Grievance Form

Any grievance presented in writing must include the following:

1. Specific statement of facts giving rise to the alleged violation.
2. Section or subsection of this contract alleged to have been violated.
3. Date of alleged violation.
4. Relief sought.
5. Signature of the grievant or Association representative.

Grievance Procedure

An Employee with a problem or a complaint may first discuss the matter with his/her immediate supervisor with the objective of resolving it quickly and informally.

STEP 1 - Grievances shall be submitted in writing within ten (10) days of occurrence or knowledge of the event being grieved to the grievant's immediate supervisor. The grievant shall send a copy of the grievance to the Union. Within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance, a conference shall be held between the supervisor and the grievant and/or Union representative(s). The immediate supervisor shall, within five (5) days of the meeting, render a written decision. A copy of this decision shall be forwarded to the grievant and the Union.

STEP 2 - If the Union is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance at Step 1, or if no disposition has been made within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance, the grievance shall be transmitted to the superintendent or designee. Within seven (7) days after the grievance has been submitted to the superintendent, the superintendent or designee shall meet with the Union on the grievance. The superintendent or designee, within five (5) days after the conclusion of the meeting shall render his/her written decision thereon with copies to the Union and the grievant(s).

also understood that both the Union and the Board of Education may have other representatives or resource persons present as either so chooses.

2. Within ten (10) days after the hearing, the Board's committee shall state a decision in writing and furnish a copy thereof to the Union.

Arbitration Expedited Grievance Procedure

The parties may process a grievance via the expedited grievance procedure as outlined as follows:

- A. The grievance shall be submitted in writing to the superintendent or his/her designee. Within five (5) days after submission, the superintendent or his/her designee shall schedule a meeting with the Union in an effort to resolve the dispute.
- B. If the dispute is still not resolved to the Union's satisfaction within seven (7) days of the initial hearing between the superintendent or his/her designee and the Union, as above described, the Union may appeal the grievance to the American Arbitration Association in accord with its rules of expedited arbitration within thirty (30) days of the initial hearing at the superintendent's level.
- C. Both parties shall be bound by the award of the arbitrator, and the judgment thereon may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.
- D. The arbitrator of grievances processed via this expedited process shall have no power to alter, add to, or subtract from the terms of this Agreement.

In response to reasonable written requests, the Employer will provide any and all information necessary for the Union to represent its members. The Union may be required to pay costs incurred by the Employer in providing this information. If so, the guidelines established by the Freedom of Information Act shall be the controlling factor.

Union Activity

The Employees agree they will not engage in Union activities during working hours unless permitted within this Agreement or by permission from the immediate supervisor. If the Employer requires an Employee to be engaged in activities on behalf of the Union with the Employer, the Employee shall be released from scheduled duties without loss of wages. Any time spent during normal working hours meeting with the Employer shall be counted as hours worked when computing overtime.

Special Conferences

Special conferences for important matters will be arranged between the Union President and the designated representative of the Employer upon the request of either party. Any time spent during normal working hours meeting with the Employer shall be counted as hours worked when computing overtime.

The exercise of foregoing powers, rights, authority, duties, and responsibilities by the Employer in the adoption of policies, rules, regulations, and practices, and furtherance thereof and the use of judgment and discretion in connection therewith shall be limited only by the specific and express and implied terms of this Agreement, and then only to the extent that such terms are in conformance with the laws of the State of Michigan and laws of the United States of America.

ARTICLE 8

SENIORITY

Definition

Seniority shall be defined as the amount of service within the District as an Employee of one of the classifications of the Bargaining Unit. Accumulations of seniority shall begin on the Employee's first working day.

Calculation of Seniority

Seniority is based upon an Employee's first working day. Employees shall be ranked on the seniority list; with the Employee who has the earliest first working day of service being the most senior and the Employee who has the most recent first working day of service being the least senior. The seniority list shall be prepared by the Employer, updated every year, and reviewed by the Union. This list will also be updated at any time that seniority is a part of an issue. Seniority shall accrue within classification. Should an Employee switch classifications, their seniority level in the former classification shall be frozen.

Seniority List

Within ninety (90) days of the ratification of this Agreement, the seniority list shall be prepared jointly by the Employer and the Union and updated every September 1 or more often as requested by the Union. The seniority list for the Bargaining Unit will show the name, accrued seniority, and classification in which the Employee works. The classifications will be as follows: secretarial, paraprofessional, monitor, food service, transportation, and custodial.

Classification Seniority

An Employee working in more than one classification shall be placed on all appropriate seniority lists.

Probationary Employees

Probationary Employees shall have no seniority until the completion of the probationary period at which time their seniority shall accumulate from their first day of work.

Similar Seniority

If two or more Employees have the same seniority accumulation, the position on the seniority list shall be determined by a drawing.

Seniority Lost

Seniority shall be lost for any of the following reasons:

1. If the Employee quits.
2. If the Employee retires.
3. If the Employee is discharged and not reinstated.
4. If the Employee is absent for five (5) consecutive working days without properly notifying the Employer.
5. If the Employee does not return from leave of absence within five (5) days after the leave expires without properly notifying the Employer.
6. If the Employee is laid off for more than eighteen (18) months.
7. If the Employee does not return to work within ten (10) days after date of recall from layoff.
8. If the Employee transfers to a non-bargaining unit position.

Seniority Frozen

Seniority shall not be lost, but shall not continue to accumulate in the following cases:

1. If the Employee is on unpaid leave of absence.
2. If the Employee is laid off for less than eighteen 18 months.
3. If the Employee is on leave due to an injury or accident which is compensable under the Employer's workers' compensation insurance.
4. If an Employee is on leave to serve in the armed forces of the United States.

Temporary Position [Eleven (11) days or more but less than one (1) school year]

The following provisions shall apply to the filling of temporary vacancies:

- A. Temporary vacancies shall be posted for three (3) working days prior to being filled. During the posting period the Board has the right to use a non-bargaining unit substitute to fill the position. Said posting shall specify the period of time, not to exceed one school year for the position is to be considered temporary.
- B. If a non-bargaining unit Employee hired as a substitute for a temporary position of less than one (1) school year in duration, in any category of employment under the Master Agreement he/she shall not accrue seniority, receive benefits, nor be considered a member of the bargaining unit.
- C. Should the Board decide to make a temporary position into a permanent position, the Board shall post it as such and fill the position using the procedure outlined in Article 11.B.1 B., Article 11.D and Article 11E. Furthermore, should this position be awarded to the substitute, seniority, and days worked in the position shall be credited toward completing the probationary period, shall be the only retroactive matters. The Bargaining Unit Member shall have his/her seniority credited in days back to the first day worked in the temporary position.

- D. If a Bargaining Unit Member is hired to fill the temporary position, the following conditions apply:
- E. If the temporary vacancy is in the same classification as the Bargaining Unit Member's current assignment, the Bargaining Unit Member will continue to receive the same hourly rate in the temporary assignment. If the temporary vacancy is in a different classification than the Bargaining Unit Member's current assignment, the Bargaining Unit Member for the first twenty-five (25) working days in the temporary assignment shall be paid at their current level for the classification which the temporary assignment exists as set forth in Appendix A. After twenty-five (25) working days, the Bargaining Unit Member shall be advanced to their step at that wage level in the classification in which temporary assignment exists, as set forth in Appendix A.
- F. During the period of temporary assignment, the Bargaining Unit Member shall not earn or accrue seniority in the classification in which the temporary assignment is being performed but shall continue to accrue seniority in the classification of the Bargaining Unit Member immediately prior to being awarded the temporary assignment.
- G. Either the Board or the Bargaining Unit Member has the right to discontinue the assignment of the Bargaining Unit Member to the temporary assignment upon two (2) working days' notice.
- H. At the conclusion of the temporary assignment, the Bargaining Unit Member shall be returned to the assignment that he/she occupied immediately prior to accepting the temporary assignment subject to the layoff and recall provisions of this Agreement. During the period of a temporary assignment the Board has the right to assign a non-bargaining unit substitute to the position normally held by the Bargaining Unit Member who has received temporary assignment. There is no requirement to treat the latter opening as a temporary vacancy.
- I. Transferring to a new classification. When the vacancy is in a different classification than the Bargaining Unit Member's current assignment, the Bargaining Unit Member for the first twenty-five (25) working days in the new assignment shall be paid at their current level for the classification which the new assignment exists as set forth in Appendix A. After twenty-five (25) working days, the Bargaining Unit Member shall be advanced to their step at that wage level in the classification in which the assignment exists, as set forth in Appendix A. Seniority will freeze in their prior classification and would be placed on the bottom of seniority for the new classification. A total job transfer must occur to retain the step level.
- J. A new employee may be granted years of experience and move up the wage schedule if it is deemed their prior experience is consistent with their position for which they are being hired. This would be determined by the superintendent. They would be placed on the bottom of seniority for that classification. The superintendent will consult Support Staff Leadership prior to offering a new employee years of service.

ARTICLE 9

PROBATION

The probationary period for each new Employee shall be forty-four (44) days worked, beginning with the first day of work for that Employee. For the purpose of this section only, any part of the day worked shall count as a workday. During the probationary period the Employee may be laid off or terminated at the sole discretion of the Employer. New employee shall not be eligible for benefits until the completion of the probationary period.

REDUCTION IN WORK FORCE

Definition

Layoff shall be defined as either a necessary reduction in work hours or elimination of position.

Alternative Strategies

Prior to any layoff, as defined in this Article, the Employer shall meet with the Union to determine if there are any alternative strategies to which the parties can mutually agree. Should no alternative strategies be agreed upon, the procedures as outlined in Section C and/or D shall be implemented.

Reduction of Hours

In the event of a layoff involving the reduction of work hours, the following procedure shall be used:

1. No more than one (1) position in a classification shall be reduced from full time to part-time, in any school year. This does not preclude discontinuing any position or establishing new positions.
2. Employees may exercise seniority rights for the purpose of maintaining or approximating their normal work schedule, if their work hours are reduced. When exercising these rights bumping will begin with the least senior person in any classification.
3. The Employer shall give at least ten (10) days written notice to the Union and Employees involved before reducing the work hours of a position.

Reduction of Positions

In the event of layoff involving the elimination of positions, the following procedure shall be followed:

1. The Employer shall identify the specific position(s) to be eliminated and shall notify, at least fifteen (15) days prior to the effective date of any layoff, the Employee(s) in those position(s), and the Union.
2. After such notification, the Employer shall meet with the Union to determine if an alternative layoff procedure might be mutually agreeable (for example, waiver of seniority rights). If no alternative is agreed upon, the contract provisions shall prevail.
3. The Employee(s) in the affected position(s) shall have the right to, within seven (7) days of notification of layoff:
 - a. Bump someone who is least senior; or
 - b. Bid on another position; or
 - c. Become laid off.
4. Any and all Employees displaced by provision (3) above shall have the same rights as long as there are least senior Employees in any classification.

Substitutes

1. A laid-off Employee shall, upon request, be granted priority status on substitute lists according to seniority.
2. Anyone who wishes to combine jobs from different classifications to equal 30 or more hours a week, must become a certified bus driver and act as a substitute.
 - a. Anyone who becomes a substitute driver as a consequence of the combining jobs provision must answer their phone and must substitute as a bus driver when they are called at a 95% availability rate.

Example: The availability baseline shall be established during the first school term. After completion of the first school term, availability percentage will be calculated and monitored bi-weekly to coincide with the pay period.

- b. Failure to maintain a 95% availability will result in the following:
 - i. 1st instance – written notice
 - ii. 2nd instance – written warning
 - iii. 3rd instance – possible reassignment

Recall Procedure

1. Employees shall be recalled in order of their classification seniority to any position for which they are qualified.
2. Notices of recall shall be sent by certified or registered mail to the last known address as shown on the Employer's records. The recall notice shall state the time and date on which the Employee is to report back to work. It shall be the Employee's responsibility to keep the Employer notified as to his/her current mailing address. A recalled Employee shall

- be given at least five (5) days from receipt of notice to report for work. The Employer may fill the position on a temporary basis until the recalled Employee can report for work, providing the Employee reports within the five (5) day period. Employees recalled to work for which they are qualified are obligated to take said work. Refusal or acceptance of a position that is not at least equivalent in time and rate of pay to the position previously held, or is in a different classification than the position previously held, shall not affect an Employee's recall rights.
3. Employees on layoff shall retain their seniority for purposes of recall, subject to the provisions of Article 8.H.

Exceptions

If any event causes the closing of school for any period of time, the provisions of this Article shall not apply if the Employees can be reasonably expected to be employed the length of their normal work year.

Fringe Benefits

Laid-off Employees may continue their fringe benefits by paying the regular monthly subscriber group rate premium for such benefits to the Employer, in advance, monthly. This option will be made available within the rules and regulations of the insurance carrier. (Subject to COBRA)

ARTICLE 11

ASSIGNMENTS

Definition Vacancy

A vacancy shall be defined as any position, either newly created or a present position, to be filled. A temporary vacancy shall be defined as any position to which a Bargaining Unit Member has a claim that will be vacated for a period of time in excess of ten (10) consecutive working days, or a position created for a known duration or the duration of a special project or task.

Job Posting

1. All vacancies shall be posted in a conspicuous place for a period of ten (10) working days unless there is an Employee in that classification on layoff and eligible for such position. All job postings shall indicate classification, type of work, minimum and maximum pay rates, hours to be worked, starting date, and minimum requirements for the job. Temporary vacancies shall be posted for three (3) working days.
2. Paraprofessional postings before and after school shall be posted as additional minutes.

Summer Postings

By June 1 of each year, each Employee may notify the Employer that he/she wishes to be notified during the summer months (June, July and August) of job postings. Said request shall also include the Employee's summer mailing address.

The Employer shall notify Employees of vacancies occurring during the summer months, by sending notice of same to each Employee by United States mail to the given mailing address.

Non-unit personnel shall not be used to do Bargaining Unit work during school year break times and summer break until all current Bargaining Unit Members wishing to do this work have had an opportunity to fill the available positions. These positions will be posted and paid at the new hire rate. This provision does not apply to work not financed by the District.

Bidding on Jobs

Within ten (10) days of the posting date, any Employee may submit a letter of application indicating his/her interest.

Assignments

The vacancy shall be filled with the most senior qualified application from within the classification. Qualifications for positions within the various classifications shall be determined by the Board or its designee with input from the Association. It is understood that testing for minimum skills to demonstrate being qualified will be required. Successful demonstration of skill proficiency may, at the Employee's request, be placed in his/her personnel file for future reference. Should no Employee from within the classification apply, the vacancy shall then be filled with the most-senior qualified applicant from other classifications. The Employee shall be granted up to a twenty-five (25) days worked trial period which shall be used to determine the Employee's desire to remain on the job and the Employer's desire to have the Employee continue the assignment. An Employee not continuing on the new job after the trial period shall be returned to his/her former position. In the event any applicant is denied the job or removed after the trial period, the reasons may be requested from the Employer, who shall respond with the reason(s) in writing within ten (10) working days of the request.

The Bargaining Unit Member shall remain in any new classification assignment for a period of one (1) year before being eligible to apply for another transfer unless such transfer was the result of a layoff and the previous job classification is reinstated within the one (1) year period.

Vacancies within the Secretarial classification are exempt from Article 11 – Section E.

Temporary and Summer Vacancies

1. Temporary assignment of substitutes to vacancies shall not exceed ten (10) working days.

 5. At the Employer's discretion, a one-(1) week trial period may be imposed, subject to the same provisions as in Article 11.E above.

Involuntary Transfers

Involuntary transfers between classifications are to be minimized and avoided whenever possible. Employees shall not be placed on a lower step of the wage scale due to involuntary transfers.

Involuntary transfers from one shift to another within the classification are to be avoided whenever possible. When such transfer is necessary, the least-senior, qualified Employee shall be affected except in cases of emergency or special circumstances.

Temporary Rate Increases

In any instance in which an employee fills the position of another employee within the Bargaining Unit for four (4) hours or more, he/she shall be paid the higher rate of pay. Example: A 3rd year monitor who fills a secretarial position for four (4) hours or more will be paid the 3rd year secretarial hourly rate for the hours worked in that position.

Individual Preference

In the determination of assignments and transfers, the convenience and wishes of the individual Employee will be honored to the extent that these considerations do not conflict with the requirements and needs of the District.

Special Needs

The Association recognizes that the Employer may be required by law to provide certain "related services," for example changing diapers, clean intermittent catheterization (CIC) and tracheotomy cleaning, to special needs students.

1. When related services require expertise, the Employer will endeavor to provide the services via trained personnel. In no case, however, will a Bargaining Unit Member be required to provide related services requiring expertise, unless the following conditions are met:

Bus aides will be provided in the event the safety of the driver and/or passengers is compromised by the behavior and/or physical needs of the passengers as determined by an IEPC or the Employer.

The Employer will provide Bargaining Unit Members with all relevant necessary information concerning their passengers' handicaps. In the event the Employees, pursuant to a student's IEPC or at the direction of the Employer, utilize any specialized procedures relating to medical or behavioral management, the Employer will provide prior training as to such procedures. Such training will be at the Employer's expense, with compensation to the Bargaining Unit Member for any overtime occasioned by the training. Bus drivers and bus aides shall have the opportunity to participate in staffing and/or IEPC.

Of the 10/12 sick days, 2 days may be used for a Personal Day. If sick days are used as Personal Days (sick day/personal day), it will not count against the sick leave bonus if the employee qualifies. For example: Employee is given 10/12 sick days at the beginning of the year. Employee doesn't use any sick leave, but uses sick day/personal day #2 or sick day/personal day #3, the employee would qualify for the sick bonus at the end of the year. If Personal Day #1 is not used by the end of the year, it will accumulate as personal leave day up to a maximum of five (5) for the Bargaining Unit Member's use. (*A day shall be considered the length of an Employee's normal scheduled workday. Example: Employees working ten (10)-hour days during the summer months will receive full pay for a ten (10)-hour day should they use a personal leave day, and they will be charged for using one (1) personal leave day.)

A Bargaining Unit Member will be able to use one (1) personal leave day prior to or directly after a holiday/vacation period, provided that:

A death benefit equal to that outlined above shall be paid to the estate of an Employee within thirty (30) days of his/her death.

Bereavement Leave

Death in the immediate family - the Employee may use paid days reasonably necessary, a maximum of three (3) days per death to attend the funeral and other related matters. (Not deductible from sick leave). Additional days may be granted at the discretion of the superintendent.

Court Appearance/Jury Duty

Leave with pay not deductible from sick leave shall be granted for court appearances in any case connected with the Employee's work when the Union is not a part of the litigation. Paid leave of absence will be granted for jury duty, but any compensation received by the Employee in the form of witness fees or jury pay, excluding expense reimbursement, will be given to the Employer to offset wages paid.
