- A. Membership in the Union is not compulsory and is a matter separate, distinct and apart from an employee's obligation to share equally the cost of administering and negotiating this Agreement. All employees have the right to join, not join, maintain or drop their membership in the Union as they see fit. The Union is required under this Agreement to represent all of the employees in the bargaining unit fairly and equally without regard as to whether or not an employee is a member of the Union. The terms of this Agreement have been made for all employees in the bargaining unit and not only for members in the Union, and this Agreement has been executed by the Employer after it has satisfied itself that the Union is the choice of a majority of the employees in the bargaining unit. Accordingly, it is fair that each employee in the bargaining unit pay his own way and assume his fair share of the obligation along with the grant of equal benefit contained in this Agreement.
- B. In accordance with the policy set forth under paragraph A of this Section, all employees in the bargaining unit shall, as a condition of continued employment, pay to the Union the periodic monthly dues and initiation fees uniformly required of all members, or pay the Union a service fee to be set by the Union in accordance with applicable provisions of the State and Federal laws. The Employer will return any written authorization, which lacks the employee's signature, to the Union.

4.3: Deductions. Deductions for dues, initiation and service fees for any calendar month shall be made from the first (1st) pay period of that month, provided the employee has sufficient net earnings to cover the dues and/or service fees. In the event an employee is absent from work during the first (1st) pay period, such deduction shall be made from the first (1st) period of the following month together with the deduction for the current month. Deductions for any calendar month shall be remitted to the designated financial officer of the Union not later than the fifteenth (15th) day of each month.

4.5: Dues and Fees. The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the proper amount of dues, initiation and service fees and any subsequent changes in such amounts.

4.6: Dispute. If a dispute arises as to whether or not an employee has properly executed or properly revoked a written check-off authorization form, no further deductions shall be made until the matter is resolved.

4.7: Termination of Employment. The Employer shall not be responsible for Union dues or service fees after an employee's employment relationship with the Employer has ended. ARTICLE V REPRESENTATION

5.1: Stewards. The Employer agrees to recognize one (1) steward elected or appointed by the Union from among employees in the bargaining unit with one or more years of seniority for the purpose of processing grievances, and/or recognizing non-employee representatives. The Employer will recognize an alternate steward when the regular steward is absent from work. The Union agrees that the steward will not let his stewardship interfere with his duties or the operations of the Sheriff's Department, and the Employer agrees to give the steward reasonable time and access to other officers to fulfill his obligations hereunder. The Union will be allowed to have one representative attend to required Union business and be paid up to 40 hours straight time in additional wages a year. The authority of the steward and alternate so elected by the local union shall be limited to, and shall not exceed, the following duties and activities:

- A. To investigate and present grievances to his Employer or the designated Employer representative in accordance with the provisions of the collective bargaining agreement.
- B. The transmission of such messages and information, which shall originate with, and are authorized by the local union or its officers, provided such messages and information:
 - 1. Have been reduced to writing, or
 - 2. If not reduced to writing, are of a routine nature, and do not involve work stoppage, slow-downs, refusal to handle goods, or any other interference with the Employer's business.

The local President shall serve as the steward and the local Vice President shall serve as the alternate steward.

5.2: Notification. The Employer shall be informed in writing of the names of the steward and alternate. All official communication from or to the Employer shall be from or to the steward.

5.3: Visitation. Authorized representatives of the Union shall be permitted to visit the operation of the Employer during working hours, to talk with the steward of the local union and/or representatives of the Employer concerning matters covered by this Agreement, provided the representatives of the Union first announce their intentions to the officer in charge who shall make the necessary arrangements for such consultation so as not to disrupt the work of the department and the employee(s) involved.

5.4: Special Conferences. For important matters of mutual concern not being processed as a grievance under this Agreement a special conference will be arranged between the Employer, steward, and POLC and any outside parties requested to attend. Arrangements for such conferences shall be made in advance and shall be limited to the agenda presented when such arrangements are made. It is expressly understood that these special conferences shall not be for the purpose of conducting collective negotiations, nor to in any way, modify, add to or detract from the provisions of this.

ARTICLE VI
MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

6.1: Management Rights. The management of the Employer, the determination of all matters of management policy; the services to be furnished; the nature and number of facilities and departments to be operated and their location; the direction of the working force, including only by way of illustration and not by way of limitation, the right to hire, discipline, suspend, or discharge for just cause, promote, transfer or layoff employees, or to reduce or increase the size of the working force; to unilaterally establish reasonable rules and regulations, or to make judgments as to the ability and skill, is within the sole prerogatives of the Employer, provided, however, that they will not be used in violation of any provisions of this Agreement. The Employer shall be the exclusive judge of all matters pertaining to the services that it provides; the methods, processes and means of providing service, the schedules and standards, or work, methods, processes, means and materials to be used, except as prohibited in this Agreement. The Employer shall have the right to continue and maintain its services and operations as in the past and prior to the execution of this Agreement with the Union, but it shall also have the right to study and use improved methods of equipment and outside assistance (sub-contracting) if necessary. It is understood that except as expressly limited in this Agreement, the Employer reserves and retains, solely and exclusively, all of its inherent and customary rights to manage the Sheriff's Department operations.

6.2: Separation of the Term Employer When Necessary. In sections of the contract wherever the authority and obligation for performance is that of the Sheriff, the term "Sheriff" shall be used in place of "Employer".

ARTICLE VII
GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

7.1: Definition of Grievance. A grievance shall be a complaint by an employee or the Union concerning the application and interpretation of a specific provision of this Agreement, which is subject to the grievance and arbitration procedures established herein.

Step 1. Verbal Procedure. An employee with a complaint shall discuss the matter with the Sheriff or his representative within ten (10) calendar days following the incident, which gave rise to the complaint. If requested by the employee, he may have his steward present. If the complaint is not satisfactorily settled, it may be advanced according to the written procedure.

Step 2. Written Procedure. Within ten (10) calendar days from the Sheriff's answer in the verbal procedure, the complaint shall be reduced to writing, citing the sections of the contract that are alleged to have been violated and signed by the employee or the Union and then presented to the Sheriff. The Sheriff and the Union representative and grieving party, if requested by the Union representative, shall discuss the grievance in an attempt to resolve the matter. The Sheriff shall place his answer on the grievance form and return it to the Union representative within ten (10) calendar days after the grievance meeting. If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled, it may be advanced according to Step 3.

Step 3. Appeal to the County Personnel Committee. Failing to resolve the issue in the second step, the Union shall within ten (10) calendar days of the Sheriff's or his designee's disposition provide a written request, delivered to the County Administrator's Office, addressed to the Labor Sub Committee of the Committee of the Whole to arrange a meeting between the Union and the Labor Sub Committee to discuss said grievance. This meeting shall be scheduled at a mutually agreeable time, which time shall not exceed, however, ten (10) calendar days from the time the Union contacts the County unless a longer time is mutually agreed upon. The Labor Sub Committee may designate the county administrator to act in their behalf to hear selected grievances. If the parties in this step are unable to resolve the grievance, the matter may be submitted to arbitration as hereinafter provided for in this Agreement.

Step 4. Request for Arbitration. In the event that the last step fails to settle the grievance, the Union may submit the grievance to arbitration by giving the Employer written notice within thirty (30) days following the Employer's answer.

Notwithstanding the provisions above, in the case of a grievance involving a discharge, suspension without pay, or a lay-off, the time limits in steps 1, 2 and 3 shall be five (5) days instead of ten (10) days.

7.2: Selection of Arbitrators. If a timely request for arbitration is filed by the Union, the parties to this Agreement shall select by mutual agreement one (1) arbitrator who shall decide the matter. The Employer and the Union agree to use the following arbitrators on a rotating basis with arbitrator "A" being selected first.

- | | |
|---------------------|----------------|
| A. Mario Chiesa | C. Peter Jason |
| B. Patrick McDonald | D. Barry Brown |

If the arbitrator up for selection is not available, the next arbitrator will be used. If none of the listed arbitrators are available, the Employer and the Union will attempt to agree on an impartial arbitrator. In the event the Employer and the Union are unable to agree on an impartial arbitrator, the arbitrator will be selected from a list of arbitrators submitted by the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service consistent with such Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service's normal procedures. The Employer and the Union shall share the arbitrator's charges for his services and expenses equally. Each party shall pay the fees, expenses, wages and other compensation for their own witnesses, representatives and legal counsel.

7.3: Arbitrator's Powers. The arbitrator shall be limited to the application and interpretation of this Agreement as written. He shall have no power to add to, subtract from, or modify this Agreement in any respect, nor shall he have power to change any classification wage rate, to rule on any claim arising from a decision of a third party carrier, nor shall he have authority to rule upon the exercises of the Employer's rights not specifically abrogated by specific provisions of this Agreement. Further, the arbitrator shall not be empowered to consider any question or matter outside of this Agreement or rule upon which persons the Sheriff shall deputize and which persons will be delegated the Sheriff's law enforcement authority. If the issue of arbitrability is raised, the arbitrator shall only decide the merits of the grievance if arbitrability is affirmatively decided. No decisions in any one case shall require retroactive wage adjustments in any other case. All claims for back wages shall be limited to the amount of wages the employee would otherwise have earned, less any compensation or unemployment benefits that he/she may have received from any employment source during the period of the back pay. Any grievance that arose prior to the effective date of this Agreement shall not be processed and no award of the arbitrator shall be retroactive any earlier than the time the grievance was first submitted. The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding upon the Union, the Employer and the employees of the bargaining unit.

7.4: Time Limitation. The parties shall follow the time limits established in the grievance procedure hereto. If the time procedure is not followed by the Union, the grievance shall be considered settled. If the Employer does not follow the time procedure, the grievance shall automatically advance to the next step, but excluding arbitration. The time limits established in the grievance procedure may be extended by mutual agreement.

7.5: Grievance Resolution. All grievances which are satisfactorily resolved at the first (1st) and second (2nd) step of the Grievance Procedure if the grievance has economic implications, must be approved in writing by the County Board of Commissioners at its next regularly scheduled monthly meeting before they are binding on the Employer. The time limits set forth in Step 1 and Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure shall be stayed during the period in which such grievance resolutions are referred to the County Board of Commissioners under this section. If the County Board of Commissioners disallows the resolution of the grievance, the Union shall have five (5) days following receipt by the Steward of notice of the County Board of Commissioners' action to resubmit the grievance at the arbitration step in the Grievance Procedure held prior to such disallowance. If the grievance is not resubmitted in a timely fashion, it shall be deemed to be withdrawn by the Union.

7.6: Grievance Settlements. The satisfactory settlement of all grievances shall be reduced to writing and shall be written on or attached to each copy of the written grievance and signed by the representatives involved.

7.7: Statutory Claims. It is the intent of the parties to this Agreement that its terms and provisions shall be applicable to all employees included within the bargaining unit. Accordingly, the parties hereby agree that any employee who may come within the provisions of any legislative enactment which establishes a procedure whereby the employee may challenge the Employer's determinations regarding the employee's employment status, wages, hours or working conditions, will be required to, no later than Step 3 of the Grievance Procedure, elect in writing either the Grievance Procedure or his/her statutory remedies as his/her single means of challenging the Employer's determination. If the employee elects to pursue his/her statutory remedy, or fails to make an election, any grievance concerning the Employer's employment determination shall be considered withdrawn by the employee and the Union and, further, shall not thereafter be subject to any arbitration proceeding. This section shall not apply to unfair labor practice charges filed with the Michigan Employment Relations Commission.

ARTICLE VIII SENIORITY

8.1: Seniority Definition. Seniority shall be defined as the length of the employee's continuous service with the Sheriff's Department commencing from his last date of hire. Seniority within each division will also exist and be defined from the time the individual entered the division. Seniority within a division will be the basis for considerations such as shift picks, vacation picks, overtime, personal time or other days off as they are applicable. Employees who are employed on the same date shall be placed on the seniority list in alphabetical order of surnames.

- A. All full-time employees shall serve an original probationary period of one (1) year uninterrupted service, during which time they will be termed "probationary employees".
- B. The Union shall represent probationary employees for the purpose of collective bargaining, however, the Employer, in its sole discretion, may terminate probationary employees at any time during the probation period and neither the employee nor the Union shall have recourse to the grievance procedure beyond Step-2 over such termination.

- C. Employees who apply and are selected for employment in another division of the sheriff department will be considered as a new employee within that division but will retain seniority with the county for accumulation of vacation eligibility, longevity pay, vesting and other applicable considerations as they pertain to length of service.
- D. Employees who apply and are selected for a position in another division of a higher wage classification shall be placed on the wage schedule at a rate that is equal to or greater than the currently held position. Employees who apply and are selected for a position in a lower wage classification shall be placed on the wage schedule at the rate that reflects the employee's total years of continuous service.

8.2: Seniority. The seniority of any employee shall commence from the last date of hire, provided the employee has successfully completed his/her probationary period, which is mutually agreed upon between the Union and the Employer, or as provided by this Agreement. An employee shall forfeit seniority and employment for the following reasons:

- A. If he/she resigns, quits or retires.
- B. If he/she is discharged or terminated and the termination or discharge is not reversed.
- C. If he/she has been on layoff status and not employed by the County for a period of time equal to his/her seniority or two (2) years, whichever is less.
- D. If he/she is absent from work for four (4) consecutive working days without authorization from the Employer.
- E. If he/she fails to return to work on the required date from a leave of absence, vacation or disciplinary suspension. In case of an emergency, up to a seventy-two (72) hour grace period may be allowed.
- F. If he/she is convicted of a felony.
- G. If he/she makes an intentional false statement on his/her employment application or on any official police report relating to law enforcement functions (e.g. warrants, complaints and similar documents).
- H. If he/she fails to report for work within ten (10) days following notification of recall from layoff sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to his/her last known address.
- I. If he/she has been on sick leave for a period of time in excess of all accumulated sick, vacation and other credited benefit time.

J. If a settlement with the employee has been made for total disability.

8.3: Seniority List. And up-to-date seniority list shall be furnished to the Union from time to time, upon request.

ARTICLE IX PROBATION

9.1: Probationary Period. All full-time and regular part-time employees shall serve a probationary period of twelve (12) months. If an employee is absent from work because of illness or other reasons for a period of seven (7) consecutive days or longer, such period of his absence shall be added to the twelve (12) months probationary period. Absence because of an in-service training or job related injury should be not added to the probationary period.

9.2: Representation. Until an employee has completed the probationary period, he/she may be disciplined, laid off, recalled, terminated or discharged at the Employer's discretion without regard to the provisions of this Agreement and without recourse to the Arbitration Procedure. The Union may represent probationary employees with regard to wages, hours and working conditions, but shall not represent the employees for any of the aforementioned issues. There shall be no seniority among probationary employees.

9.3: Benefits. During the probationary period an employee shall be eligible for employee benefits, except as otherwise provided within this Agreement.

ARTICLE X DISCHARGE, DEMOTION AND DISCIPLINE

10.1: Definition. Discipline, as used in this Agreement, shall mean an action from a written reprimand to any action taken which results in loss of pay and/or discharge. Verbal and/or written counseling reports and employee evaluations are not considered to be disciplinary actions and are, therefore, not subject to the grievance procedure. Written counseling reports will not be kept in the personnel records. Such counseling reports and evaluations shall not used as a basis for future disciplinary actions, except to verify that an employee has been made aware of the Employer's concern in the areas covered.

10.2: Notice of Discipline, Discharge or Demotion. The Employer agrees that no non-probationary employee will be disciplined or demoted without cause. The Employer further agrees to promptly, upon the discipline or demotion of a non-probationary employee, notify in writing the steward of the discipline, or demotion and the reasons for the same.

10.3: Discussion of Discipline Discharge or Demotion. A discharged or demoted non-probationary employee will be allowed to discuss his discharge or demotion with the steward, so long as such discussion, does not interfere with his assigned duties, and the Employer will provide a suitable room, on or off the premises, where they may meet. Upon request, the Employer or his designated representative will discuss the discharge or demotion with the non-probationary employee and the steward. Any non-probationary employee may request the presence of the union steward in any conference in which the Employer intends to impose discipline. Any conference with a non-probationary employee to impose such discipline will be adjourned at the request of the employee until the steward is available to join the conference.

10.4: Appeal of Discipline Discharge or Demotion. Should the discharged or demoted non-probationary employee consider the discharge or demotion to be improper, a complaint shall be presented in writing through the steward to the Employer within two (2) regularly scheduled working days of the discharge or demotion. The Employer will review the discharge or demotion and give its answer within three (3) regularly scheduled working days after receiving the complaint. If the decision is not satisfactory to the non-probationary employee, the matter shall be referred to Step 3 of the grievance procedure.

10.5: Discipline. A disciplined non-probationary employee will have full rights under the grievance procedure. Disciplinary warnings will not be used after two (2) years if an employee has no further disciplinary actions in that two (2) year period, unless they are directly related to the current discipline. A discipline in which the penalty is ten (10) days or more to which a probationary period is assessed shall not be used after four (4) years, if the employee had no further discipline in which the penalty was ten (10) suspension days or more, or to which a probationary period was assessed during the four (4) year period.

10.6: Statements. The Employer, as a condition of employment, shall not require any employee to make any statements, oral or written, which could lead to discipline or discharge of that employee.

ARTICLE XI LAYOFF AND RECALL

11.1: Layoff. In the event of any reduction of personnel is made, as determined by the Employer, layoff shall be by classification within the Department, with temporary employees, then part-time employees, then probationary (non-disciplinary) employees, being laid off first. Thereafter, employees with the least seniority in that classification shall be laid off, provided that the remaining employees with more seniority in the classification are qualified to perform the work.

11.2: Bumping. Upon being laid off from his/her classification, an employee may bump lower seniority employees within the bargaining unit under the following conditions:

- A. The bumping employee cannot move into a position of a higher salary grade.
- B. The bumping employee must have more departmental seniority than the employee in the position that is being bumped.
- C. The bumping employee must possess the necessary skill, experience and certifications, which will qualify the employee to perform the work. The necessary "Skill, experience and certification" shall be determined by the required qualifications as listed in the job description. If a laid off employee does not have the required certification at the time of layoff, he/she may, at his/her own expense and on his/her own time, acquire such certification. Upon attainment of the required certification, he/she may exercise his/her seniority rights and return to employment in the lower paying classification.
- D. The bumping shall not apply in temporary cases of layoff, which do not exceed ten (10) working days.

An employee wishing to exercise their bumping rights must inform the Sheriff of his/her decision to bump within three (3) days from the date of receipt of the layoff notification. Employees who exercise their bumping rights shall then receive the rate of pay of the new classification. The bumped employee shall have the same bumping rights as the laid off employee, seniority permitting.

11.3: Recall. The last employee laid off in a classification shall be the first employee recalled, provided the employee is qualified to fill the open position. Notification of recall may be made by telephone and shall be followed by certified mail delivered to the employee's last known address. An employee shall respond to the certified notice of recall within forty-eight (48) hours of the receipt thereof. If an employee fails to respond to a notice of recall within forty-eight (48) hours of receipt thereof, the Employer shall assume that the employee has voluntarily quit. An employee that retains seniority rights shall have recall rights up to four (4) years following the original layoff.

11.4: Return to Unit by Layoff. In the event of layoffs by classification, members of the Command Officers Association unit who are laid off shall be allowed to return to the Deputy/Dispatch unit and to exercise their bumping rights, provided they have enough Bargaining Unit seniority to displace another employee.

11.5: Benefits. Employees who are laid off shall not be entitled to any benefits extended pursuant to this Agreement, nor shall seniority accrue during such layoff period. However, employees on layoff status may continue the insurance carrier permits their health insurance to the extent permitted by Federal law, provided the employee pays the premium for such insurance in advance, and, provided continued coverage.

11.6: Vacation Use. In the event of layoff, an employee may use accumulated vacation leave prior to receipt of unemployment compensation, provided the employee is entitled to the same.

11.7: Layoff Alternatives.

- A. Voluntary Layoffs. When faced with a layoff, the Employer may, at its sole option, prior to enactment of the above layoff provisions, solicit voluntary layoffs from members in the bargaining unit. An employee electing a voluntary layoff shall not have the right, at a later date, to rescind the election and return to work. His/her sole right to return to work shall be pursuant to the recall provisions in section 11.3 of this article.

ARTICLE XII VACANCIES AND TRANSFER

12.1: Temporary Assignments. An employee who is assigned by the Sheriff or his designee to a higher classification shall receive the pay of said higher classification, if the assignment exceeds two (2) weeks. An employee may be temporarily assigned to work in any position in the same or lower classification and shall not suffer any loss of pay during the period of such temporary assignment.

12.2: Permanent Vacancies. The Employer will fill permanent classification vacancies as soon as possible when need for such action is necessary, as determined and/or established by the Employer. However, the Employer may make temporary assignments for no more than a one (1) year period.

ARTICLE XIII PROMOTIONS

13.1: Promotions. Promotional opportunities for employees will be posted for a minimum period of six (6) days, and employees desiring to be considered for such promotions shall advise the Sheriff in writing. To be considered for promotion an employee must have a minimum of three years service within the division. In making such promotions, the Sheriff will consider the seniority and the qualifications of the applicant. In considering qualification non-discriminatory written examinations will be given and scored. All passing applicants will also be given a non-discriminatory oral examination. Objective analysis such as the applicant's work record, training, and experience will also be evaluated. The Sheriff will have the right to pick between the top two candidates. A promotion list will be in effect for one year after it has been established. The jobs are required to be posted under the provisions of the agreement include all promotions within the department excluding Undersheriff.
