 - c) Fringe benefits shall be available after 60 calendar days, or before 90 calendar days, depending on employee's date of hire (use date of hire that is nearest to first of the month).

In compliance with this provision, it shall be deemed to have been accomplished if the Employer has given the steward and/or president of the Union six (6) copies of the Seniority List.

- a) Any objection to the seniority date as shown on any seniority list must be registered with the Employer by the complaining employee within thirty (30) calendar days after such seniority list has been given to the Union.

- c. If he/she is absent for three (3) consecutive regularly scheduled workdays without notifying the Employer within such three (3) calendar day period of a justifiable reason for such absence. leave of absence which would preclude him/her from performing his/her responsibilities and duties for the Employer.

e. When he/she has been laid off for a continuous period of time in excess of twelve (12) consecutive months or length of seniority, whichever is greater.

5. Section 5 - Layoffs - When layoffs are necessary, the following units will be used in conjunction with the language of this section. Custodian is the lower classification in each unit for purposes of layoffs:

Unit One	Unit Two	Unit Three
Building Head	Maintenance	Mechanic
Custodian	Custodian	Custodian

7. When it becomes necessary to lay off employees or to reduce the size of the work force, the following procedure shall apply. All substitute employees, probationary employees and part-time employees shall be laid off first. Thereafter, if further layoffs or reductions in work force are necessary, such layoffs and/or reductions shall be based upon seniority within the layoff unit, provided the senior employee has the ability to do the work required.
8. Senior employees may enter any lower classification within the layoff unit, the duties of which he/she has the present capability of performing, and shall receive the rate of pay for such job.
9. Senior employees entering any lower classification within their unit shall be returned to their own classification before the hiring of new and/or the recalling of any laid off employees with less seniority to the classification from which the senior employee is laid off or reduced.

7. After one year of service, any employee who terminates his employment with the Employer shall be entitled to take his prorated accumulated vacation pay at the rate of pay received by said employee at the time of leaving. Vacations must be taken on a yearly basis and not accumulative unless prior approval is received in writing from the Superintendent of Schools.

If there are two (2) or more employees who request the same vacation time off and both cannot be spared at such time, the employee with the greatest seniority shall be allowed the time. Vacation requests must be returned to the employee within five (5) working days of their receipt.

- c. Employees who are denied the opportunity to take their vacation when scheduled by the Employer shall be paid their vacation pay in addition to their regular pay for work during the scheduled vacation period in lieu of their scheduled vacation. Employees may request payment in lieu of vacation subject to the Employer's approval.

Such temporary transfer of employees shall be rotated among all qualified employees equally and cannot extend beyond 30 calendar days. The Employer shall inform the Union in writing of all temporary transfers, including the date said transfers begin and end. Employees shall receive the next highest pay rate in higher classification on a former pay rate after the employee has performed higher classification work for three (3) consecutive days. Payment shall be made from the first day. Custodians must be given responsibility for crew workers to receive higher pay.

In either case the low seniority affected employee shall be transferred to the disciplined employee's position unless said position is bid upon as in 3.
 2. If the administration can determine which unit employee is at fault in a dispute between two unit members, that employee shall be permanently transferred. If this can not be determined by administration, the low seniority employee shall be transferred.
 3. A position vacated by an involuntary transferred unit employee may be bid upon by unit members. Any vacancies created by this bidding process shall be filled by the most senior applicant, unless of course the applicant is the disciplined employee or the resulting vacancy would place the disciplined employee in the building of his current assignment. All transfers occurring under this section of the contract are subject to the grievance procedure and may be grieved to the Board of Education level but may not be grieved to arbitration.

4. A permanently transferred employee may apply for reassignment to his/her former assignment or other assignments. A copy of the completed form will be retained by the Employer and shall be signed by the employee's supervisor or, in the event of absence, the designated supervisor.
3. When a new job is created, the Employer will establish a new classification and rate. In the event the Union does not agree with the description and rate, it shall notify the Employer within thirty (30) calendar days after the new classification and rate are established and such matters shall be subject to negotiations.
4. The following factors shall be considered when filling all job openings:
 - a. Knowledge, training, ability, skill and efficiency.

When factors A, B and C are determined by the administration to be relatively equal, then length of service with the district shall be the determining factor.

5. The Board of Education agrees to put in writing the reasons for denial of any job that an employee bids on.
6. An employee filling a vacancy within his own classification shall be given a thirty (30) day trial period in the opening. If he/she is unable to perform in the position, in the opinion of the Employer, or at the employee's request, he/she shall be returned to his/her former position.
7. An employee filling an upgrading vacancy by bid procedure shall be given sixty (60) days to prove his ability for all positions except for the maintenance man position. Employees upgrading from custodian to maintenance man will be evaluated by the Union President, Director of Buildings & Grounds, and the Assistant Superintendent after one year in the position to determine if the employee possesses the necessary skills or has demonstrated sufficient growth to remain in the position. Any employee, if unable to qualify or by his/her request, shall be allowed to return to his former position without prejudice at the rate of pay for such position. Employees may exercise their prerogative to refuse a permanent transfer or promotion without bias or loss of seniority.
8. An employee upgrading to a building head position with at least two years of experience as a building custodian will be placed on the 2-year experience level of the Building Head salary schedule.
