NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I Management Rights

Subject to the terms of this Agreement, and except as modified by the specific terms of this Agreement, the Employer retains all rights and powers to manage the East China School District and to direct its employees. The Union recognizes these management rights and responsibilities as conferred by the Laws and Constitution of the State of Michigan and as are inherent in the rights and responsibilities to manage the public school system, including, but not limited to, the right:

- (a) To the exclusive management and administrative control of the school system and its properties and facilities;

- (d) To promulgate reasonable work rules. Except in cases of emergency, the employer shall notify the union of the anticipated changes and allow the union five (5) days to provide input before changes are made.

The exercise of the foregoing powers, rights, authority, duties and responsibilities by the Employer, the adoption of policies, rules, regulations and practices in furtherance thereof, and the use of judgment and discretion in connection therewith shall be limited only by the specific and express terms of this Agreement and then only to the extent such specific and express terms hereof are in conformance with the Laws and Constitution of the State of Michigan, and the Laws and Constitution of the United States.

ARTICLE II Employee Defined

For the purpose of this Agreement, the term employee shall include all regular full time custodial, and maintenance employees, including Custodian I, Building Heads I and II, night crew leader, bus mechanic, groundskeeper, and multi-trades technician, but shall exclude substitutes, student trainees, bus drivers, cafeteria employees, clerical employees, supervisors and all other employees. "Regular full time employees" are defined as those who regularly work at least thirty-two (32) hours per week.

ARTICLE III Recognition, Payroll Deduction and Union Security

3.1 The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive representative of all employees as defined in Article II hereof.

3.2 Employees covered by this Agreement at the time it becomes effective, and who are members of the Union at that time, shall, as a condition of continued employment, continue membership in the Union for the duration of this Agreement or shall pay to the Union an amount of money equal to the Union's regular and usual monthly dues but excluding initiation fees and other assessments.

All future regular employees, as a condition of continued employment, shall either become members of the Union or shall pay to the Union an amount of money equal to the Union's regular and usual monthly dues but excluding initiation fees and other assessments.

During the period of time covered by this Agreement, the Employer agrees to deduct monthly from the pay of the Employee all regular and usual dues, excluding initiation fees and other assessments of the Union, levied in accordance with its Constitution and by-laws, or representation fee equivalent to dues; provided, however, that the Union presents to the Employer an authorization signed by the employee allowing such deductions and payments to the Union. Changes either as to additions in Union membership or changes in dues will be certified to the Employer in writing by the Union at least one (1) month in advance of the effective date of the change.

The amount of dues will be certified in writing to the Employer by the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union. Normally, the deductions will be made the first pay of the month and the amount of the dues, or representation fee equivalent to dues, forwarded to the Union no later than the 20th of the month.

For new employees, the payment of dues, or representation fee equivalent to dues, shall start no later than thirty-one (31) days following ninety (90) calendar days on the job.

The Union will indemnify, defend and hold the Employer harmless against any claim made, and against any suit instituted against the Employer on account of any check-off of Union dues, or representation fee equivalent to dues, or discharge of any employee for failure to authorize the deduction of such dues, or representation fee equivalent to dues, or failure to pay dues, or representation fee equivalent to dues.

In the event the Employer creates new positions which properly come within the scope of the bargaining unit, the Employer will establish the initial pay rate for the position or positions. The Union has the right to bargain for the rates and when final agreement is reached, the rate agreed upon will be retroactive to the date the position was established. Failure to reach an agreement on the rate of pay may result in a grievance.

ARTICLE IV Representation

4.1 All employees who are covered by this Agreement shall, for the purpose of grievances be represented by one (1) Steward or one (1) alternate.

4.2 The Bargaining Committee shall be established for the purpose of contract negotiations and shall be composed of four (4) employees, chosen by the Union from this division and the Division Union Chairman.

ARTICLE V Job Status and Function of Union Officers

5.1 If mutually agreed upon, the Steward, or Alternate shall be paid by the Employer for time spent in the processing of grievances arising out of this Agreement during his/her regularly scheduled working hours, at his/her regularly scheduled rate of pay.

5.2 Committeemen, Stewards and/or Alternates shall be governed by established rules, regarding the handling of employee grievances and negotiations as are indicated in the grievance procedure. However, members of the committee and the Division Union Chairman, may be absent from their assigned work to handle Union business when arrangements are made as far in advance as possible by the Division Chairman or other authorized representative. This lost time is to be paid for by the Local Union.

5.3 The names of committeemen, steward, and alternate steward shall be given in writing to the Employer, and no committeeman, steward or alternate shall function as such, until the Employer has been advised of the selection in writing by officers of the Local Union, Chairman of the Division, or an International or Council representative. Any change in committeemen, steward or alternate shall be reported to the Employer in writing as soon as practicable.

5.4 Executive Officers of the International Union or their representatives duly authorized to represent the Union, and/or the President of the Local Union, if not employed by the Employer, will be permitted to participate in meeting relative to hours, wages and working conditions at any time. If the President of the Local Union works for the Employer, this individual may attend any meetings with the Employer relative to hours, wages and working conditions and will be paid the regular rate for time spent in such meetings, for the hours which would have otherwise been worked.

5.5 The Steward, Alternate or Division Union Chairperson having a grievance in connection with the individual's own work may ask for the Alternate, Steward or Division Union Chairperson to assist in adjusting the grievance.

ARTICLE VI

Grievance Procedure

6.1 Notwithstanding anything in this ARTICLE to the contrary, it is understood and agreed that nothing contained herein shall abridge the right of individual employees to process their own grievances, consistent with the terms of this collective bargaining agreement, and subject to prior notice of the grievances to the Steward, Alternate or Division Union Chairperson.

6.2 A grievance shall be defined as an alleged violation, misinterpretation or misapplication of any provision of this Agreement. Any grievance not initiated as set forth herein within seven (7) working days of the occurrence thereof shall be considered as having been waived and being null and void.

6.3 STEP ONE: A grievance shall be initiated by the employee communicating the alleged grievance to the supervisor. For the period of this Agreement, the term "Supervisor" shall be defined as:

The building principal of the school to which each custodian, building head and night crew leader is assigned.

The Director of Operations for all maintenance department employees, buildings without principals available and employees with district-wide responsibilities.

The Director of Transportation for all bus mechanics.

Any employee may request the steward or alternate to assist in handling the grievance. The Supervisor will, if so requested, arrange a meeting promptly and at a mutually convenient time without further discussion of the grievance.

STEP TWO: A grievance which is not settled within two (2) working days of the initiation thereof shall be reduced to writing on appropriate forms and signed by the aggrieved or the Steward. The grievance shall be specific and contain a synopsis of the facts giving rise to the alleged violation, date of the alleged violation, and relief requested. The Steward shall deliver the grievance to the Assistant Superintendent, Personnel and Operations within three (3) working days following the signing of the grievance. The Assistant Superintendent, Personnel and Operations shall meet with aggrieved and steward within three (3) working days after receipt of a signed copy of the grievance. The Assistant Superintendent, Personnel and Operations shall write a disposition on all copies of the grievance form and shall return a signed copy thereof to the Steward within five (5) working days of the meeting.

STEP THREE: If the grievance is not adjusted by the above steps, the Steward may, within three (3) working days, forward the grievance to the Superintendent or designee, who shall meet with the Union within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance and write a disposition of the grievance within five (5) working days of the meeting. Both the Union and the Employer shall have the right to request the presence of any and all parties who have been involved in the grievance at the meeting at this step.

STEP FOUR: If the Union is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance, the decision may be appealed to the Board of Education within five (5) working days after notification of such decision. The Board shall take up the grievance at its next informational meeting and shall render its decision within ten (10) working days of the next action meeting.

STEP FIVE: If the Union is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance by the Board, or if no disposition has been made within the period above provided, the grievance may be submitted within thirty (30) calendar days to arbitration before an impartial arbitrator. The arbitrator shall be selected by the American Arbitration Association in accord with its rules which shall likewise govern the arbitration proceeding. The Board and the Union shall not be permitted to assert in such arbitration proceeding any ground or to rely on any evidence not previously disclosed to the other party.

The arbitrator shall have no power to alter, modify, add to, or subtract from the provisions of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall deal only with the grievance or grievances which occasioned the appointment. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding.

The fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties. Each party shall bear his own expense in connection therewith. The Board shall not be responsible for wages lost by Union members attending arbitration proceedings.

6.4 If additional time is deemed necessary to properly investigate matters relative to the grievance at any step outlined above, such additional time may be granted only if mutually agreed upon between the Union and the Employer.

6.5 Failure to appeal a decision to the next step within the time limits set forth above shall constitute acceptance of the last decision thereon and shall bar future action on the grievance.

6.6 Failure at any step of the grievance procedure to communicate the decision on a grievance within the specified time limits shall permit lodging an appeal to the next step of the procedure within the time which would have been allotted had a timely decision been communicated.

ARTICLE VII

Seniority

7.1 New employees will be considered as probationary employees until they have been employed in a regular bid position for one hundred eighty (180) work days. After successful completion of the probationary period, the employee's seniority date shall be the date last hired. If a probationary employee is off more than five (5) work days during the probationary period, any days absent over these five (5) days will be added to the probationary period. The Union shall represent probationary employees for the purposes of collective bargaining with respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment or other conditions of employment as set forth in Section 3.1 of ARTICLE III of this Agreement. The Employer shall have the right to discharge and discipline probationary employees and the action is not subject to appeal or grievance. No employee after completion of probationary period shall be terminated without cause.

7.2 The employee's name shall be placed on the seniority list after acquiring seniority. An up-to-date master seniority list shall be made available to all employees for inspection each October.

7.3 Inasmuch as it is the intent and purpose of this paragraph to preserve the principle that, provided the employee has the ability to perform the work, job security should increase in proportion to length of continuous service without interruption to the efficient operations of the Employer.

7.4 Seniority or continuous service shall be broken by:

- a) Voluntarily quitting the service of the Employer.
- b) Failure of an employee to report an absence from a regularly scheduled work day for a period of five (5) consecutive days, or failure of employee on layoff to report or acknowledge such notice to report within five (5) days of written notice, shall be reported by the Employer to the Union in writing, and a copy of such report shall be mailed by certified mail to the involved employee's last known address as shown on Employer records. If, within seven (7) days thereafter, good and sufficient reason is not shown for failure to report, such employee shall be deemed to have voluntarily quit the service.

- c) An employee who fails to accept any work offered in accordance with the provisions of this section in lieu of layoff or any employee on layoff who fails to accept any work offered shall also be deemed to have voluntarily quit the service.
- d) Discharge unless reversed by the grievance procedure.
- e) Layoff which extends beyond two (2) years.

ARTICLE VIII Layoff and Recall

Layoffs and recalls will be based upon seniority, provided the senior employee has the ability to do the work required. The senior employee may enter any lower classification, the duties of which such employee is capable of performing. Employees will be returned to their own classification before the recall of any other laid off employee with less seniority in the classification from which the senior employee was laid off or recalled. Employees who exercise their seniority under this section will be paid at the rate of the job to which they are assigned

When job elimination exists, this person by seniority, has the right to bump laterally or lower wherever this person chooses, if qualified by certification, test results, etc. Bumped employees shall notify the Personnel Department of their job selection within three working days. During the 2010-11 and 2011-12 school years, the current level of custodial staffing (44.5 positions) shall be maintained, including the ten (10) subcontracted positions.

Effective May 1, 2011 and per the attached letter of understanding, if there are only eight (8) or seven (7) PCMI employees, there shall be one (1) staffing reduction. If there are only six (6) or five (5) PCMI employees, there shall be two (2) staffing reductions. If there are only four (4) or (3) PCMI employees, there shall be three (3) staffing reductions. If there are only two (2) or one (1) PCMI employees, there shall be four (4) staffing reductions.

ARTICLE IX Transfers and Promotions

9.1 All job openings within the bargaining unit shall be posted for bid on bulletin boards at least five (5) working days in advance of the filling of this position. A copy of all job openings shall be sent to the home address of the Steward so as to provide an opportunity for absent employees to bid on such openings. The Employer shall award the job, in accordance with this ARTICLE, within thirty-five (35) working days after the job becomes vacant or after the expiration date of the bid posting, whichever is later. During said thirty-five (35) day period, the Employer may fill the position with a substitute/temporary custodian. The name of the employee awarded the job will be forwarded to the Union Steward. Current bargaining unit members shall have first bid on openings occurring in the bargaining unit. Current custodial/maintenance personnel shall have first bid on custodial/maintenance openings, and current bus mechanics shall have first bid on bus mechanic openings.

9.2 If a vacancy is of an emergency nature, supervision may designate a temporary substitute for a period not to exceed thirty (30) working days. Any temporary substitute working in the position for over thirty (30) working days starts the probationary period.

9.3 In the event of a job opening, the senior qualified employee who desires to fill the job and who bids on same shall be given first consideration for transfer or promotion. If there is more than one qualified applicant, seniority will prevail.

9.4 This sub-paragraph of Article IX deals with promotions only.

An in-service training program will be established by the Employer in order to familiarize the successful bidder with the new job routine. An employee who is a successful bidder on a job shall be on probation for the first ninety (90) working days. During said ninety (90) day period, the Employer shall evaluate the employee's performance in the newly assumed position. At the conclusion of said ninety (90) days, the Employer may return the employee to the former classification if the employee's performance has not been satisfactory to the Employer. During the first twenty (20) working days in a new position, the employee shall have the right to return to the position held immediately before the promotion. If an employee is returned to the former classification, management will appoint the next highest senior qualified employee who bid on the new job without being required to re-post such opening. New Building Heads and Night Crew Leaders will be given at least five (5) days training from their predecessor whenever possible.

9.5 This sub-paragraph of Article IX deals with lateral transfers (i.e., a C-1 to a C-1 position). During the first ten (10) work days in the new lateral position, the employee shall have the right to return to the position held immediately before the lateral transfer. An employee may only bid on a lateral position three times in a fiscal year. They will have the option of returning to their previous position only twice in that fiscal year.

9.6 Temporary assignments exceeding five (5) working days for the purpose of filling vacancies of employees who are absent because of illness, etc., will be granted to the senior building employees who meet the requirements of such job. Such employees will receive the rate of pay of the vacancy for all hours worked while filling such vacancy after the fifth (5th) working day. If the vacancy becomes permanent, the vacancy shall become open for bid and come under the same rules as for promotions.

9.7 Wherever practical, employees possessing the highest seniority shall be assigned preferred work within their classification and building.

9.8 Successful bidders may exercise their prerogative to refuse the voluntary transfer or promotion without bias or loss of seniority.

9.9 In the event there are no qualified employees on staff, the employer may hire new employees. New employees shall be hired at the lowest pay in the classification.

9.10 The Employer retains the right to test or otherwise check the qualifications and ability of employees exercising their right to bid on openings in the bus garage.

9.11 Each year, on or about July 1, the Director of Transportation will post a shift bid schedule for bus mechanics. The shift preference will be granted in order of highest seniority. If for some reason a bus mechanic does not maintain his/her qualifications as a bus driver, another bus mechanic may be assigned to the shift according to the needs of the Employer. If a bus mechanic does not prefer the shift that may be assigned by the Director, the least senior bus mechanic will be assigned to that shift.

9.12 All current non-probationary custodial, bus mechanics and maintenance personnel are considered to be qualified for the position they are currently serving in or the highest position in which previously served and will not be tested for a lateral or lower transfer, e.g., from a Building Head II position to another Building Head II position. In addition, the following current custodial personnel are considered qualified for the positions listed under their classification:

BUILDING HEAD I

Building Head II
Night Crew Leader
Custodian I

BUILDING HEAD II

Night Crew Leader
Custodian I

BUS MECHANIC

Custodian I

NIGHT CREW LEADER

Custodian I

MULTI-TRADES TECHNICIAN

Building Head II
Night Crew Leader
Custodian I

GROUNDKEEPER

Custodian I

If someone applies with more seniority and has not served in that capacity or satisfactorily passed the test (if required), he/she will have to satisfactorily pass the test in order to be granted the position based on seniority.

Employees may take a test for any given position once per calendar year and a passing grade on a test will remain good, if the employee has not been promoted to the position for which he tested, until such time as a new test for the position is implemented. Qualifying tests will be administered by the employer on or about July 1 of each year. Prior to the test being given, the test shall be reviewed by the Union Chairman in order to verify that a new test has not been implemented. The test review shall be under terms and conditions established by the Union Chairman and the Assistant Superintendent for Personnel.

A minimum grade of seventy-five percent (75%) on the overall test will be required with at least a fifty-one percent (51%) passing grade on each section of the test. The Union will be given an opportunity to submit recommendations before the testing program is implemented.

9.13 Accelerated Bid Process - When a custodial job vacancy exists, an accelerated bid process may be utilized. The process would be as follows:

- 1) All union members would be notified of the vacancies and the place, time, and date of the bid. This memo would serve as the required five day posting for this and all resultant vacancies.
- 2) Interested union members must attend to bid.
- 3) Positions will be awarded based on seniority, qualifications and/or test scores.
- 4) Resulting vacancies from the original openings would also be awarded at the bid meeting.

ARTICLE X Hours of Work

10.1 Unscheduled work on weekdays and Saturdays will be paid for at one and one-half (1-1/2) times the hourly rate, and at two (2) times the hourly rate on Sundays, and two and one-half (2 ½) times the hourly rate on holidays as listed in Article XIII (this includes holiday pay referenced in Article XIII).

10.2 The Employer shall have the management right to establish starting and quitting times and work schedules. The parties recognize that at the inception of this Agreement, except for employees hired for part-time work, the normal hours of Building Head I and Building Head II will be from 7 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.; Night Crew Leader, 3:30 p.m. to 12 midnight; Custodian I's will be assigned regular work hours, however, such assignments will not be set forth in this Agreement, because they may vary from building to building. Prior to changing an employee's work schedule by more than two hours, but less than three hours, the employer shall notify the Union of the anticipated changes and allow the Union five (5) days to provide input before changes are made. Prior to changing an employee's work schedule by three or more hours, the employer shall notify the Union of the anticipated changes and allow the Union five (5) days to provide input before posting the position for bid. An employee displaced under this bidding provision shall, by seniority, have the right to bump laterally or lower, if qualified by certification, test results, etc. None of these requirements shall apply in the event of an emergency as determined by the Employer.

10.3 The Employer may schedule building checks. Should building checks be scheduled, these checks shall be paid at double time. One hour will be allowed each day for the required checks.

10.4 Employees reporting for work during their regularly scheduled working hours who are sent home through no fault of their own shall be paid a minimum four (4) hours of work. Employees called to work outside of their regularly scheduled working hours, other than building checks, shall be paid for a minimum of two (2) hours of work. Such time shall commence at the time of call.

10.5 Opportunity for overtime will be equalized by building to the fullest extent possible.

10.6 In the event of an absence, the decision whether to fill the position is at the discretion of the Employer. If the Employer decides to staff an absence, the following procedure shall be followed:

- a) When an employee is absent, the building principal may elect any of the following:
 - 1) Authorize a maximum total of four (4) hours of overtime each day for regular staff in order to provide minimum coverage for the absent employee.
 - 2) Request overtime from the district wide overtime list if building staff are not available.
 - 3) Request a temporary call-in substitute custodian that may be provided for a period of up to eight (8) hours each day.
- b) The above guidelines notwithstanding, in the case of a planned absence, a temporary call-in substitute custodian may be provided to the building for a total of up to eight (8) hours each day. No overtime is authorized for this situation.
- c) Building principals may authorize additional overtime for existing staff as conditions, such as a special event, require.
- d) Temporary call-in substitute custodians will not be used for weekend work except in an emergency when regular staff are not available.
- e) Temporary call-in substitute custodians will be provided subject to availability.

Temporary call-in substitute custodians will not be used to staff a regular custodial position vacancy except in an emergency or as provided for in Article 9.1.

10.7 Unplanned School Closings – When regular work is scheduled and all schools are ordered closed for the entire day by the Superintendent or designee, classifications under this Master Agreement will report to work and receive their regular rate of pay. This section shall apply to each day of the school closing.

10.8 Custodians who are not notified by Thursday night of custodial work for the following weekend shall receive two (2) hours of call in time plus the time actually worked. This does not apply in case of an emergency.

ARTICLE XI
Compensation

The wages of employees covered by the Agreement are as set forth in Schedule "A" which is attached to and incorporated in this Agreement.

ARTICLE XII
Vacations

12.1 The vacation year for all employees shall be July 1 through June 30. The vacation service years are to be earned by vacation year. Employees hired prior to January 1 will be given credit for a full year of employment for vacation purposes. Vacation time will not be accumulative and will not be compensable if not taken, unless prior approval is given by the Assistant Superintendent for Personnel. Employees hired after January 1, but prior to July 1, will receive a pro-rated vacation for that period of time (5 days x months worked ÷ 12) but will not receive any vacation credit for this period of time thereafter. (For the following period of July 1 - June 30, these employees would qualify for five (5) days of vacation only.) The period of continuous employment for vacation purposes commences July 1 following the hire date for employees hired after January 1 but prior to July 1. An employee continues to accumulate vacation time while on paid leave. No vacation time accumulates while an employee is on an unpaid leave. If an employee is laid off, previous continuous employment during that year will count for vacation purposes upon the employee's return to work and will be pro-rated for actual time worked on July 1. Probationary employees hired after December 31 will be entitled to pro-rated vacation on July 1 for actual time worked during the previous fiscal year.

12.2 Employees will be credited with vacation time as follows: one (1) week after one (1) year of continuous employment; two (2) weeks after two (2) years of continuous employment; three (3) weeks after eight (8) years of continuous employment; and four (4) weeks after sixteen (16) years of continuous employment.

12.3 All employees shall be required to take their vacations each year based on the following window period and schedule: employees with one (1) to two (2) weeks shall take one (1) week (five vacation days) the Friday preceding and the week in which the fourth of July holiday is recognized. Employees with three (3) to four (4) weeks vacation shall take one (1) week (five vacation days) the Friday preceding and the week in which the fourth of July holiday is recognized and one (1) week either at Christmas or spring break, based on operational needs. An employee's request to take their vacation at a particular time during the window period may only be turned down for overriding operational concerns as determined by the employer. In the event such an employee request is turned down, the employee will reschedule their vacation during the window period unless the requirement that the vacation time be taken during the window period is waived at the discretion of the Assistant Superintendent for Personnel. Senior employees shall have first consideration.

12.4 Paid holidays falling within a paid vacation will not be charged against the earned vacation time.

12.5 Any employee who terminates employment with the Employer shall be entitled to take pro-rated accumulated vacation pay at the rate of pay received by said employee at the time of leaving. Vacations must be taken on a yearly basis and are not accumulative unless prior approval is received in writing from the Assistant Superintendent for Personnel.

12.6 Vacations may be taken anytime during the year, with the exception of those required weeks that fall within the week of July 4 and preceding Friday window and the Christmas / Spring Break window, with ten (10) working days prior approval from the Director or Principal.

12.7 If an employee is laid off for a period of two (2) years or less or is on an approved unpaid leave of absence of twenty-four (24) months or less, this time will not be considered a break in continuous service, provided however, that this layoff or absence time will not be considered continuous employment for figuring vacation allowance. For example, an employee who has five (5) years of continuous employment for vacation purposes and is laid off for one (1) year would only have five (5) years of continuous employment for vacation purposes upon return from layoff. If a person returns in less than one (1) year from layoff or leave, he/she would receive a pro-rated vacation for that year figured on the nearest month of majority calendar days in that month. For example, an employee with a hire date of July 1 who returns on January 12 would qualify for 6/12ths of ten (10) days or five (5) days of vacation on June 30, if he/she had completed five (5) years of continuous employment beforehand. If this employee returned on January 20, the person would qualify for 5/12ths or four (4) days of vacation on June 30. Seniority continues to accumulate while on a layoff of up to two (2) years.

ARTICLE XIII

Holidays

The following regular holidays shall be observed and all employees shall be paid their usual and regular rate of pay: New Year's Day, Good Friday, Memorial Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, the Friday following Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, and the last working day before Christmas. If a holiday falls on Sunday, the employees will observe the same on Monday; if a holiday falls on a Saturday, the employees will observe the same on Friday.

ARTICLE XIV

Personal Leave Without Pay

14.1 Upon application by the employee to the Employer, unpaid leaves of absence may be granted in the case of justifiable reasons. An unpaid leave of absence shall be granted for justifiable reasons such as inability to work because of physical, mental or emotional reasons, or for care of family members if such inability is supported by medical documentation. For purposes of this section, a family member shall be defined as spouse, children, parents, or a person for whom the employee is a legally appointed guardian. The need to provide care for such family members shall be supported by medical documentation if requested by the employer. Leaves of personal absence shall not exceed twenty-four (24) months. Seniority of the employee will not accumulate during leaves of absence under this paragraph which exceed six (6) months.

Leaves of personal absence not in excess of the maximum time provided for in this paragraph may be extended upon written application of the employee and upon the approval of the Employer in advance of the expiration date. Disposition of all requests for leaves of absence and extensions thereof shall be in writing. All leaves are without pay or benefits effective with the first day of the leave except as prescribed by law.

14.2 Any employee who accepts other employment while on leave from the Employer will be considered to have terminated employment. Any employee who does not report back to work by the expiration date as set forth on the leave of absence notice, or does not receive an approved extension shall be deemed to have voluntarily quit the service of the Employer pursuant to Paragraph 7.4 of this Agreement.

14.3 Any employee covered by this Agreement who enters active duty in the United States Military Service, who: (1) is still qualified to perform the duties of the former position, and (2) makes application for re-employment within ninety (90) days after release from active duty, shall be restored employment. Status with respect to other employees shall be the same as if the employee had not entered the service. This provision is limited to one (1) normal enlistment period.

14.4 Employees elected or appointed to Union or public office may be granted leaves in excess of twenty-four (24) months. Seniority of such employees shall not accumulate during leaves of absence under these conditions, except as provided for in Paragraph 14.1 of this Agreement.

14.5 Employer may grant leaves of absences for up to six (6) months for the purpose of child care. Such care shall be for newborns or for children suffering serious illnesses. Such leave shall be restricted to legal parents. Employees on said leaves may purchase insurance from the Employer at the group rate. The Employer shall reserve the employee's position for the first ninety (90) days of the leave. Thereafter, the employer may reserve the position for the employee but is under no obligation to do so.

ARTICLE XV

Personal Leave With Pay

15.1 Personal leave with pay shall be earned by each employee at the rate of one and one-half (1-1/2) days per month of active employment during the term of this contract. However, for employees hired after December 1, 1984, personal leave with pay shall be earned at the rate of one (1) day per month for each month of active, non-probationary employment during the term of this contract. Personal leave with pay, as earned in the previous six (6) month period, shall be credited to the employee's Personal Leave Bank semi-annually, on each June 30 and December 31 to be available for use on the following July 1 and January 1, respectively. The accumulation in each employee's Personal Leave Bank shall be limited to a maximum of two hundred eighteen (218) days at each June 30.

A certificate of inability to work by reason of illness from a licensed doctor of medicine or osteopathy, examination by the Health Officer or other physician designated by the School Board, and such other evidence of illness and inability to work as the School Board may deem necessary may be required as evidence of the illness. Any absence of three or more days due to personal illness or injury may require a written statement from a licensed doctor of medicine or osteopathy stating the employee is fit to return to work. Personal illness time shall not be used for routine doctor and dentist appointments. Sick leave pay will not be allowed for injuries or illness connected with outside employment. Sick leave pay will also not be allowed for injuries or illness connected with volunteer work for governmental agencies when those agencies provide either compensation or compensation insurance for those heretofore mentioned injuries or illnesses.

15.2.3 Absence required to attend to Family Household Illness may be compensable up to a maximum of three (3) days. Family Household Illness is defined as an emergency illness of a family member other than the employee, which requires emergency medical or nursing care. The employer may require verification of the need at its discretion.

15.2.4 Absence required to attend to Personal Business may be compensable up to a maximum of two (2) days annually for business and family obligations that cannot be met outside of the working day. These days may be used for such things (illustrations of, but not limited to) as court appearances, probating a will, attending graduation exercises of children, and attending funerals of relatives; providing that arrangements are made with the supervisor three (3) days in advance of the anticipated absence. In case of an emergency, the supervisor may waive the three (3) day advance notice. Emergencies are considered to be for reasons such as a flooded basement, automobile accident, or a home fire. However, the employer may request verification of the need for the emergency personal business day at its discretion. Except for funerals of relatives, the last working day before and first working day after a holiday or vacation will not be recognized by the Board as a Personal Business day. Personal Business Leave will not be permitted for the purposes of personal pleasure such as travel, hunting, skiing, sports events, extended vacations or for gainful employment.

In the event the employee resigns within the school year, said employee will owe the District the pro-rata amount already deposited into the H.S.A. (for deductible). FOR EXAMPLE: In the event the employee resigns at the end of December after working six months of the school year, single subscribers would owe $750.
