The following matters shall not be the basis of any grievance filed under the procedure outlined in this Article:

Any matter not specifically referred to in this agreement for which there is recourse under State or Federal statutes.

- B. The Association shall handle grievances when requested by the grievant, the grievant may be present at all meetings. The Board hereby designates as its representative for such purpose the principal in each building and the superintendent of schools or his/her designee when the grievance arises in more than one school building.
- C. The term "days" as used herein shall mean scheduled work days or business days during summer recess.
- D. Written grievances as required herein shall contain the following and use the form in Appendix A:

If the Association as the moving party fails to comply with the time limit, the grievance shall be considered settled on the basis of the Board's last written answer to the grievance. If the Board as the responding party fails to comply with any time limit at any step, the grievance shall automatically pass to the next step in the grievance procedure. The parties may, however, agree in writing to extend the time limits at any step.
- F. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as limiting the right of any individual employee to present a grievance to school officials and/or the Board and to have those grievances adjusted without the intervention of the Association, except that the adjustment shall not be inconsistent with this Agreement and the Association shall be given the opportunity to be represented at such adjustment.
- G. Level One:

In the event that an employee believes there is a basis for a grievance, he/she shall first discuss the matter with his/her building principal or immediate supervisor, accompanied by his/her Association Representative, within ten (10) days of the occurrence or knowledge of the events giving rise to the concern, in an effort to resolve it. The expenses of the witnesses and representatives of the parties shall be borne by the party for whom they appear. Witnesses and representatives of the Association shall be released without loss of pay for hearings.
 7. Any grievance not taken to arbitration within the above stated time limits shall be deemed settled based upon the Board's last answer.
 8. The parties may by mutual agreement, in writing, submit the grievance to expedited arbitration according to the rules of the American Arbitration Association, or as otherwise mutually agreed upon.
- L. All information necessary to the determination and processing of any grievance shall be furnished upon request to all parties in said grievances.

- C. Laid off employees may bump into the same classification or a lower classification held by a less senior employee in their same department provided they are qualified for the duties of the remaining positions. Once a bargaining unit member invokes his/her seniority to bump into another bargaining unit position, said position shall be considered an open position, and any other bargaining unit member with more seniority shall have the first right of refusal of the position prior to its award. To expedite the situation, the Job Auction clause in Article X, may be utilized if affecting more than one individual.

However, if there is only one less senior employee that can be bumped within the affected classification and that position has fewer hours, laid off employees may bump a less senior employee in any other classification in which said employee has seniority. The employee exercising bumping rights shall do so within five (5) working days of the notice of layoff by written notification to the employer.

- D. Employees shall be recalled in inverse order of layoff to a position in the same classification or lower classification for which they are qualified and provided notice by certified or registered mail at the last known address. Recall notices shall be forwarded at least ten (10) working days in advance of the effective date of recall. The employer may fill the position on a temporary basis pending the recalled employee's return. The employee shall report to work per notice of recall. The above-mentioned employees may bump into the same classification or a lower classification held by a less senior employee in their same department provided they are qualified for the duties of the position. However, if they are only more senior employees, the above mentioned employees have the right to bump the employee one step up on the seniority list above them.

ARTICLE X

VACANCIES, PROMOTIONS, QUALIFICATIONS AND TRANSFERS

- A. The Board recognizes that it is desirable in making assignments to consider the interest and aspirations of its employees. All changes in assignments will be based on seniority and qualifications of the employee. It is understood that employees within a classification already meet the qualifications of that classification.
- B. A vacancy is a new position, or position vacated by termination, resignation, transfer, or retirement.
- C. A support staff position will be re-posted if the district needs to increase/decrease the position's hours by at least 15 minutes. The district will only re-post the support staff position if the scheduled hours are adjusted by 30 minutes; the position is not increasing or decreasing in hours.
- D. Employees within the classification and the Association President will be notified in writing of the existing vacancy. Five (5) work days after the notification a job auction will be held using the following procedure:

Job Auction Procedure:

1. All posted positions will be listed.
2. By order of seniority, each employee will be given his/her choice of listed positions. An updated seniority list will be created in cooperation between the Association and the Administration at least three (3) days prior to the beginning of the auction. Any questions regarding seniority shall be resolved prior to the commencement of the job auction.
3. If a "new" position is opened at the auction, because a listed position was taken, the "new" position will be listed and Step 2 will be repeated.
4. Each person may pass as often as they wish, until everyone passes. Step 2 will be repeated as a final check procedure. If everyone passes on this "check" round, the job auction will be considered over. If a position is taken on this "check" round, then the process continues and Step 3 is repeated until everyone passes on the "check" round.
5. If a person leaves the job auction without permission, he/she will forfeit the right to transfer to any of the listed positions and any "new" position listed after his/her departure. If his/her position does not become part of the job auction, they will maintain their current position.
6. Only affected bargaining unit members will be allowed to attend the job auction, with the exception of the Union leadership, Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent, Human Resource Coordinator, and the Director of Business and Finance.
7. The Association and the Administration will sign off on the job auction results at the end of the auction. Said results will be final.

A vacancy that exists after the job auction will be posted in each building for at least five (5) working days. The Association President shall be provided a copy of the posting. During the summer each bargaining unit member will be mailed a copy of the posting.

- E. Selection for the vacancy shall be made by the employer on the basis of qualifications, and seniority in the classification. All positions shall be awarded in a timely manner. The parties agree that the position shall be awarded to the most senior applicant from within the classification. If there is no applicant from within the classification, then the job shall be awarded to the most senior applicant from within the department, provided the applicant is qualified as defined in the handbooks. If no one from the department applies, the most qualified bargaining unit member from the remaining departments will be awarded the position provided that he/she meets or exceeds the qualifications of all other applicants.

When an employee is on an approved leave of absence, and therefore cannot immediately fill the vacancy claimed during a job auction, another member of the bargaining unit, in accordance with seniority, may substitute in that position until such time that the employee who claimed the vacancy during the job auction, returns to work. This process would be continued until there was only one remaining temporary opening. Said remaining opening would be filled by a substitute from outside of the bargaining unit, provided there is no bargaining unit member on layoff in the classification.

- F. A temporary vacancy shall be a vacancy of twelve (12) weeks or less. Temporary vacancies shall first be offered to employees, qualified to perform the duties, based on seniority. In the event that no member of the bargaining unit possesses the skills necessary to perform the duties of the temporary position, the temporary vacancy may be filled in a manner at the employer's discretion. Temporary vacancies shall only exist after the employee is absent for more than three weeks and is expected to be absent longer.

Once the parties are aware that a position will be vacant for twelve (12) weeks or more, said position will be posted according to the guidelines of the contract. The vacancy that exists at the end of this process may be filled by a substitute for a period not to exceed (6) months, provided there are no bargaining unit members on layoff in the classification.

- G. Involuntary transfer not related to reduction of personnel shall be based on cause.
- H. Any employee awarded a position in a different classification shall be given a 30 work day trial period in which to show his/her ability to perform the new job. The employee shall be given reasonable assistance to enable him/her to perform up to the standards of the new position. If the employee is unable to demonstrate ability to perform the work required, or decides to return to his/her former position during the trial period, the employee shall be returned to their former position and the open position shall be reposted.
- I. Temporary employees working in a higher classification will be paid at the higher rate of pay after one (1) week in the higher classification.
- J. Extra Duty Assignments (Schedule B) – All vacant extra assignments shall be posted. All qualified applicants for the positions, from within the bargaining unit, shall be interviewed. After all interviews have been completed, for each assignment, the assignment shall be awarded to the best qualified teacher applicant. If there is no teacher applicant, the assignment shall be awarded to the best qualified bargaining unit applicant in the OV-MESPA bargaining unit. If two or more applicants are equally qualified, the most senior applicant shall be selected.

ARTICLE XI

WORKING CONDITIONS AND WORKING SCHEDULES

- A. The employer will make every effort to maintain a safe working environment. The employees will bring hazardous or unsafe conditions to the attention of the employer. Where hazardous conditions exist that present an extreme threat to the employee, the employee shall not be forced to perform the work until the hazard subsides. The superintendent and/or designee shall make the final decision regarding weather conditions and/or the conditions of buses, roads or other concerns raised as to whether a bus driver will drive their route or trip as assigned.
- B. School Closure, Dismissal or Delay. In general when the facility is closed, activities are cancelled except daycare, township library and other activities determine by the superintendent and/or designee. Those who need to report to work will be notified in a timely matter. In order to staff events during these times, the overtime language will be followed (Article XII, H).
1. When an Act of God or an employer directive causes the closing of a school or other facility of the Employer, the bargaining unit members, excluding Head Custodians, shall be excused from reporting to duty without loss of pay. Head Custodians may be required to report to work for (4) four hours and will be paid at time and one half (not in addition to regular time paid).
 2. If school is cancelled after employees have reported for work or after students have reported, employees may be dismissed by Central Office Administration and excused from work with no loss of pay.
 3. If, due to inclement weather or mechanical failure, it is necessary to delay the opening of school, all employees shall suffer no loss of pay and will not be required to work. If an employee is already at work, he/she will utilize comp. LETTER OF AGREEMENT

It is agreed that administrative secretaries, in single secretary buildings, where a principal may be absent from the building, the administrative secretary may assume responsibilities because of the absence of her/his building principal. A single secretary building is one in which there is only one person with the classification of administrative secretary. The principal's absence is defined as an absence where the principal is outside of the boundaries of Orchard View Schools and the absence is of one half day (4 hours continuous) or greater in length. Additionally, should the principal be absent, as defined above, where in a minimum of one (1) hour increments, such absence totals seven (7) hours in one week period, the affected secretary shall be entitled to pay as defined below in 1) and 2).

When the above conditions are met, it is agreed that additional compensation shall be paid as follows:

1. In the event the principal is absent, as defined above, and a lead teacher has not been assigned, or there had been no substitute teacher assigned to the lead teacher's classroom, the building administrative secretary shall receive additional compensation of 25% of her/his hourly pay per the current pay index, for the specific time during the principal's absence (measured in fifteen (15) minute increments).
2. In the event the principal is absent, as defined above, and a lead teacher has been assigned with a substitute teacher assigned to the lead teacher's classroom, the building administrative secretary shall receive additional compensation of 15% of her/his hourly pay per the current pay index, for the specific time during the principal's absence (measured in fifteen (15) minute increments).
3. Extra pay resulting from the provisions of this agreement shall be included in the next regular pay of the employee provided time slips are filed properly and timely.
4. The "responsibilities" assumed because of the absence of her/his administrative supervisor are understood to be within the scope of the administrative secretary's position and are not those responsibilities expected of professionally certified personnel.

RE: Holidays which Fall Outside of the Employee's Regular Workweek

The above-named parties hereby agree to the following with regard to holidays that fall outside of an employee's regular working week:

1. Some employees in the OV-MESPA bargaining unit may have working schedules that fall outside of the normal regular workweek of Monday through Friday.
2. In different calendar cycles, the paid holidays noted in Article XV of the Master Agreement between the parties, may fall outside of such employee's(s') workweek.
3. In those situations, the parties hereby agree, that the employee will still receive all paid holidays as listed in Article XV. However, due to the employee's workweek, such holidays that fall outside of the employee's workweek, will be scheduled within that employee's workweek.
