be reduced to writing.
4. Referrals to workdays in the grievance procedure shall mean those days from Monday through Friday, inclusive.

10. DISCHARGE AND DISCIPLINE

Notice of Discharge or Discipline

The Employer agrees promptly, upon the discharge or discipline of an employee, to notify in writing the steward in the district of the discharge or discipline.

An employee ordered to leave his/her work for disciplinary reasons shall, before leaving the Employer's premises, have the right to consult his/her steward at a place and for a reasonable length of time provided by the Employer. Exception may be made to this provision if the Employer took immediate action to remove the employee from the premises in cases involving drunkenness, violence or willful destruction of property.

Appeal of Discharge or Discipline

Should the discharged or disciplined employee or the steward consider the discharge to be improper, a complaint shall be presented in writing through the steward to the Employer within five regularly scheduled working days of the discharge or discipline. The superintendent will review the discharge or discipline and give his/her answer within five regularly scheduled working days after receiving the complaint. If the decision is not satisfactory to the Union, the matter shall be referred to Level Three of the grievance procedure.

Use of Past Record

In imposing any discipline on a current charge, the Employer will not take into account any prior infractions which occurred more than two years previously.

Violation of Contract

Any willful violation of the terms of this Agreement by any employee will constitute just cause for discipline and/or discharge, subject to the grievance procedure.

11. SENIORITY

The Employer and the Union agree that seniority is the length of service beginning with the employee's last date of hire into the bargaining unit.

a. Seniority Lists

1. The Employer will post a new list once a year on the first Monday of October. Revisions of the seniority list will be posted as made. A copy of the seniority list and subsequent revisions, will be provided to the Union. Within fifteen (15) working days of such posting, any employee (or the Union) believing the list to be inaccurate shall file a written, signed objection to the revision with the Superintendent. The Superintendent will meet with the objecting employee and representatives of the Union in an attempt to resolve the matter. If the matter is not resolved, and the employee (or Union) desire to appeal the matter, a written grievance shall be submitted directly to Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure outlined in Article 9. If no written objections have been made within such period, or, if written objection has been made, upon final resolution of the validity of such objection, the Employer may conclusively rely upon the accuracy of such lists for all purposes of this Agreement and for purposes of future revisions of such lists.
2. In the event of a tie in accumulated seniority, employees shall be ranked on the seniority list in order of the highest number determined by the last four digits of the employee's social security number (highest number equal greater seniority).
3. Seniority rights shall be on a district-wide basis.
4. Seniority shall not be affected by race, sex, age, marital status or dependents of the employee.

5. Seniority shall be used with promotions, new jobs, transfers, etc., along with the ability to perform the work as a criteria for promotion.

Laid off employees may exercise their seniority and bump another bargaining unit employee in another classification who has less seniority, provided they meet the minimum qualifications of the job as outlined in the job description and meet all State and/or federal legal requirements/pre-requisites for the job at the start of the assignment. 14. RECALL PROCEDURE

When a vacancy arises in any bargaining unit position causing Employees to be recalled from layoff, the Employee(s) with the greatest seniority shall be recalled first for placement into their previous classification, if that's where the vacancy exists, or into any other vacant bargaining unit classification for which they meet the current minimum qualifications of the job and are in compliance with the present State and Federal laws in regard to required licenses, endorsements, certificates (including continuing education certifications), and re-certifications for that classification at the start of the assignment.

In the event that the employee is recalled into a position different than the one they were laid-off from (i.e. it is awarded to them after they proved to meet the minimum qualifications as outlined above), he/she shall be given a 90-day trial period to determine his/her desire to remain on the job and his/her ability to perform the job. If during the trial period the Employer demonstrates that the employee is unable to perform in his/her new classification, he/she may be dismissed from the position and the process as outlined in the paragraph above shall be repeated until no laid-off employees are qualified and/or able to fill the vacancy.

Notice of recall shall be sent to the employee at his/her last-known address.

Employee recall shall be limited to three (3) years from the most recent layoff date.

b. If and when operations or divisions or fractions thereof are transferred from one location to another for a period of more than twenty one calendar days, employees affected will be given the opportunity to transfer on the basis of seniority, desire and classification. Location exchange will be considered in such cases. In the event an employee should be transferred to another assignment, the administration will meet with the employee to discuss the reasons for such action in advance.

c. The Employer agrees that in any movement of work not covered above in a and b, he/she will discuss the movement with the Union in order to provide for the protection of the seniority of the employees involved.

d. In the event of a vacancy or a newly created position, employees shall be given the opportunity to transfer on the basis of seniority provided they meet the current minimum qualifications of the job and are in compliance with the present State and Federal laws in regard to required licenses, endorsements, certificates (including continuing education certifications), and re-certifications for that classification at the start of the assignment. . Philosophy

For the purposes of this policy, an extended serious health condition shall mean a condition which involves the continuing active treatment by a physician for a chronic or long-term health condition that is serious enough that if not treated, would most likely result in death or long-term disability.

Administration of Sick Bank

- Unit members who have benefited from the use of the bank shall reimburse the bank a minimum of 1 day per year until all days taken are repaid. Those days are to be considered separate from any days donated for the purpose of continued eligibility.
- The sick bank will be governed by a committee of 3 unit members and 3 representatives of the Board of Education. The committee will develop rules and guidelines to assist with the process of determining eligible recipients for sick bank time.
- Decisions made by the Sick Bank Committee are not subject to the grievance procedure.

Eligibility

- All bargaining unit members (AFSCME) are eligible to participate providing they have donated days to the sick bank.
- Participating members may be required as a condition of continued eligibility to donate 1 additional day per year.
- Application for sick bank days must be submitted in written form by the employee, spouse or immediate family member.
- Written documentation from the employee's physician may be required to verify illness and/or date of return to work.
- An employee could receive up to 10 days or 80 hours of sick bank time upon approval of the committee. In the event of extenuating circumstances, an employee could seek a renewal of 20 additional days, up to a maximum of 30 days or 240 hours per fiscal year.
- An eligible employee can borrow days from the bank providing all personal leave days, vacation days, sick days and comp days have been exhausted. Those individuals receiving disability insurance benefits would not qualify for sick bank days.
