AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made and entered into this 14th day of August, 2009 by and between the ANTRIM COUNTY PROBATE/FAMILY COURT, hereinafter referred to as the "Employer" and TEAMSTERS STATE, COUNTY AND MUNICIPAL WORKERS, LOCAL 214, hereinafter referred to as the "Union".

RECOGNITION

Section 1.1 Collective Bargaining Unit

The Employer hereby agrees to recognize the Union as the exclusive representative for the purpose of collective bargaining with respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment, and other conditions of employment for all employees of the Employer included in the bargaining unit described below:

ALL FULL-TIME AND REGULAR PART-TIME EMPLOYEES OF THE ANTRIM COUNTY PROBATE/FAMILY COURT, EXCLUDING: all elected officials, supervisors, confidential employees, temporary employees, irregular employees, seasonal employees, casual employees, contract employees and all other employees.

Section 1.2 Definitions

- a. Full-Time Employee. A full-time employee is an employee who is working the Employer's normal workweek on a regular basis.
- b. Regular Part-Time Employee. A regular part-time employee is an employee who is working at least thirty (30) hours per week on a regular schedule.
- c. Irregular Employee. An irregular employee is an employee, not included within the above definitions of full-time or regular part-time employees, who is working on any other basis, including temporary, casual or seasonal employees.
- d. Contract Employee. A contract employee is an employee whose employer is an agency or corporation outside of the Employer, and whose wages and employee benefits are paid by such outside agency or corporation.

Section 1.3 Definition of Employer

The term "Employer" whenever used in this Agreement shall mean the Antrim County Probate/Family Court. All of the parties to this Agreement agree that the use of the term "Employer" is for the sole purpose of defining rights and responsibilities under this Agreement and the use of such terms shall not be binding upon the parties hereto for other purposes. It is expressly declared by the parties that, except as specifically provided in this Agreement, participation in the negotiation and execution of this Agreement neither diminishes nor enlarges the legal responsibilities, rights, and authority of the Antrim County Probate/Family Court with respect to its separate and distinct obligations, rights, responsibilities, and authority as they exist under law.

REPRESENTATION

Section 2.1 Collective Bargaining Committee

The Employer agrees to recognize a collective bargaining committee of the Union comprised of not more than one (1) employee representative acting as steward and one (1) alternate steward. Members of the collective bargaining committee shall act in a representative capacity for the purpose of processing grievances for members of the collective bargaining unit as provided in the Grievance Procedure. Members of the collective bargaining committee shall also meet with the Employer for the purpose of negotiating modifications to this Agreement. The Union may also have non-employee representatives present. The Union shall furnish the Employer, in writing, the names of its collective bargaining committee members and alternates before they shall be recognized. Members of the collective bargaining committee must have at least one (1) year of seniority.

Section 2.2 Reporting

When it is necessary for a collective bargaining committee member or alternate to leave his/her work to handle a grievance in accordance with the Grievance Procedure established in the Agreement, he/she shall first obtain permission from his supervisor or designee. Such permission shall not be withheld unreasonably. The collective bargaining committee member or alternate shall return to his/her job as promptly as possible and, upon his return, shall immediately report to the supervisor or his/her designee. A collective bargaining committee member or alternate who is assigned to duties which require services outside of the Court facilities shall perform his/her function in a manner which would not require his/her return to the Court offices for the sole purpose of performing representation functions. In cases of discipline a collective bargaining committee member shall be made available as soon as practical.

Section 2.3 Lost Time

The Employer agrees to pay members of the collective bargaining committee for time spent while acting in a representative capacity during the processing of grievances and attending meetings or negotiations with officials of the Employer, but only for the straight time hours they would have worked on their regular work schedule.

UNION SECURITY

Section 3.1 Agency Shop

As a condition of continued employment, all employees included in the collective bargaining unit set forth in Section 1.1 shall, upon the execution of this Agreement or thirty-one (31) days following date of inclusion in the bargaining unit, whichever is later, either become members of the Union and pay to the Union the periodic monthly dues and initiation fees uniformly required of all Union members or pay to the Union a service fee equal to the cost of negotiating and administering this Agreement which shall not exceed the Union's periodic monthly dues. Service fees shall not include initiation fees or special assessments of any kind.

Section 3.2 Union Membership

Membership in the Union is not compulsory and is a matter separate, distinct, and apart from any employee's obligation to share equally in the costs of administering and negotiating this Agreement. All employees have the right to join, not join, maintain, or drop their membership in the Union as they see fit. The Union recognizes, however, that it is required under this Agreement to represent all employees included within the collective bargaining unit set forth in this Agreement without regard to whether or not the employee is a member of the Union. Neither the Employer nor the Union shall exert any pressure upon any employee with regard to such matters.

Section 3.3 Check-Off

- a. During the life of this Agreement, the Employer agrees to cause the County Clerk to deduct periodic monthly Union membership dues, initiation fees and service fees, as applicable, from the pay of each employee who voluntarily executes and files with the Employer a proper check-off authorization form.
- b. A properly executed copy of the written check-off authorization form for each employee for whom Union dues or service fees are to be deducted hereunder shall be delivered to the Employer before any payroll deductions are made. Deductions shall be made thereafter only under the written check-off authorization forms which have been properly executed and are in effect. Any written authorization which lacks the employee's signature will be returned to the Union by the Employer.
- c. All authorizations filed with the Employer shall become effective the first full pay period following the filing of the authorization provided the employee has sufficient net earnings to cover the dues, initiation fee or service fee, whichever is applicable.
- d. In cases where a deduction is made which duplicates a payment already made to the Union by an employee, or where a deduction is not in conformity with the provisions of the Union Constitution and Bylaws, refunds to the employee will be made by the Union.
- e. The Union shall notify the Employer of the proper amount of union dues and service fees and any subsequent changes in such amounts. The Employer agrees to cause the County Clerk to furnish the designated financial officer of the Union a monthly record in duplicate of those employees for whom deductions have been made, together with the amount deducted.
- f. The Employer's sole obligation under this Section is limited to the deduction of dues, service fees and initiation fees. If the Employer fails to deduct such amounts as required by this Section, its failure to do so shall not result in any financial obligation whatsoever.

Section 3.4 Hold Harmless

The Union agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Employer against any and all claims, including but not limited to, such items as wages, damages, awards, fines, court costs, and attorneys' fees that may arise out of or by reason of action taken by the Employer pursuant to Section 3.1 or Section 3.3.

RIGHTS

Section 4.1 Rights

- a. It is understood and agreed that the Employer retains and shall have the sole and exclusive right to manage and operate the Antrim County Probate Court in all of its operations and activities through its duly elected or appointed representative and to establish and administer, without limitation, implied or otherwise, all matters not specifically and expressly limited by Agreement. Among the retained rights of management included only by way of illustration and not by way of limitation are as follows: to determine all matters pertaining to management policy; to adopt, modify, change or alter its budget; to determine the services to be furnished, and the methods, procedures, means, equipment and machines required to provide such services; to determine the nature and number of facilities and departments and their location; to determine the number of personnel required; to determine the number of hours to be worked by any employee; to eliminate, establish or combine classifications; to hire personnel; to determine the number of supervisors to direct and control operations; to discontinue, combine or reorganize any part or all of its operations; to maintain safety, order and efficiency; to continue and maintain its operations as in the past; to study and use different methods, processes or machines; to use improved methods and equipment and outside assistance either in or out of the Employer's facilities; to establish job descriptions and work standards; to make judgments as to the skill, ability and performance of employees; and in all respects to carry out the ordinary and customary functions of the administration of the Antrim County Probate/Family Court and its offices and departments. All such rights may be exercised by the Antrim County Probate/Family Court without prior bargaining or notice to the Union. These rights shall not be exercised in violation of any specific provision of this Agreement and as such they shall be subject to the Grievance and Arbitration Procedure established herein.
- b. The Antrim County Probate/Family Court shall also have the right to promote, assign, transfer, suspend, discipline and discharge for just cause, layoff and recall personnel; to establish work rules and to fix and determine penalties for violation of such rules and other improper employee actions or in-actions; to establish and change work schedules; and to provide and assign relief personnel; provided, however, that these rights shall not be exercised in violation of any specific provision of this Agreement, and as such they shall be subject to the Grievance and Arbitration Procedure established herein.

Section 4.2 Rules and Regulations

The Employer has the right to establish reasonable rules and regulations not inconsistent with this Agreement.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 5.1 Definition of Grievance

A grievance shall be defined as a complaint filed by an employee covered by this Agreement or by the Union concerning the application or interpretation of a specific provision or provisions of this Agreement as written.

Section 5.2 Grievance Procedure

It is mutually agreed that all grievances shall be handled in the following manner:

- a. Step 1 – Oral Procedure. An employee with a grievance shall discuss the matter with the Probate Judge (or designated representative) within four (4) days from the time of the occurrence of the events giving rise to the grievance or within four (4) days from the time that the employee involved first knew or should have known of the facts giving rise to the grievance or within four (4) days from the time that the employee involved first knew or should have known of the facts giving rise to the complaint. Such discussion shall not occur during work hours unless otherwise approved by the Employer. If requested by the employee, the steward may be present. The employee's supervisor (or designated representative) shall give the employee concerned an oral answer to the grievance within four (4) days of the discussion. Every effort shall be made to settle the grievance in this manner.

- b. Step 2 – Written Procedure. If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled at Step 1, the complaint shall be reduced to a written grievance and submitted to the Probate Judge within five (5) days of following the receipt of the Employer's Step 1 answer. The grievance shall be signed by the employee and shall indicate the Section or Sections of this Agreement in dispute and shall set forth the facts giving rise to the grievance and the relief requested. The preparation of a written grievance and discussion of such grievance shall not occur during working time unless otherwise approved by the Employer. Within ten (10) days of this appeal, a meeting shall be held between representatives of the Employer and the Union Bargaining Committee. Either party may have non-employee representatives present, if desired. If the meeting cannot be scheduled within the ten (10) day period, it shall be scheduled at the mutual convenience of the parties. The Employer will answer the grievance within five (5) days after the meeting.

Section 5.3 Time Limitations

The time limits established in the Grievance Procedure shall be followed by the parties. If the Union fails to present a grievance in time or to advance to the next Step in a timely manner, it shall be considered to be withdrawn. If the time procedure is not followed by the Employer, the grievance shall automatically advance to the next Step, but excluding arbitration. The time limits established in the Grievance Procedure may be extended by mutual agreement, provided the extension is specified in writing.

Section 5.4 Time Computation

In computing days under the Grievance Procedure, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays recognized under this Agreement shall be excluded.

Section 5.5 Multiple Grievances

Multiple grievances may be presented at an arbitration hearing by mutual agreement of the parties.

Section 5.6 Grievance Settlements

With respect to the processing, disposition, or settlement of any grievance initiated under this Agreement, and with respect to any court action claiming or alleging a violation of this Agreement, the Union shall be the sole and exclusive representative of the employee or employees covered by this Agreement. The disposition or settlement, by and between the Employer and the Union, of any grievance or other matter shall constitute a full and complete settlement thereof and shall be binding upon the Union and the bargaining unit, the employee or employees involved, and the Employer. The satisfactory settlement of all grievances shall be reduced to writing and shall be written on or attached to each copy of the written grievance and signed by the representatives involved. Unless otherwise expressly stated, all such settlements shall be without precedent for any future grievance.

Section 5.7Grievance Resolution

All grievances with significant economic implications (those which cannot be satisfied within the constraints of the Probate Court budget), and which are satisfactorily resolved at Step 1 or Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure, other than for wage claims pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, must be approved in writing by the Board of Commissioners at its next regularly scheduled monthly meeting before they shall be final. The time limitations set forth in the Grievance Procedure shall be stayed during the period in which grievances are referred to the Board of Commissioners under this Section. If the resolution of a grievance is not approved, the Union shall have fifteen (15) days following receipt by the Union of notice of the County Board of Commissioners' action to request arbitration.

Section 5.8Election of Remedies

When remedies are available for any complaint and/or grievance of an employee through any administrative or statutory scheme or procedure, such as, but not limited to, a veteran's preference hearing, civil rights hearing, or Department of Labor hearing, in addition to the Grievance Procedure provided under this contract, and the employee elects to utilize the statutory or administrative remedy, the Union and the affected employee shall not process the complaint through any Grievance Procedure provided for in this contract. If an employee elects to use the Grievance Procedure provided for in this contract and, subsequently, elects to utilize the statutory or administrative remedies, then the grievance shall be deemed to have been withdrawn and the Grievance Procedure provided for hereunder shall not be applicable and any relief granted shall be forfeited.

ARBITRATION

Section 6.1Arbitration Request

If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved in Step 2, the Union may request arbitration by notifying the Employer, in writing, of its intent to arbitrate within thirty (30) days after receipt of the Employer's answer in Step 2. If the Union does not notify the Employer of its intent to arbitrate in the manner provided, the grievance shall be deemed to be settled on the basis of the Employer's last disposition.

Section 6.2Selection of Arbitrator

If a timely request for arbitration is filed by the Union, the parties to this Agreement shall promptly select, by mutual agreement, one (1) arbitrator who shall decide the matter. If the parties are unable to agree upon an arbitrator, the arbitrator shall be selected by each party alternately striking a name from a panel of seven (7) arbitrators submitted by the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. Either party to this Agreement may reject the first list submitted by the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, provided the party which does so must immediately request a new list. The remaining name shall serve as the arbitrator, whose fees and expenses shall be shared equally by the Employer and the Union. Each party shall pay the fees, expenses, wages and any other compensation of its own witnesses, representatives and legal counsel.

Section 6.3 Arbitrator's Powers and Jurisdiction

The arbitrator's powers shall be limited to the application and interpretation of this Agreement as written. The arbitrator shall at all times be governed wholly by the terms of this Agreement and shall have no power or authority to amend, alter or modify this Agreement either directly or indirectly, to consider any statute, laws, or other extra-contract agreements not specifically incorporated or referenced in this Agreement. The arbitrator shall have no authority to rule on the discipline, layoff, recall or termination of any probationary employee; or to rule on any matter which is or might be alleged as a grievance if proceedings have been instituted involving this matter in any administrative action before a governmental board, agency or entity or in any court. Further, the arbitrator shall not be empowered to change or set a wage rate or to pass on the propriety of verbal or written warnings administered to employees covered by this Agreement. The Union acknowledges that the Employer retains all rights not otherwise abrogated under the expressed terms of this Agreement as generalized in the management's rights clause herein. If the grievance concerns the exercise of these rights which are not otherwise limited by the expressed terms of this Agreement, the grievance shall not be arbitrable. If the issue of arbitrability is raised, the arbitrator shall not determine the merits of any grievance unless arbitrability has been affirmatively decided. All claims for back wages shall be limited to the amount of wages that the employee would otherwise have earned, less any unemployment compensation or compensation for personal services that the employee may have received from any source during the period in question.

Section 6.4 Arbitration Decisions

No decision in any one case shall require a retroactive wage adjustment in any other case, unless such case has been designated as a representative case by mutual written agreement by the parties.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

Section 7.1 Just Cause

The Employer shall not discharge or discipline a non-probationary employee except for just cause. The Employer agrees to use progressive and corrective discipline, where appropriate. The Union acknowledges, however, that progressive discipline need not be utilized for major infractions.

Section 7.2 Counseling Memoranda

The Union acknowledges that counseling memoranda may be utilized by the Employer. Counseling memoranda shall not be construed as disciplinary action.

Section 7.3 Record

In imposing discipline on a current charge, the Employer will not take into account any disciplinary action which occurred more than eighteen (18) months previously provided the employee has received no discipline during the previous eighteen (18) months unless such prior discipline is directly related to the current charge.

Section 7.4 Notice of Disciplinary Action

Within three (3) days following the disciplinary suspension or discharge of a non-probationary employee, the Employer will notify a collective bargaining committee member, in writing, of the reasons therefor and will, within the same period of time, cause a copy to be issued to the employee involved. It is understood and agreed that nothing in this Section prevents the Employer from raising the employee's work record at any point in the grievance and arbitration procedure.

Section 7.5 Leaving Premises

Whenever possible, the discharged or suspended employee will be allowed to discuss his discharge or suspension with a collective bargaining committee member before an employee is required to leave the property of the Employer, and the Employer will make available an area where this may be done in private.

Section 7.6 Expedited Grievance

Should an employee who has been discharged or suspended consider such discipline to be improper, any grievance must be processed initially at Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure within three (3) days of receipt of written notice of discipline by a collective bargaining committee member. The Union may file the grievance on behalf of the employee so disciplined.

SPECIAL MEETINGS

Section 8.1 Special Meetings

The Employer and the Union agree to meet and confer on matters of clarification of the terms of this Agreement upon the written request of either party. The written request shall be made in advance and shall include an agenda stating the nature of the matters to be discussed and the reason(s) for requesting the meeting. Discussion shall be limited to matters set forth in the agenda, but it is understood that these special meetings shall not be for the purpose of conducting continuing collective bargaining negotiations, nor to in any way modify, add to, or detract from the provisions of this Agreement, except by mutual agreement of the parties. Special meetings shall be held within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the written request at a time and place which is mutually agreeable to both parties.

WORK STOPPAGE AND ILLEGAL ACTIVITY

Section 9.1 No Strike Pledge

The Union agrees that during the term of this Agreement neither it nor its officers, representatives, members, or employees it represents shall, for any reason, whatsoever, directly or indirectly, call, sanction, counsel, encourage, or engage in any strike, walk-out, slow-down, sit-in, or stay-in; nor shall there be any concerted failure by them to report for duty. The Union shall not cause, authorize, sanction, or condone, nor shall any employee covered by the Agreement take part in, any picketing of the Employer's buildings, offices or premises, or in any picketing whatsoever to publicize a dispute with the Employer.

Section 9.2 Penalty

Any employee who violates the provisions of Section 9.1 shall be subject to discipline by the Employer, up to and including discharge. Any appeal to the Grievance and Arbitration Procedures regarding discipline imposed for a violation of Section 9.1 shall be limited to the question of whether the employee or employees did, in fact, engage in any activity prohibited by Section 9.1.

Section 9.3 No Lockout

During the life of this Agreement, the Employer, in consideration for the promise on behalf of the Union and the employees it represents to refrain from the conduct prohibited by Section 9.1, agrees not to lock out any employees covered by this Agreement.

SENIORITY

Section 10.1 Definition of Seniority

Seniority shall be defined as the length of an employee's continuous service with the Employer as a full-time or regular part-time employee since the employee's last date of hire as a full-time or regular part-time employee. An employee who works a regular part-time schedule shall have his/her seniority date adjusted on the basis of the number of hours worked prorated vis-a-vis full-time employees. Part-time employees shall not have seniority preference vis-a-vis full-time employees. Any and all time worked as an irregular employee shall not be counted towards length of continuous service in determining an employee's seniority. The application of seniority shall be limited to the preferences and benefits specifically recited in this Agreement.

Section 10.2 Probationary Period

All new full-time and regular part-time employees shall be considered to be on probation and shall have no seniority for the first 975 straight time hours of employment following their first day of work for Antrim County Probate/Family Court as a full-time or regular part-time employee. Until an employee has completed the probationary period, he/she may be disciplined, laid off, recalled, terminated or discharged at the Employer's discretion without regard to the provisions of this Agreement and without recourse to the Grievance Procedure set forth in this Agreement.

Section 10.3 Seniority List

The Employer shall maintain and post a roster of employees, arranged according to seniority, showing name, classification, date of hire, and bargaining unit seniority. An up-to-date copy of the seniority list shall be furnished to the Union steward and to the local Union in January of each year.

Section 10.4 Loss of Seniority

An employee's seniority and employment relationship with the Employer shall terminate for any of the following reasons:

- a. If the employee quits or retires.
- b. If the employee is discharged and reinstated by the Grievance Procedure.
- c. If the employee is absent from work for three (3) consecutive working days without notifying the Employer. In proper cases, such exceptions shall be made upon the employee producing convincing proof of his inability to give such notice. This section is not to be construed to limit the Employer's right to issue discipline for any unjustified absence.
- d. If the employee fails to report for work on the required date following recall to work from layoff in accordance with the procedures established in this Agreement, unless the employee provides convincing proof of his inability to report to work on the required date.
- e. If the employee fails to return to work on the scheduled dates for return from a leave of absence, disciplinary suspension, or vacation, unless the employee provides convincing proof of his/her inability to return on the scheduled dates.
- f. If the employee is on layoff status consecutively for a period of eighteen (18) months or the length of his seniority, whichever is less.
- g. If the employee is on a disability leave, including a Worker's Compensation leave, for a period of eighteen (18) months or the length of his/her seniority, whichever is less.

Section 10.5 Interruption of Seniority

In the event an employee is on an unpaid leave of absence (when an employee is not paid through the payroll) which exceeds thirty (30) calendar days, then beginning on the 31st calendar day an employee will stop accruing seniority. An employee's seniority accrual will resume when the employee is back on the job and on the County payroll.

Section 10.6 Job Posting and Bidding Procedure

- a. All permanent vacancies and newly-created positions within the bargaining unit shall be posted for five (5) working days. The posting shall indicate the classification of work and rate of pay. Interested bargaining unit employees may make application for such vacancy by notifying the Probate Judge of their desire for the position within the posting period. Regular bargaining unit employees shall be given preference provided they meet all the criteria and requirements of the job. The Probate Judge will be the final appointing authority. In making his selection the Probate Judge shall consider the following factors:
 - Knowledge, training and ability to perform the work
 - Attendance records
 - Performance evaluationsWhere the above factors are relatively equal among applicants, the employee with the greatest seniority will be given the job. The Probate Judge reserves the right to fill vacancies from outside sources when, in the Probate Judge's opinion, it is in the best interest of the Probate/Family Court to do so.
- b. Employees who are promoted shall be paid at the wage step in the higher classification which reflects an increase. The date of the promotion shall be the employee's new seniority date for the purposes of future step increases within the classification.
- c. The employee who is promoted (within or outside of the bargaining unit) shall serve a three (3) month period to prove he is capable of performing the work. At any time during this trial period, the employee may on his/her own volition, request in writing to be relieved of the new classification and be returned to the former classification and former rate of pay without loss of seniority. At any time during the trial period, if the Employer determines that the employee is unsatisfactory in the new classification, the Employer shall have the right to return the employee to the former classification from which he/she was promoted without loss of seniority and will provide said employee, upon written request from that employee, a written explanation specifying the reasons for the return to the former classification.

Section 10.7 Temporary Vacancy

For the purpose of temporarily filling a vacancy in a higher classification, the Employer shall offer such assignment to the senior most qualified employee within the Court. The Employer shall determine when a temporary vacancy exists, and will proceed to fill such vacancy in accordance with this Agreement as soon as possible. However, no position shall be considered temporary for a period beyond sixty (60) days without the mutual consent of the Employer and the Union.

Section 10.8 Seniority Accumulation

Seniority shall continue on all approved Employer paid leaves of absence unless otherwise specifically provided for in one of the Leave of Absence Sections of this Agreement.

LAYOFF AND RECALL

Section 11.1 Layoff

All reductions in the work force shall be accomplished in the following manner:

- a. No full time, regular part-time or probationary employee shall be laid off from his/her position in the Department while any temporary, seasonal or irregular employees are serving in the classification affected in the Department. The Employer shall attempt to provide employees with at least fourteen (14) calendar days notice prior to the layoff of such employees.
- b. The first employees to be laid off shall be probationary employees in the classification affected. Thereafter, further layoffs from the affected classification shall be accomplished by laying off regular part-time employees by the inverse order of their seniority; provided, however, the remaining senior employees have the necessary training, ability and experience to perform the required work and work the required hours. In the event further reductions in the work force are necessary, full-time employees in the classification affected shall be laid off in the inverse order of seniority.
- c. Upon being laid off from his classification, an employee who so requests shall, in lieu of layoff, be reduced to a lower or equal classification in the Department; provided, however, that he/she has more seniority than the employee who he/she is to replace and he/she has the necessary training, experience and ability with minimal orientation to perform the required work.

Authorization or denial of the extension request shall be furnished in writing to the employee by the Employer. Authorization of an unpaid leave of absence under this Section shall not be withheld unreasonably.

Any employee on unpaid leave of absence (when the employee is not being paid through payroll) will not accrue benefits (pension, vacation days, etc.). This will take affect after the employee is off for five (5) working days on an unpaid leave of absence.

Section 12.2 Purpose of Leave

It is understood by the parties that leaves of absence are to be used for the purpose intended, and employees shall make their intent known when applying for such leaves. There shall be no duplicating or pyramiding of benefits or types of absence. Employees shall not accept employment while on leaves of absence unless agreed to by the Employer. Acceptance of employment or working for another employer without prior approval while on leave of absence may result in discipline, up to and including discharge. All leaves of absence shall be without pay unless specifically provided to the contrary by the provisions of the Leave Section involved.

Section 12.3 Active Military Leave

Any full-time and non-probationary employee who enters active service of the Armed Forces of the United States shall receive a military leave without pay. Section 12.4 Extended Unpaid Leave Due to Illness or Injury

Extended unpaid leave due to illness or injury for a fixed period of time, not to exceed sixty (60) calendar days, shall be granted automatically upon application from non-probationary employees for illness or injury, subject to the Employer's right to require proof of disability or injury. Extensions of unpaid leave due to illness or injury may be granted by the Employer; provided, however, the obligation is on the employee to report any change of condition or request a continuation of unpaid leave due to illness or injury.

Section 12.5 Maternity Leave

Maternity leaves shall be treated the same as any other leave due to illness or injury.

Section 12.6 Medical Certificates and Examinations

- a. Employees requesting a leave due to illness or injury for an extended period of time or a continuation of leave due to illness or injury may be required to present a certificate of a physician showing the nature of such illness or injury and the anticipated time off the job. Should the Employer require a second opinion from a physician, the Employer shall pay the cost of such second opinion.
- b. In situations where an employee's physical or mental condition reasonably raises a question as to the employee's capability to perform his job, the Employer may require a medical or psychological examination at its expense and, if cause is found, require the employee to take or remain on an illness or injury leave of absence.

Section 12.7 Jury Duty

Any full-time employee shall be granted a leave of absence with pay when he/she is required to report for jury duty. The employee shall give the Employer prior notification of his/her jury duty. Employees shall be paid the difference between any jury duty compensation they receive and their regular wages for all time necessarily spent in jury service. Employees shall be paid on the next regularly scheduled pay day for such time after endorsing the jury duty check for each day to the Employer, with the exception of those funds allocated for mileage. However, employees who complete such jury duty prior to the end of the workday shall return to their regular work station for the remainder of the workday; provided, however, they have spent less than six (6) hours in jury duty.

Upon completion of six (6) months of service, an employee will be credited with a pro rata amount of paid leave days equal to his/her months of employment prior to January 1 divided by two. Employees, however, whose first six (6) months of service overlaps January 1 will be credited with six (6) paid leave days upon completion of six (6) months of service. The provisions of subsection (f) shall not apply to an employee who has not completed six (6) months of service by January 1.
- c. Paid leave days shall be granted for personal reasons or when an employee is unable to perform his/her duties because of injury or illness. However, if such leave is to be used for other than illness or injury, the employee must request such leave at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance of the date requested.
- d. When personal leave days are used for sickness due to an illness or injury of more than three (3) consecutive work days, the Employer may require a medical statement when abuse of this provision is suspected.

In the event more than three (3) consecutive days are needed for funeral leave, additional time may be taken by the employee with the approval of the Employer. Such additional time may be deducted from the employee's vacation leave or paid leave days.

Section 12.10 Family Medical Leave

The Employer agrees to comply with the Family Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA). The Employer shall require the employee to use all accrued paid leave provided the leave is not covered under the short-term disability policy. However, the employee may elect to save up to ten (10) vacation days.
