Probationary employees, whose job performance is unsatisfactory, may be discharged for such unsatisfactory performance not subject to the grievance procedure.
- 6.02 Seniority will accrue from the last date of hire. Employees recalled to work for which they are qualified are obligated to take said work. An employee who declines recall to perform work for which he/she is qualified shall forfeit seniority rights.
- 8.04 A reduction in hours is not a layoff; however, to the extent feasible an affected employee will be advised of a reduction at least fourteen (14) calendar days in advance. When a full time employee's hours have been reduced to part-time status, the employee may bump the lowest seniority full-time employee within a position for which the reduced employee is qualified. When a part-time employee's hours have been reduced to less than part-time status, the employee may bump the lowest seniority employee within a part-time position for which the reduced employee is qualified. Full time employees will be defined as 30 hours a week or more. Part time employees will be defined at less than 30 hours per week but greater than 20 hour per week.
- 8.05 Layoff shall be defined as a reduction in the work force beyond normal attrition.
- 8.06 To the extent feasible, the Employer shall provide the employee with fourteen (14) calendar day's notice of actual layoff.
- 8.07 In the event of a layoff, the Employer shall lay off probationary employees provided there are qualified employees with more seniority remaining who can demonstrate the ability to perform the work. Layoff shall be in reverse order of seniority.
- 8.08 No new employee shall be hired while there is a laid-off employee(s) qualified to fill the position.
- 8.09 The limitations in paragraph 8.08 shall not apply if such work was offered to and refused by the laid-off employee(s).
