Excluding all administrators, managers (including the food services manager), directors, licensed personnel, clerical personnel custodial/maintenance personnel, transportation personnel, aides, paraprofessionals, security personnel, substitutes and all other employees of the School District.

The Employer agrees not to enter into any agreement with another labor organization during the life of this Agreement with respect to the employees covered by this Agreement, which in any way affects wages, hours or working conditions of said employees.

Section 2. Regular employee is defined as an employee who regularly works or is paid for at least two (2) hours per day, other than students, substitutes, or temporary help.

Regular part-time employee is defined as an employee who works regularly and who works less than two (2) hours per day, other than students, substitutes, and temporary help.

following the beginning of their employment; that the continued employment by the Employer in said unit shall be conditioned upon the payment of the periodic dues of the Union. The failure of any employee to become a member of the Union not later than the thirty-first (31st) day of employment shall obligate the employer, upon written notice from the Union to such effect and to the further effect that Union membership was available to such persons on the same terms and conditions generally available to other members, to forthwith discharge such person. Further, the failure of any employee to maintain her Union membership in good standing by her failure to pay the periodic dues of the Union shall, upon written notice to the Employer by the Union so such effect, obligate the Employer to discharge such person.

There shall be no individual agreements between the Employer and the employees other than contained in these articles of Agreement.

Section 2. The employer shall deduct from the wages of each Union member who signs proper authorization cards, the sum of Union dues and initiation fee. Such deductions shall be made in accordance with the International Union, UAW, Constitution. Union dues shall be paid in arrearage (i.e. dues for the month of April will be deducted in May). All deductions shall be made during the first (1st) pay period of such calendar month with the exception of June when dues for the Month of June will be deducted from the second (2nd) pay period. Union dues adjustments will be made in June or upon termination.

Employees shall sign and deliver to the Business Office of the Employer an assignment authorizing deduction of membership dues and initiation fees of the Union by the Employer in the form hereinafter set forth:

AUTHORIZATION FOR CHECK-OFF DUES TO THE WYANDOTTE SCHOOL BOARD

DATE

I hereby assign to West Side Local 157, International Union, United Automobile, Aerospace and Agricultural Implement Workers of America (UAW), from any wages earned or to be earned by me as your employee (in my present or in any future employment by you and in the unit covered by this Agreement), such sums as the Financial Officer of said West Side Local 157, may certify as due and owing from me as membership dues, including an initiation or reinstatement fee and monthly dues in such sums as may be established from time to time as Union dues in accordance with the Constitution of the International Union, UAW.

Section 3. Union representatives shall notify an employee's immediate supervisor or other designated individual that the employee has requested Union representation to investigate a grievance.

If the employee can be released at that time, the supervisor will release the employee to talk to the Union representative. If, because of the immediate nature of the employee's work, i.e. the employee is handling a situation the employee cannot be released at that time, the supervisor will release the employee as soon as possible. The supervisor shall explain to the Union representative the nature of the emergency and confirm the explanation in writing, if requested.

The employee will not be released for longer than ten (10) minutes per shift. Once the investigation has stopped, the Union representative will notify the supervisor or designated representative that the employee has returned to work.

To the extent practicable, the Union representative handling the grievance investigation during working hours will be the steward on an alternate shift so that the steward will not have to be released from work.

If the meeting needs to go beyond the ten (10) minute limitation the Union representative will notify the supervisor and the employee will punch in and punch out for the remainder of the meeting but may work beyond his/her shift to make up this lost time.

If this procedure is abused by the District or the Union, then one party will notify the other and the Union and the District will meet to modify or negotiate a new agreement, if necessary.

Section 4. Meetings between the Employer and the Union shall be scheduled to start at mutually agreeable times.

Section 5. All time limits specified in this Agreement shall not include Saturdays, Sundays, or non-working holidays.

Section 6. A member of the Bargaining Committee shall be consulted before an employee is discharged, or disciplined and a member of the Bargaining Committee shall have an opportunity to consult with the employee affected before she leaves the premises.

Any employee who charges that she has been unjustly discharged or laid off shall appeal such in writing within three (3) working days and request a hearing at a meeting of the management and members of the bargaining committee or such employee may file a grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure. In the event that the employer and the Union agree that an employee was wrongfully discharged, the employee shall be returned to work at her regular rate of pay without the loss of time or seniority rights and with full back pay.

Section 7. Any time any employee is requested to be in a disciplinary hearing with management she shall be given the right to have Union representation.

Article V - Management Rights

The Board and the Superintendent retain and reserve full rights, authority and discretion in the proper discharge of their duties and responsibilities to control, supervise, and manage, the School District and its food service program including the right to hire, reprimand, suspend or discharge, and the right to assign, transfer, or relieve employees from duty, provided it does not conflict with any provisions of this Agreement.

Article VI - Grievance and Arbitration

Section 1. Procedure. Should difficulties or any local trouble of any kind arise between the Employer and the Union, or its members employed by the Employer in the Food Service Department, as to the meaning or application of the provisions of this Agreement, these difficulties shall be settled as expeditiously as possible in the following manner:

Step 1. All grievances of the Food Service employees shall be presented by the Steward to the immediate Manager/Supervisor within five (5) working days of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance. If not satisfactorily settled, it shall be reduced to writing by the Steward, signed by the aggrieved employee and referred to Step 2 within five (5) working days of the Step 1 presentation. Step 2. A meeting shall be held within five (5) working days of referral to Step 2 between the Steward and the Manager/Supervisor. If not satisfactorily settled, it shall then be referred to Step 3 within five (5) working days of the Employer's written answer. The Employer must give such answer within five (5) working days of such meeting.

Step 3. A meeting shall be held within five (5) working days of referral to Step 3 or a date mutually agreed upon between the Chairperson and the Superintendent or her/his designee. If not satisfactorily settled at this meeting, it shall then be referred to Step 4 within five (5) working days of the Employer's answer. The Employer must give such written answer within ten (10) working days of such meeting. Reasonable time may be added between the steps of the grievance procedure upon written mutual agreement of the parties.

Step 4. If the parties are unable to arrive at a settlement of a grievance after the above steps have been concluded, the Union may appeal it to arbitration within fifteen (15) working days after the Employer's final written answer in Step 3 by giving them written notice.

After the Union appeals the grievance to arbitration, representatives of the Employer and the Union shall attempt to select an arbitrator. If the parties are unable to agree on an arbitrator within five (5) days, the parties shall request the American Arbitration Association to submit a list of seven (7) arbitrators.

The Union shall strike the first name from the list and the Employer shall then strike one (1) name and thereafter the parties shall strike alternately. The person whose name remains shall be the arbitrator. Either party has the right to reject one (1) complete list of arbitrators, in which case another list shall be requested of the American Arbitration Association.

The arbitrator shall have no authority to add to, subtract from, or in any way modify the terms of the Agreement. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final, binding and conclusive on the parties.

The fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be paid equally by the Employer and the Union.

No more than two requests for transfers or reassignments can be made during one school year if the employee removes herself or has to be removed from the new positions.
