PURPOSE AND INTENT

The purpose and intent of this Agreement is to set forth the terms and conditions of employment for the members of the bargaining unit and to promote the harmonious working relationship between the Employer, employees and Union.

ARTICLE 1 RECOGNITION

1.1: The Union is hereby recognized as the exclusive representative of all full time and regular part time Friend of the Court employees with the exclusion of Friend of the Court, Deputy Friend of the Court, Attorney Referees, confidential Secretary, Supervisors as defined by the Act, temporary employees and co-op employees, for the purpose of collective bargaining with respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment and working conditions.

ARTICLE 2 UNION REPRESENTATION

2.1: All employees covered by this Agreement shall be represented for the purposes of the grievance procedure by a steward or alternate steward, selected by the Union, and for negotiating by a bargaining committee selected by the Union.

2.2: Either the Union Steward or the alternate Steward (hereafter Steward) shall be paid by the Employer for time spent in processing grievances during working hours. A Steward and/or Grievant will only be permitted to take time away from work for processing a grievance or union business when prior notice is given to the Friend of Court. If being away from work will adversely affect the operations of the Court, the parties will determine a mutually satisfactory time for the Union to conduct necessary business. In the event a dispute develops concerning the application of this sub-paragraph, the parties shall immediately meet to discuss and resolve said dispute in a manner which secures the Union's independence to police its contract and the Friend of Court's ability to conduct its business. If good faith discussions do not produce agreement, the Employer may resort to unilateral action. Any grievance which may result shall be processed in accordance with the American Arbitration Association's rules for expedited arbitration.

2.3: Whenever the parties agree to negotiating sessions during working hours, up to two (2) members of the Union negotiating team shall be paid for the time spent in such negotiations. The Union's bargaining committee may be released for reasonable periods in advance of scheduled bargaining sessions. Approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

2.4: Time spent by the Steward and Alternate Steward processing grievances shall not be abused. The Steward and Alternate Steward shall, upon request, furnish the Employer with an accounting of time spent operating in the grievance procedure. Failure to provide for a general accounting or for abuse may result in discipline.

2.5: The Union shall notify the Friend of Court and the Personnel Director of the County in writing of names and classifications of all chapter representatives of the Union. Members of the Unit which are not officially identified as Union Representatives shall not be recognized or permitted to represent the interests of other members of the Union to the Employer.

Changes in Union representation shall be promptly made in writing.

2.6: Any Steward or Alternate having an individual grievance in connection with his own work may ask for a member of the Committee to assist in adjusting the grievance.

2.7: Nothing in this Article or Agreement shall be construed as limiting any rights of the Court, County or employees guaranteed under the Public Employment Relations Act or any other applicable law.

ARTICLE 3 MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

3.1: It is recognized that all rights, powers and duties of the Court and Friend of Court inherent therein or otherwise provided by law or Court rule are reserved and retained by the Employer, except only as expressly abridged in this Contract. The control of its properties and the maintenance of order and efficiency is solely the prerogative and responsibility of the Employer. Other rights and responsibilities not expressly abridged by this Contract shall belong solely to the Court and Friend of Court in addition to the following, and are hereby provided as illustration only and not by way of limitation:

- A. The right to decide the number and location of its facilities, departments, and etc.; work to be performed within the unit; the right to alter or discontinue jobs, classifications, or practices; the maintenance and repairs; amount and kind of supervision necessary; methods and means of operation; scheduling and establishment of hours; manpower and work sites; full control of the selection examination, review, and evaluation of personnel, programs, operations and facilities; to determine when and where services will best facilitate the Friend of Court.
- B. Further, it is recognized that the responsibility and prerogatives of the Management of the Friend of Court for the selection and direction of the working forces includes but is not limited to the right to decide the number of employees, the right to decide employee's qualifications; to determine the times and amount of overtime to be worked; recesses and to carry out Supreme Court Directives concerning holidays; the right to make necessary rules and regulations governing employee's conduct and safety; the right to hire, fire, promote, demote, and transfer; discipline for just cause; and to relieve an employee from duty, all of which are vested exclusively in the Friend of Court, subject only to the provisions of this Agreement.
- C. The Employer's failure to exercise any function or right hereby directly or indirectly reserved to it or its exercise of such function or right in a particular way shall not be deemed a waiver of its rights to exercise such function or right or preclude the Court from exercising the same in some other way not in conflict with the express provisions of this Agreement.
- D. The Association acknowledges the practice of following the provisions of a Friend of Court Manual, prescribing in detail the standards of operation prescribed for the orderly and required management of the Friend of Court. It is further understood that a Friend of Court Manual may from time to time require revision due to changes in federal and/or state laws and regulations.

ARTICLE 4
PAYROLL DEDUCTION AND UNION SECURITY

4.1: During the term of this Agreement, the Employer will honor written assignments of wages to the Union for the payment of union dues, or service charges of non-union employees. The Employer will promptly remit the dues deducted pursuant to such assignments with a written statement of the names of the employees for whom deductions were made. Normally, the deductions will be made the last pay period of each month for the then current union dues.

The employee's assignment may include the following clause which the Employer agrees to honor:

"This assignment shall continue in full force and effect until revoked by the employee in writing not more than sixty (60) days and not less than fifty (50) days before any anniversary date of this Agreement."

4.2: The representation fee shall be an amount as determined by the Union in compliance with the law applying to such service fees.

4.3: Each employee who would be eligible to acquire or maintain membership in the Union, and who fails voluntarily to acquire or maintain membership in the Union, shall be required as a condition of employment beginning on the thirty first (31st) day following the beginning of such employment or date of this Agreement, whichever is later, to pay to the Union each month a service charge as a contribution toward the administration of this Agreement and the representation of such employee. Temporary employees shall be required to pay union dues or service fee to the Union after ninety (90) calendar days of employment. This service charge for the first month shall be an amount equal to the Union's regular monthly dues, the usual initiation fee when applicable, and for each month thereafter an amount equal to the regular and usual monthly dues.

4.4: The Union shall indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any and all claims, demands, suits or other forms of liability actions for the purpose of complying with the provisions of this Article or in reliance on any list, notice or assignment furnished under any such provisions.

ARTICLE 5
DEPARTMENTAL WORK RULES AND REGULATIONS

5.1: The Friend of Court is authorized to determine departmental work rules and regulations in addition to the policies described herein. Such work rules and regulations must be written and posted in a conspicuous place. Each employee shall be given a copy of the Friend of Court work rules.

5.2: Such work rules or regulations will be null and void where they conflict with statutes, or this Agreement.

5.3: Department work rules and regulations are subject to the grievance procedure to determine whether they may be in conflict with any statute or this Agreement.

5.4: Work rules and regulations may be instituted which specifically address the safety and physical well being of the employee.

5.5: All work rules and regulations, including safety, are enforceable by discipline.

5.6 The Employer shall give the Union thirty (30) days advance written notice of proposed work rules and regulations and shall afford the Union said thirty (30) day period within which to give input concerning such proposed work rules and regulations.

ARTICLE 6 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

The grievance procedure is provided for the orderly resolution of differences that may arise in the interpretation of the Agreement, enforcement of its terms and conditions and the appropriateness of discipline. Nothing shall prevent the parties from a mutual agreement to modify any procedural requirement provided herein. Any mutually agreed procedural modification, including the extension of time limits, shall be reduced to writing specifically describing the modification and identifying those authorizing the modification.

STEP 1

- a. The Union and/or any employee having a specific grievance alleging a violation of this Agreement; a violation or deviation from a specific written Friend of Court policy or procedure; or a failure of the Friend of Court to comply with a specific written policy, procedure, method or regulation shall, within fifteen (15) working days of the alleged grievance, or the date the employee should have knowledge of the event giving rise to the grievance, take the matter up with the Friend of Court, who shall attempt to adjust the grievance with the terms of this Agreement or written policy, procedure, method or regulation. The employee may have their Union Representative present at this Step.
- b. Any employee may request the Friend of Court to call on one of the designated stewards to handle a specified grievance. In this case, the steward will be notified without undue delay, and without further discussion of the grievance. This procedure shall not unduly delay the operations of the Friend of Court.
- c. A grievance that does not specifically apply to salary, job classification, or a fringe benefit shall be considered non-economic. A non-economic grievance shall be referred to the Friend of Court for resolution. A grievance that specifically applies to salary, job classification or a fringe benefit shall be considered economic. An economic grievance shall be referred to the Human Resources Director and the Friend of Court for resolution.
- d. A class action grievance shall require the signature of a bargaining unit employee officer in order to be a proper grievance at Step 1.

NON-ECONOMIC

- a. Grievances shall be considered settled at Step 1 unless reduced to writing on appropriate forms signed by the aggrieved employee and/or Union and delivered to the Friend of Court within five (5) working days after the meeting or adjourned meeting at Step 1. In this case, a meeting will be arranged within five (5) working days between the designated representative of the Union, the Grievant(s), and the Friend of Court for the purpose of attempting to settle the grievance.
- b. The Friend of Court shall be entitled to include up to an additional two (2) representatives as hearing officers to assist in the disposition of grievances. The names of the representatives will be identified to the Union in advance of the hearing.
- c. The Friend of Court or designated representatives shall provide a written decision within ten (10) working days to the Union.
- d. The grievance shall be considered settled at Step 2 unless, within thirty (30) calendar days after the completion of Step 2, the Union files written notice delivered to the Human Resources Director and the Friend of Court of the Union's intention to pursue arbitration.
- e. A class action grievance shall require the signature of at least two (2) bargaining unit officers at Step 2 in order to process through the grievance procedure.

ECONOMIC

- a. Grievance(s) shall be considered settled at Step 1, unless submitted to the Human Resources Director within five (5) working days. The Human Resources Director shall notify the Friend of Court.
- b. Within ten (10) working days of receipt of the grievance according to (a) above, the Human Resources Director and Friend of Court will meet with the Grievant(s), the Chairperson and a Union Representative, theretofore, designated as Grievance Representative and conduct a hearing of the grievance. All parties involved in the grievance at this step may be present.
- c. The Human Resources Director and Friend of Court shall serve their written opinion to the Grievant(s) within ten (10) working days after the hearing.
- d. The grievance shall be considered settled at Step 2 unless, within thirty (30) calendar days after the completion of Step 2, the Union files written notice delivered to the Human Resources Director and the Friend of Court of the Union's intention to pursue arbitration.

STEP 3

It is mutually agreed by the parties hereto that the inclusion of compulsory arbitration as final step in the grievance procedure shall be subject to the following safeguards and conditions:

- a. Within thirty (30) days of the date of issuing a notice of intent, the Union shall file a request for arbitration or the matter will be untimely.
- b. Every effort will be made by the parties to provide each other with thirty (30) calendar days advance written notice of the names of witnesses to provide testimony at the hearing. Should either party wish to compel the presence of any person to provide testimony, they shall request the arbitrator to issue a subpoena. The parties shall be under an affirmative obligation to provide the other party with all relevant information impacting on the issue and matter at hand in advance of the date of the hearing.
- c. The fee and expenses of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the parties. All other expenses related to the arbitration proceedings including any expenses incurred by calling witnesses, shall be borne by the parties incurring such expenses.
- d. The arbitrator shall have powers as hereby limited, after due investigation, to make a decision in cases of alleged violation, misinterpretations or misapplications of a specific Article and Section of this Agreement.
- e. The arbitrator shall have no power to add to, subtract from, disregard, alter or modify any of the terms of this Agreement.
- f. The arbitrator in rendering a decision, shall give full recognition of the Management Rights provision of this Agreement as it relates to the responsibilities, powers, authority and rights vested in the County, except as specifically limited by express provision of this Agreement.
- g. The arbitrator's decision shall be submitted in writing and shall set forth the findings and conclusions with respect to the issue(s) submitted to arbitration, and such decision shall be final and binding on the parties to the Agreement.
- h. The Union shall have the option to select arbitration through the American Arbitration Association, MERC, or as otherwise mutually agreed by the parties.

ARTICLE 7
SENIORITY

7.1: A full time employee shall mean an employee regularly scheduled to work seven and one-half (7 1/2) hours in a day and/or seventy-five (75) hours in a pay period. Full time employees shall accrue seniority from their most recent date of hire with the Friend of Court provided employment is continuous. Seniority shall apply only as set forth in this Agreement. Employees shall be considered probationary employees until they have successfully completed a probationary period which shall be ninety (90) calendar days.

7.2: A part time employee shall mean an employee regularly scheduled to work no more than thirty (30) hours in a calendar week or sixty (60) hours in a pay period. The Friend of Court shall not regularly schedule a part time employee to work more than thirty (30) hours in a calendar week or sixty (60) hours in a pay period. Part time employees shall be required to complete a probationary period of one hundred eighty (180) calendar days and shall accrue seniority based upon the number of days worked.

7.3: A temporary employee shall mean an employee hired in a seasonal capacity or as a substitute for an employee on an approved leave of absence. A temporary employee hired in a seasonal capacity shall not exceed nine (9) months of continuous employment, unless otherwise mutually agreed by the parties.

7.4: Any addition of regular part time employees during the duration of this Agreement shall not diminish the current complement of thirty (30) regular full time employees. The Friend of Court shall give the Union ten (10) days advance notice before hiring a regular part time employee.

7.5: Temporary employees shall accrue no seniority but shall be eligible for membership in the Union after completing ninety (90) calendar days of temporary employment.

7.6: The seniority for full time and part time employees shall be maintained separately and distinctly.

7.7: An employee whose working hours change to full time or part time shall be entitled to their previously accrued seniority.

ARTICLE 8 LOSS OF SENIORITY

8.1: An employee shall lose seniority for the following reasons:

- a. Voluntarily or involuntarily terminates employment.
- b. Is discharged and the discharge is not reversed.
- c. The employee does not return to work when recalled from layoff as set forth in the recall procedure.
- d. Retires.
- e. Fails to resume work at the end of an approved leave, unless authorized or excused in writing by the Friend of Court.
- f. Is absent from work without good and satisfactory reason given to the Friend of Court unless authorized or excused in writing by the Friend of Court. In the event the parties disagree as to whether or not the reason is "good and satisfactory" it may be resolved by the Grievance Procedure.
- g. Layoff for a continuous period of six (6) months or the length of the employee's seniority, whichever is greater, but not to greater than two (2) years, if the technology of the function changes or three (3) years if the technology does not change.

h. Death.

ARTICLE 9
SENIORITY LIST

9.1: The seniority list on the date of this Agreement will show the date employed (first day on which the employee reported for work), name, and job title of all employees of the bargaining unit entitled to seniority, and post such list in the Friend of Court office.

9.2: An up to date seniority list will be provided the Chapter Chairperson within a reasonable period of request.

ARTICLE 10
LAYOFF

10.1: Layoff shall mean a reduction in the workforce including displacement to a lower paying classification as determined necessary by the Friend of Court. Layoff shall be by classification such that if a layoff is determined necessary in a particular classification, the least senior person in the affected classification will be laid off first. Be it provided that the laid off employee shall be entitled to exercise displacement rights to the next lower paying subordinate classifications by displacing the least senior employee in the subordinate classification provided the employee is qualified and able to perform the work of the subordinate classification and has more Friend of Court seniority than the person being displaced. An employee who chooses to displace the least senior employee in a subordinate classification shall receive a sixty (60) day trial period. The trial period will provide the Court and the employee with the opportunity to become acquainted with the job. If at the end of the trial period the employee is unable to perform the job to the satisfaction of the supervisor, the employee may exercise one more displacement option to a subordinate classification if any, or be laid off and the most senior laid off employee qualified for the position shall be recalled. A secondary displacement shall meet the same requirements and time limits as the initial displacement action.

10.2: The Union shall be notified promptly of a layoff. The Union may request a meeting with the Friend of Court and the County to discuss layoff. Be it provided, however, such meeting shall not prohibit or constrain the Friend of Court and County in the execution of a layoff as provided herein. Be it further provided that the meeting shall not be scheduled when the layoff is to employees in state or federally funded programs, if applicable by law. If the Friend of Court is receiving funds from a state or federally funded program (e.g., CETA, JEPTA) and the funds are discontinued, the individual in such position(s) may be at the discretion of the Friend of Court laid off in accordance to this Article or the position converted to a regular position.

10.3: An employee whose layoff is not provided in accordance with the contract shall be entitled to use the Grievance Procedure.

10.4: Employees to be laid off will have no less than fourteen (14) calendar day's written notice of layoff. The Union will be provided a copy of the layoff notice given to each employee. The layoff notice shall include a notification of the provisions of Article 8 - Loss of Seniority, 8.1: c.

10.5: When a layoff is determined to be necessary, temporary, probationary and part time employees in an affected classification shall be laid off by classification first. Employee(s) shall be laid off by classification in seniority order from the least to the most senior, provided that the most senior employee(s) qualified to perform the function shall be retained. Be it provided that a laid off full time regular employee shall be entitled to displace a part time or temporary employee in the event no full time regular position is subject to displacement. The employee shall exclusively determine to accept a layoff or displacement. The employee who accepts layoff shall be entitled to displace a part time or temporary employee if within thirty (30) days of becoming ineligible for unemployment benefits or six (6) months, whichever occurs later.

10.6: In the event two or more employees have equal seniority, layoff shall be by employee payroll number. The employee(s) with the highest employee payroll number shall be considered to have the least seniority.

10.7: During the period of layoff, an employee shall accrue no seniority or be eligible for any fringe benefits.

10.8: A laid off or displaced employee shall have recall rights for a period of six (6) months or the length of their seniority, whichever is greater, but not greater than two (2) years if the technology of the function changes or three (3) years if the technology does not change.

10.9: Employees who are transferred or promoted to a job outside of the bargaining unit shall retain their seniority within the bargaining unit for a period of one (1) year. Thereafter their bargaining unit seniority shall be terminated.

ARTICLE 11 PROMOTIONS

11.1: When a vacancy occurs, the Employer shall post a job vacancy notice in a conspicuous place in each Friend of Court office. The Local President shall be provided a copy of the job posting.

11.2: The Employer encourages bargaining unit employees to seek upgrading within the Bargaining Unit. The job vacancy notice shall be posted for a period of five (5) working days. The posting shall include:

- a. The job title.
- b. A description of the position.
- c. The necessary qualifications of the job.
- d. The hours of work.
- e. The application process.

11.3: The Employer will give consideration to unit employees who possess the skill or ability, experience or education and physical fitness where applicable, and documented or demonstrated acceptable work habits necessary to perform the job. If more than one employee is qualified and all of the above factors are relatively equal, award shall be made to the employee with the longest continuous service. If an employee candidate and a non-employee candidate have relatively equal qualifications, the employee shall be awarded the position. New employees on probation are not eligible to bid on posted job openings. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as preventing the Employer from hiring someone outside the Bargaining Unit to fill a vacancy if the Employer determines such a hiring would be in the best interest of the office of the Friend of Court.

11.4: Promotions shall be made from within current employee ranks when the employee is qualified pursuant to 11.3 above. In the event an employee feels he or she was unjustly denied the position, the Friend of Court shall meet with the Steward and employee to discuss the reason(s) for not being granted the position.

11.5: The employee shall have thirty (30) working days to elect to return to their former job classification without loss of seniority. This period may be extended by mutual consent if reduced to writing. In addition, an employee, who in the Employer's opinion does not satisfactorily complete a ninety (90) day probationary period, which may be extended by mutual consent, shall be returned to his former job classification without loss of seniority.

11.6: An employee who accepts a promotion and who in the Employer's opinion satisfactorily completes the probationary period shall be placed on the job classification seniority list as of the first full days work in the upgraded classification. The promoted employee shall be paid at the rate of pay to which they are promoted from the first day of the promotion. Compensation shall be at the rate of the nearest higher salary step to their current salary.

ARTICLE 12 RATES FOR NEW JOBS

12.1: The County and the Friend of Court before establishing same shall give written notice to the Union of newly proposed classification and rate structure prior to the time the classification becomes effective.

12.2: The Union shall, within seven (7) calendar days of such notification, give written notice to the County and the Friend of Court of its request to be heard concerning said proposed rate structure.

12.3: The County and the Friend of Court shall within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the notice in Section 2, set a time for hearing the Union's view.

12.4: Failure of the Union to give Section 2 notice or to appear at the Section 3 hearing shall be approval of the proposal unless the parties have agreed to extend the above time limits. Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed as preventing the Employer from establishing or implementing a new classification.

ARTICLE 13 LEAVES OF ABSENCE

13.1: Leaves of absence for reasonable periods, not to exceed two (2) years, will be granted without loss of seniority for:

- a. Illness leave (physical or mental); and
- b. Prolonged illness of spouse, child, parents, legal dependent and stepchildren.

All leaves shall be granted consistent with complying with the period of medical disability stipulated in writing by the attending physician. The Friend of Court may require an employee on a leave of absence due to illness to submit to an examination by a physician chosen by the Friend of Court, provided the charges of the physician are paid by the Friend of Court. Leaves of absence granted under this section will be consistent with medical necessity.

13.2: Upon Friend of Court approval, leaves of absence for reasonable periods, not to exceed one (1) year, may be granted without loss of seniority for:

- a. Serving in any Union position; and
- b. Educational purposes.

Such a leave shall be consistent with meeting the operational needs of the Friend of Court.

The parties agree to adhere to the FMLA. Disputes concerning compliance with the FMLA shall be subject to the grievance procedure or, if mutually agreeable, other alternative dispute resolution forums.

The leave year for purposes of computing benefits under the Family Medical Leave Act shall commence at the beginning of an employees approved leave and shall be for twelve calendar months thereafter.

The Employer will maintain, at the Employer's expense, health care coverage for up to twelve (12) weeks of approved FMLA leave. However, if the employee is paying the premium or a portion of the premium prior to such leave the employee shall continue to pay such premium while on leave. If an employee fails to return from an approved FMLA leave, the Employer may recover the cost of health care coverage paid during said leave from the employee.

An employee must provide a copy of a certification from a health care provider to justify a medical leave when the requested leave is for a serious health condition of the employee or the employee's family member. Where leave is foreseeable and at least thirty (30) days notice is provided, the employee is to provide certification before the leave begins. If circumstances are such that thirty (30) days is not foreseeable, the employee must provide certification to the Employer as soon as practicable but no later than fifteen (15) calendar days after the leave begins. Certification must contain:

1. The date on which the condition commenced.
2. The probable duration of the condition.
3. The medical facts regarding the condition.

If leave is requested as intermittent leave or a reduced schedule leave, the certification must contain a statement of the medical necessity for the intermittent or reduced schedule leave. Certification is not required if intermittent leave or reduced leave is for the birth of, adoption of, or foster care placement of a child, however, agreement must be obtained from the Employer for this type of leave.

The Employer, at its discretion, may require an employee on approved FMLA leave to provide periodic certification and/or reports as to the status and intentions of the employee to return to work. Failure to provide requested certification in a timely manner or failure to return from a FMLA leave may result in termination of employment.

It is the employee's responsibility to find a health care provider who will provide a complete certification.

If the Employer is not satisfied with the original certification, the Employer may require the employee to obtain a second opinion from a health care provider approved by the Employer. The Employer will pay for the opinion of the second health care provider. If the first two opinions conflict, the Employer may pay for a third opinion to be delivered by a doctor mutually agreed upon by the Employer and the employee. The Employer may grant preliminary leave approval under the above circumstances which may be confirmed or withdrawn depending on the results of the second or third opinion.

Employees returning from FMLA medical leave must provide the Employer with a return to work certification from their health care provider attesting to their fitness to return to their duties.

An employee returning from an approved FMLA leave shall be restored to the position held by the employee when the leave commenced or restored to an equivalent position with equivalent employment benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment.

An employee who has exhausted FMLA benefits may request, and a leave of absence may be granted in accordance with normal leave provisions of this Article. Absence under an approved FMLA leave shall be counted as and deducted from leave entitlement under this Article.

In compliance with the Act, the Employer reserves the right to require an employee to utilize any accrued sick days and up to fifty (50%) percent of their accrued vacation days to a maximum of fifteen (15) vacation days during an approved leave. Fractions of a day shall be rounded up to a full day for pay purposes.

While on a FMLA leave without pay, the employee accrues no vacation time, sick days, or gain from any other fringe benefit.

13.3: An employee who has a combined continuous leave of absence, including extensions, for two (2) years and is unable to return to work shall be considered to have resigned.

13.4: All leaves based upon illness, including maternity, shall be supported by a statement from the attending physician, when requested by the Friend of Court. In all cases of illness extending beyond seven (7) calendar days, the employee shall provide upon request of the Friend of Court and at reasonable intervals, physician statements evidencing the employee's inability to return to normal work duties. The Court may waive the right, but such waiver shall not form the basis for submitting a grievance when such waiver is not granted. The Employer shall have the right to require evidence of information concerning the nature of the employee's illness.

13.5: In no case shall an employee be granted a leave of absence greater than their accrued seniority.

13.6: An employee shall not be entitled to return to work from a leave of absence due to illness without medical verification by the attending physician that the employee is fit to return to work and is able to perform all aspects of their job.

13.7: Request for an extension of a leave of absence shall be submitted in writing to the Friend of Court no less than five (5) working days prior to the expiration date of the leave.

13.8: While on a leave of absence without pay, the employee accrues no vacation time, sick days, retirement credit, or gain from any other fringe benefit.

13.9: Failure to report to work on the first scheduled workday after the expiration of a leave of absence shall result in an immediate discharge except where the failure to report is otherwise permitted under this contract.

13.10: Leaves of absence with pay for any short term educational training which would benefit the Employer may be authorized by the Friend of Court. Employees shall be entitled to reimbursement for tuition, fees, books, supplies and lab expenses if required to attend educational training by the Employer or if the educational training is approved by the Friend of Court in advance and in writing.

ARTICLE 14 HOURS - WORKDAY - WORKWEEK

14.1: Standard work week shall consist of five (5) consecutive days, Monday through Friday. The work week shall consist of thirty-seven and one-half (37 1/2) hours.

14.2: The work day shall consist of seven and one-half (7 1/2) hours. Any change in the number of work hours in a day or work week shall be reviewed jointly by the parties as established in the Letter of Understanding regarding Flex Time attached to the Agreement.

14.3 Each employee working six (6) or more consecutive hours shall be entitled to two (2) fifteen (15) minute breaks, one in the first half of their shift and one in the second half of their shift. Each employee working six (6) or more consecutive hours shall be entitled to a one (1) hour lunch.

14.4: Overtime shall be computed on the basis of one and one-half (1 1/2) times the regular hourly rate unless otherwise provided in conjunction with the Letter of Understanding regarding Flex Time:

- a. On all hours worked in excess of seven and one-half (7 1/2) hours on any particular day.
- b. On all hours worked in excess of thirty-seven and one-half (37 1/2) hours per week.
- c. In the event any law hereafter enacted requires overtime to be paid for hours in excess of a shorter work week than that established by this
